He expressed regrets that the Dean of our Past Grand Masters, M.W. Bro. T. H. Simpson and our Grand Treasurer, M.W. Bro. J. A. Hearn, were absent on account of illness. Our other Past Grand Master, M.W. Bro. W. L. Wright was attending the World Council of Churches in Sweden and the Lambeth Conference in London.

WELCOME BY TORONTO LODGES

R.W. Bro. Ross Roberts, D.D.G.M., presented the other District Deputy Grand Masters of the Toronto Districts, each of whom, in turn, presented the Masters of the lodges in his district. On their behalf Wor. Bro. Wm. Thom, the Master of Riverdale Lodge, No. 494, extended to the Grand Master and to the members of Grand Lodge a most cordial welcome. The Grand Master made suitable reply.

MINUTES

The Grand Secretary proceeded to read the Minutes of the last meeting held in Toronto on July 18th, 1967, when it was moved by the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn, and resolved: That inasmuch as the Minutes of the last Annual Communication held in Toronto have been printed and distributed to all constituent lodges the same be now taken as read and confirmed.

RULES OF ORDER

The Rules of Order as prescribed by the Constitution governing the conduct of the meeting were read by the Grand Secretary.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

It was moved by the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by M.W. Bro. J. A. Irvine, and unanimously carried, that the Order of Business of this Annual Communication be changed at the discretion of the Grand Master.

GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

To the Officers and Members of the Most Worshipful the Grand Lodge A.F. and A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

My Brethren:

It is my happy privilege this morning to cordially welcome so many of my brethren of this Grand Jurisdiction to the One Hundred and Thirteenth Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario. I am sure all of us are most pleased to have as our guests distinguished Masons from other Canadian Grand Jurisdictions and many of our American brethren as well.

Each year it is most fitting that we express our appreciation to the Board of Education of the Borough of Scarborough for again allowing us the use of this fine Cedarbrae Collegiate Institute. In particular, we would tender a hearty vote of thanks to Bro. Howard Campbell, the Principal, and members of his staff, whose cooperation is most helpful this year as in past years.

I extend to the members of the Metropolitan Toronto District Past Masters' Association our thanks and appreciation of their untiring efforts on our behalf. I know from my personal contacts with members of their executive that they commence planning for the following year immediately after the conclusion of each Annual Communication of our Grand Lodge.

Each year the Grand Master expresses similar sentiments to those I have just used, and each year it is no mere formality but a sincere expression of thanks and appreciation for the invaluable assistance and hard work of numerous people in connection with our Annual Communications.

ABSENCE AND SEVERE ILLNESS OF GRAND TREASURER

In his Address to Grand Lodge in 1967, M.W. Bro. Allan reported the serious illness of our Grand Treasurer, M.W. Bro. Joseph A. Hearn. The Grand Master and his host of friends were much concerned that one of our finest Masons, a man regarded with esteem and affection by all who knew him, had suffered a severe stroke. Unfortunately, his condition has shown only a very slight improvement. R.W. Bro. M. C. Hooper, a valuable member of our Board of General Purposes for many years, was appointed as Assistant to the Grand Treasurer by M.W. Bro. Allan and has continued to act in that capacity. He has carried out the duties of the Grand Treasurer most efficiently, and we are indeed grateful to him. The Grand Treasurer's Report has been prepared by him and will be presented later to this Communication.

M.W. Bro. Hearn has contributed greatly to this Grand Lodge since his election as Grand Junior Warden in 1937, serving in various capacities for thirty years until his unfortunate serious illness in the late winter of 1967. He was our Grand Master in our centennial year and has been Grand Treasurer since 1960.

As a token of our appreciation and our great regard for him, a resolution will be presented to this Annual Communication by M.W. Bro. John A. Irvine, conferring on M.W. Bro. Joseph A. Hearn, the rank of Honorary Grand Treasurer, which I am sure will meet with unanimous approval.

- (d) Leeds Lodge, No. 201, Gananoque, as of March 23, 1968.
- (e) Irvine Lodge, No. 203, Elora, as of May 15, 1968.

- (h) Zeredatha Lodge, No. 220, Uxbridge, as of October 15, 1969.

SUSSEX LODGE, NO. 5, BROCKVILLE

On December 18th, I had the happy privilege of visiting this fine old lodge, which was proudly celebrating a century and a half of service to Masonry. An outstanding group of Grand Lodge officers were present, including R.W. Bro. R. Harold Wallace, the D.D.G.M. of St. Lawrence District, a Past Master of the Lodge. Three other D.D.G.M's. were also in attendance, R.W. Bros. Glenn F. Dafoe of Eastern District, Norman V. Freeman of Frontenac District, Ernest J. J. Jackson of Ottawa District, and also R.W. Bro. Colin D. MacKenzie, the Grand Junior Warden. Following a sumptuous banquet, the lodge was opened and the ceremony of the installation of the Worshipful Master and the investiture of the officers was carried out in an impressive manner before a large gathering of our brethren. May the future be as rich in achievements for Sussex No. 5 as the first one hundred and fifty years of its history.

LODGE CENTENNIAL CELEBRATIONS

During the year, it was my happy privilege to attend the celebration of 100 years of service to Masonry of four lodges which had been approved by my predecessor, M.W. Bro. Jas. N. Allan.

Simpson Lodge, No. 157, Newboro, on September 9, 1967.

Scotland Lodge, No. 193, Scotland, on September 15, 1967.

Old Light Lodge, No. 184, Lucknow, on October 11, 1967.

Orillia Lodge, No. 192, Orillia, on October 28, 1967.

On June 4th, I was present at the centennial celebration of St. Alban's Lodge, No. 200, Mount Forest, whose application for recognition of 100 years of active existence I had previously approved.

I hardly need say that these occasions were not only happy ones for the lodges concerned but also for your Grand Master. In each case, the local committee had prepared a splendid program which reflected great credit on those responsible.

In addition to those I attended personally, two other lodges held 100th Anniversaries.

Irvine Lodge, No. 203, Elora, on May 17, 1968, when our Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Bro. B. B. Foster was present.

Madawaska Lodge, No. 196, Arnprior, on May 27, 1968, which was attended by R.W. Bro. Colin D. MacKenzie, the Grand Junior Warden.

I am most grateful to both these brethren for their help.

I know that we all congratulate these lodges most heartily and wish for them many more years of service to Freemasonry.

BEQUEST RECEIVED

The Memorial Benevolent Fund received a bequest of $500.00 from the Estate of Miss Myma A. M. Ross, which we have gratefully accepted and have applied it to the capital of the Fund.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVES APPOINTED

On the recommendation of the respective Grand Masters, I was pleased to appoint the following Grand Representatives near other Grand Lodges.

New York — Foster J. Carey
 Ohio — Robert D. Sager
 Utah — Stephen J. Donoviel
 Wisconsin — Paul W. Grossenbach
 Norway — Karl Kruse-Jensen
 Sweden — J. A. G. Adell

PAST RANK

- (a) Wor. Bro. J. H. Clysdale served as Worshipful Master of Moore Lodge, No. 294, Courtright, in 1967, while living outside the jurisdiction of the Lodge without the permission of the then Grand Master, contrary to Ruling of 1952 — under “Master.” The Lodge now asks that he be confirmed as Wor. Master, nunc pro tunc, and that he be given past rank. A knowledge of the Constitution and Rulings by Wor. Bro. Clysdale and the Secretary, which is an essential qualification of these officers, would have made any action by me unnecessary. However, I recommend that Wor. Bro. J. H. Clysdale be given past rank.
- (b) The late Wor. Bro. Maurice E. Bullard was installed as Worshipful Master of Parkdale Lodge, No. 510, Toronto, on January 11, 1967, and was very active in the discharge of his duties to the time he was stricken with a heart attack — on October 22, 1967 — from which he never recovered. He died on October 25, 1967. The Lodge requests that the rank of Past Master be conferred on him, posthumously. I recommend that this request be granted.

- (c) On September 3, 1967, Wor. Bro. William Victor Rash, Worshipful Master of Palestine Lodge, No. 559, Toronto, died before completing his term. He was installed as Worshipful Master on November 23, 1966. The Lodge now asks that the rank of Past Master be conferred on our late Wor. Bro. Rash, posthumously, and I so recommend.
- (d) Wor. Bro. Stan Renshaw was installed as Worshipful Master of Dominion Lodge, No. 615, Ridgeway, on March 16, 1967, his installation having been delayed from December, 1966, because of a heart attack. Since his installation he has served the Lodge diligently although not for the prescribed twelve months. I recommend that he be given the rank of Past Master.
- (e) Wor. Bro. Donald Gibbon was installed as Worshipful Master of Todmorden Lodge, No. 647, Toronto, on January 9, 1967, and served as Master until January 8, 1968, being one day short of the prescribed twelve months. I recommend that he be given the rank of Past Master.
- (f) Springfield Lodge, No. 259, was permitted, by dispensation, to change the date of the installation from June 24 to June 26, last year. This year the installation was held on June 24, the date set by its By-law and, consequently, Wor. Bro. Mack J. Holland served two days short of the prescribed twelve months. He has served well as Master and the lodge now requests that he be given past rank. I recommend that the request be granted.

At the 1967 Annual Communication of Grand Lodge, Wor. Bro. Keith Dafoe was elected District Deputy Grand Master of Eastern District, but shortly afterward unexpected circumstances made it difficult for him to carry out the duties of his office as he felt should be done. He accordingly tendered his resignation and, at a subsequent district meeting, Wor. Bro. Glenn F. Dafoe of Farran-Ault Lodge, No. 256, was elected in his stead. I was pleased to confirm this new election, and he was duly installed as the District Deputy Grand Master of Eastern District on August 23, 1967, by M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn. I therefore recommend that R.W. Bro. Glenn F. Dafoe be given the rank of a Past District Deputy Grand Master.

VISITATIONS TO OTHER GRAND LODGES AND MASONIC BODIES

Annually, we receive many kind invitations to visit numerous other Grand Lodges, both in Canada and the United States, and I was most pleased to accept many of them. The courtesy of our hosts is indeed admirable and it is, of course, both interesting and informative to see the methods and customs of other Grand Lodges. My unfortunate illness in mid-March has restricted my activities in recent months and I am grateful to M.W. Bros. Allan and Dixon and the Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Bro. Foster, for their willing cooperation in representing our Grand Lodge where I was unable to do so.

A list of visitations follows:

- (a) Masonic Relief Association of United States and Canada, Biennial Meeting, in Toronto, September 29, 1967, by the Grand Master and Grand Secretary.

- (m) Grand Lodge of Indiana, on May 20, 1968, by M.W. Bro. James N. Allan, Past Grand Master, and the Grand Secretary.
- (n) Grand Lodge of Michigan, on May 27, 1968, by the Deputy Grand Master.
- (o) Grand Lodge of Quebec, on June 6, 1968, by the Grand Master and Grand Secretary.

GRAND MASTERS' AND GRAND SECRETARIES' CONFERENCES IN WASHINGTON

Each year in the third week in February, these Conferences are held in Washington, D.C., the former being called the Conference of Grand Masters of Masons in North America. In 1967, owing to other commitments, M.W. Bro. Jas. N. Allan, our Grand Master, was unable to attend and my report to him as Deputy Grand Master was given verbatim in his Address to Grand Lodge. In that report, I advised that I had been appointed as Chairman of the Conference Committee for 1968, which Committee's responsibility is to plan the program for the following year. This honour was not personal to me, but one of many courtesies extended to our Grand Lodge by the American brethren. This was a most enjoyable and interesting experience. In preparing our agenda, we followed the example of the previous year in having group discussions on five selected topics for part of our program. Two of the subjects were — Problems of the Large City Lodges — and — How Does the Individual Mason Live Masonry Daily? I had been personally responsible for the first of these topics and naturally attended and participated in this group. It was most informative to listen to Grand Masters and others from American jurisdictions containing cities such as New York, Chicago, and Boston tell of the problems of our Craft in those large centres of cosmopolitan population. Our situation in Toronto has some similarity to the big American centres, and Worshipful Masters of local lodges are to be congratulated on their efforts to deal with problems that are encountered in the large cities of today.

From a Canadian standpoint, 1968 was an eventful year at the Conference, involving two others in addition to myself. The response to the address of welcome was made by M.W. Bro. Bernie Brown, Grand Master of Alberta. M.W. Bro. Samuel Hardin, a Past Grand Master of Alberta, had been for some years a member of the Commission on Information for Recognition, and was appointed Chairman for the ensuing year.

M.W. Bro. E. G. Dixon, our Grand Secretary, is a Past President of the Grand Secretaries' Conference and naturally participated in its deliberations. R.W. Bro. B. B. Foster, our Deputy Grand Master, and I were his guests at their Annual Dinner, where we were privileged to hear a fine address by M.W. Bro. Myron K. Lingle, the immediate Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Illinois. The new President of their Conference is M.W. Bro. Dwight L. Smith, a Past Grand Master and present Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Indiana, who is widely known as a writer on Masonry.

GRAND LODGE LIBRARY

Several days after the conclusion of our 1967 Annual Communication, R.W. Bro. A. E. MacGregor, Past Grand Senior Warden, who had been our Grand Lodge Librarian for some time, passed to the Grand Lodge Above. I had known R.W. Bro. MacGregor for many years and held him in high esteem as did all who knew him. About the same time, R.W. Bro. Willard M. Gordon, the former Chairman of the Library Committee, became Chairman of the Committee on the Condition of Masonry, and R.W. Bro. Duncan S. Copus was appointed to replace R.W. Bro. Gordon as Chairman of the Library Committee. He was fortunate in being able to secure a zealous brother, Wm. J. McKee, as our new Librarian. The new team have worked hard to ensure that there would be no departure from past standards of useful service to our brethren. A full report of the year's activities will be made by R.W. Bro. Copus later in this Annual Communication. My purpose in including this reference to our Library in my Address is to strongly support R.W. Bro. Copus in his desire to make our facilities available to all our brethren and to urge the newly elected District Deputy Grand Masters in particular to make use of the many fine books on Masonry which it contains. They will find it of great assistance in preparing their addresses.

THE MASONIC FOUNDATION

The Masonic Foundation of Ontario, which was created by Special Act of the Legislature of Ontario, in 1964, at the instance of this Grand Lodge, during the past year disbursed $12,171.00, in the form of nonrepayable bursaries to University students to tide them over emergencies that had threatened their ability to stay at University. Bursaries varied from $75.00 to $400.00, and there were fifty-nine recipients with twelve Universities in Ontario involved.

Each case is investigated and vouched for by an officer of the University familiar with the facts of the case, and his submission is reviewed by three of the Directors of The Foundation before payment. The bursaries from The Foundation fill a gap in financial needs of students not taken care of by governmental or scholarship awards, either in qualification or time element. The appreciative response from students and universities alike has been genuine and gratifying in its acknowledgement of a timely source of help not otherwise available.

I must remind the brethren that The Foundation in conception and purpose is apart from Masonic membership or connection. It was created to broaden Masonic charity beyond the confines of our Benevolent Fund, which is directed to and limited by Masonic connection. Some of the brethren have been under the impression that the Masonic background of some student should merit special attention to the needs of that student and have expressed disappointment that all of the applications submitted are dealt with on a uniform basis of merit that is inherent to the nature of the objects of The Foundation. We have our Benevolent Fund ready and willing to meet the needs of Masons in good standing who lack funds for essentials.

The Masonic Foundation of Ontario has already received recognition for its good works throughout the Province, and we can believe that in the future, as its invested capital increases, it will be an important factor in creating a widespread public impression of the laudable activities of the Craft.

Those brethren delegated by the Craft to carry on the activities of The Foundation have been unsparing in time and effort they have given to its activities and deserve our appreciation.

Donations by our brethren, whether large or small, are always most welcome additions to the capital fund of The Foundation.

SPECIAL OCCASIONS

This past year has been notable for a number of our older brethren who were privileged to celebrate their one hundredth birthdays in two instances, and more than a century in two others.

1. Our oldest Mason in this jurisdiction and perhaps one of the oldest in the world, R.W. Bro. Adam Brown, Past District Deputy Grand Master, now living in Parry Sound, was 105 years old on December 17, 1967.
2. Bro. Jno. A. Walker of Shuniah Lodge, No. 287, Port Arthur, now living in Kelowna, B.C., was 103 years old on February 27, 1968. Prince Charles Lodge, No. 153, of Kelowna gave him a birthday party to celebrate the occasion, and he was further honoured by the presence of the Grand Master of British Columbia.
3. Bro. Hugh H. Sutherland of St. Andrews Lodge, No. 16, Toronto, was 100 years old on October 23, 1967. He attended his lodge on November 14th when he was honoured by his brethren. I was present on that occasion to receive my honorary membership certificate and extended congratulations and best wishes to him on behalf of myself and of Grand Lodge.

4. Wor. Bro. P. W. Brown, an affiliated Past Master of Nipissing Lodge, No. 420, North Bay, celebrated his 100th birthday on November 11, 1967 at the Toronto home of his daughter and son-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. R. Sneyd. Many of the family friends were present, including Bro. Chas. Rowsome of Nipissing Lodge and R.W. Bro. Geo. Coombes, the District Deputy Grand Master of Nipissing East District. It was my happy privilege to accompany them and to extend our congratulations and good wishes.

If any other of our brethren concerning whom I have no information were celebrating similar birthdays, I would convey to them our warmest good wishes.

VARIOUS EVENTS

My mother lodge, Temple Lodge, No. 525, Toronto, held a largely attended Reception for me on September 26, 1967, at which time the Grand Director of Ceremonies, V.W. Bro. Geo. A. Knox, was also honoured.

I attended a number of Divine Services during the past year, commencing with the seven Toronto Districts' Annual Service in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto, on October 15th, and on November 5th Annual Divine Service at St. James Bond United Church, Toronto, and on April 21st of this year Toronto District "3" Divine Service in St. Paul's United Church, Scarborough, and on April 28th, Toronto District "1" Divine Service in Grace Presbyterian Church, Etobicoke.

In addition, I received honorary memberships in St. Andrew's Lodge, No. 16, Toronto, on November 14, 1967, in Dentonia Lodge, No. 651, Toronto, on May 2nd, and in Fidelity Lodge, No. 575, Toronto, on May 15th.

I attended a fine Reception by the Windsor District on March 8th, but my unfortunate illness necessitated the postponement of a number of other planned District Receptions for the spring of this year. I hope to be able to attend such postponed Receptions during the coming Masonic year.

A most unusual event occurred in Memorial Lodge, No. 652, Toronto, on January 8th last, when M.W. Bro. John B. Nayler, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Quebec, was present in his mother lodge, together with myself. It is indeed a rare occasion when the Grand Masters of both Ontario and Quebec are present in a lodge under such circumstances and, in addition, it is also my happy privilege to be an honorary member of this lodge.

LODGES CONSTITUTED AND CONSECRATED

The following two lodges were constituted and consecrated during the year, and I know that Grand Lodge congratulates the devoted brethren who organized these lodges and wishes for them many years of happy service to the cause of Freemasonry.

- (a) Confederation Lodge, No. 720, Scarborough, on September 18, 1967, by the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Donald J. Gunn.
- (b) Otisippi Lodge, No. 719, Sarnia, on October 30, 1967, by R.W. Bro. Bruce B. Foster, Deputy Grand Master.

DEDICATIONS

Three new Masonic Temples were dedicated during the year and a number of others are under construction or being planned. I cannot speak too highly of the lodges responsible, and the great contribution of many brethren, both financially and otherwise. In the case of rural lodge buildings, it is not unusual to find brethren actually supplying part of the labour required. The glowing reports I have received of the undernoted new Temples reflect great credit on those responsible, and I am sure are a source of satisfaction and pride to all their brethren.

- (a) Conestogo Lodge, No. 295, Drayton, on September 23, 1967, by M.W. Bro. James N. Allan, Past Grand Master.

- (b) Doric Lodge, No. 455, Little Current, on November 21, 1967, by M.W. Bro. W. L. Wright, Past Grand Master.
- (c) Cedar Lodge, No. 396, Wiarton, on April 20, 1968, by M.W. Bro. James N. Allan, Past Grand Master.

DECLINE IN MEMBERSHIP

I regret to report that our total membership has experienced a further reduction during the past year, details of which will be given in the Grand Secretary's Report. I would emphasize most strongly to Worshipful Masters and Lodge Secretaries in particular that all possible steps be taken to reduce resignations and suspensions for non-payment of dues in the coming year. No doubt a number of such defections is inevitable, but all reasonable action is necessary to prevent such losses. There is no excuse for any lodge not taking all possible steps to prevent such withdrawals from our ranks.

A WORD OF CAUTION

As citizens, we are all aware of the growing cost of living and the subject of inflation is constantly before us through the medium of our daily newspapers and other publications. In consequence, many of our lodges have found it necessary to increase their annual dues. Temple corporations in cities or towns where a number of lodges meet have been faced with higher property taxes and other operating costs and have been forced to raise the annual rental charge to the individual lodges. In the financial climate in which we are now living, I would strongly urge both lodges and temple corporations to observe a cautious policy in financial matters during the present and prospective inflationary period.

In his Address to Grand Lodge in 1967, M.W. Bro. Jas. N. Allan dealt at some length on the matter of lodge finances, and also pointed out the importance of carefully preserving lodge records. Nothing has occurred in the past year to detract from his earnest advice and words of caution, and I would strongly recommend to Worshipful Masters and Lodge Secretaries that they read again his admirable comments on these important subjects. I would also suggest that the new District Deputy Grand Masters study his report before commencing their lodge visitations.

RULINGS

1. In 1948, M.W. Bro. T. H. Simpson, then Grand Master and presently Dean of our Past Grand Masters, found it necessary and advisable, after consultation with the members of his Grand East, to promulgate certain regulations to govern the use of spirituous liquors and other intoxicants in Masonic Halls and Temples and at functions held under Masonic auspices. Clause 4 of those regulations read as follows:—

“(4) The bringing of any intoxicants upon lodge premises owned or controlled by Masons is prohibited. No such premises owned or controlled by Masons shall be leased for any function, such as wedding receptions, dances or other entertainment, unless there is a definite agreement with the lessee that no intoxicants shall be served or consumed upon or brought onto such premises.”

Representations have been made to members of the Grand East and to me by several of our Temple and Hall Boards that they have found it difficult to obtain much-needed revenue from the rental of the banquet room to non-Masonic organizations, bodies and groups, because of the above prohibition, which they respectfully ask to be removed as it pertains to such non-Masonic organizations, etc. At the same time, they agree, without reservation, that this prohibition shall still apply in full force and effect to all Masonic bodies, organizations or groups of Masons using the banquet room or other rooms of our Temples, Halls and lodge premises.

Relying on the assurance that those Masons, whose responsibility it is to govern, control and supervise the rental of such banquet and other rooms, will see to it that no rowdyism, drunkenness, loud and disturbing noises or other objectionable conduct of the lessees will be permitted, I hereby remove the above Clause 4 only insofar as it pertains to non-Masonic functions. It behooves all of us to protect to the fullest degree the dignity and reputation of Freemasonry. I sincerely hope that it will never be necessary to restore this prohibition.

2. The Ruling covering the procedure to be followed when a lodge remits a brother's dues has been in effect since 1891. It is the custom in many districts to send the courtesy copies of the lodge summons to the Worshipful Masters and Secretaries of other lodges in the district. For this reason, and to avoid embarrassment to any brother, I rule that the Ruling (1891) under "DUES" be modified to read:

"A notice of motion to remit a brother's dues must contain the amount of the dues to be remitted but does not need to contain the name of the brother whose dues are to be remitted."

THE GRAND MASTER'S BANQUET

One of the outstanding features of our Annual Communications is the Grand Master's Banquet in the Canadian Room of the Royal York Hotel on Wednesday evening. We have been favoured with brilliant speakers in recent years, Sir Edwin Leather in 1966, and our own M.W. Bro. Archbishop W. L. Wright last year. It has been no easy task to secure one of equal stature for this year, but I am happy to report that we are to be addressed by another distinguished Canadian this evening, R.W. Bro. the Hon. Donald M. Fleming, a member of our Board of General Purposes. A national figure for many years, R.W. Bro. Fleming has contributed so much to his fellow men that it is a formidable task to enumerate the various achievements to his credit. I am sure that so many of our brethren will be anxious to hear him that we will again have a capacity audience.

APPRECIATIONS

Every Grand Master is fully cognizant I am sure of the great help and support he has received from other members of Grand Lodge, and I owe grateful thanks to so many devoted brethren. I can only hope to mention a few by name, but my sincere appreciation is tendered to many others as well.

To the Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. E. G. Dixon, for his constant assistance and the benefit of his thirty years of experience. His untiring devotion to the cause of Freemasonry in this Jurisdiction is something one must experience at close hand to fully appreciate.

To M.W. Bro. Jas. N. Allan, our immediate Past Grand Master, for presiding at several dedications and also for his attendance at other Grand Lodge Communications when I was unable to do so.

To M.W. Bro. Harry L. Martyn for his continuing valuable contribution as Custodian of the Work and for arranging and presiding at Zone Meetings in different parts of our Jurisdiction, also holding Lodges of Instruction. In addition, M.W. Bro. Martyn completed in September last a two year term as President of the Masonic Relief Association of the United States and Canada at their meeting in Toronto.

To R.W. Bro. Bruce B. Foster, our Deputy Grand Master, for relieving me of some responsibilities from time to time, such as presiding at the Constitution and Consecration of Otisippi Lodge, No. 719, Sarnia, on October 30th, when I had been in Orillia on October 28th at the Centennial Celebration of Orillia Lodge, No. 192, and on other occasions as well.

To R.W. Bro. M. C. Hooper who has been discharging the duties of the Grand Treasurer in an admirable way since the unfortunate serious illness of M.W. Bro. J. A. Hearn.

To the Grand Wardens, R.W. Bros. James M. Ritchie and Colin D. MacKenzie, and the Grand Chaplain, R.W. Bro. Rev. Garbutt F. Smith, for attending many meetings in different parts of the Jurisdiction, frequently travelling many miles to do so, and to the Grand Director of Ceremonies, V.W. Bro. Geo. A. Knox, who discharged the duties of his office in an admirable way.

To R.W. Bro. Geo. J. McQueen, the Supervisor of Benevolence, and other members of our head office staff for their cooperation and help.

To the District Deputy Grand Masters, the importance of whose services cannot be overestimated. As the success of every constituent lodge depends greatly on the ability, devotion, and good judgment of the Worshipful Master, so does the welfare of each District depend upon the same qualities in the representative of the Grand Master. I have not had the opportunity obviously of getting to know well all my representatives throughout the Jurisdiction, but I have become well acquainted with quite a number of them and am proud to be associated with such a fine group of men.

To the other elected and appointed members of the Board of General Purposes and particularly the Chairmen of Committees whose faithful discharge of their duties is of such great importance to the proper functioning of our system.

I have previously expressed my thanks and appreciation to the Grand Lodge officers who readily assumed some of my duties during my unexpected illness. I cannot, however, find adequate words to convey my feelings on receiving countless letters and get-well cards from so many lodges and brethren. Their concern for the one holding the office of Grand Master is something I will never forget.

A distinguished Hamilton architect, R.W. Bro. Geo. T. Evans, has been a member of the Board of General Purposes for many years, and in particular has rendered outstanding service as Chairman of the Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings. Freely and voluntarily, without charge, he has dealt with no less than one hundred and fifty-five plans, both for new Masonic Temples and alterations of existing Temples. This has indeed been a labour of love for R.W. Bro. Evans, and the contribution he has thus made is beyond calculation. I feel that it is only fitting that we publicly convey our deep appreciation to him at this time and express the fervent hope that he will be long spared to continue his great work for the benefit of the Craft. The Grand Lodge building in Hamilton is a notable example of his skill and rich experience. Some years ago he was made an Honorary Member of the Board as a token of our appreciation of his invaluable contribution to this Grand Lodge.

CONCLUSION

It is almost unnecessary to point out that the world in which we live today differs materially from the one we knew when many of us were younger. The increasing urbanization of society, the absorption of more than half a million new Canadians, many of them coming from countries with little or no Masonic traditions, have created problems for our Craft and for other organizations as well. There are also the claims on the time and attention of men of numerous other worthy causes and activities. It is quite understandable that a man, after a strenuous and tiring day's work, finds it quite easy to stay home from lodge and enjoy the companionship of his wife and family, not forgetting his television set. However, we should never forget that we have elected many fine young men as the Worshipful Masters and officers of our lodges, and we owe it to them to make a special effort where necessary to attend our lodges and support their earnest efforts on our behalf.

I have emphasized in virtually all of my addresses to lodges and districts the obligation of sponsors to their candidates to ensure that our new brethren become acquainted with the older members and, as rapidly as possible, are made to feel wanted and at home among the brethren of their lodge. There is also a tendency among older members to be so busy fraternizing with their friends that they overlook the importance of getting to know our new brethren. Man naturally seeks the company of his fellows, and it is of the utmost importance that we integrate our new members into the lodge family as quickly as possible.

We live in an age when older institutions are being questioned and challenged by the younger generation as perhaps never before in modern history. No human institution can afford to be complacent because of past achievements. Those of us who have been Masons for many years strongly believe that we have inherited a philosophy as valid for our time as we know it has been in previous decades and, indeed, centuries. It is my firm belief that our Masonic forefathers were truly inspired in giving to their descendants what we know as the Masonic way of life. All of us, who are trying to steadily reduce the rough edges of our personalities and endeavour to acquire some faint resemblance to what our Craft expects of us, fervently believe in its challenging teaching. It is no easy task to achieve the proper balance between the heart and the head, between our own opinions and convictions, and yet to treat those of our fellow men who differ from us with tolerance and respect.

Our Masonic philosophy has so much to teach us that we will never comprehend it completely. Let us all, as long as we live, strive to make the daily advancement in Masonic knowledge that we are enjoined to do and to pass on to those who come after us that which has been committed to our charge.

Sincerely and fraternally,

DONALD J. GUNN,
Grand Master.

APPENDIX "A"

- (b) Doric Lodge, No. 455, Little Current, on November 21, 1967, by M.W. Bro. W. L. Wright, Past Grand Master.

NEW LODGES CONSTITUTED AND CONSECRATED

During the year the following Lodges were constituted and consecrated:

- (a) Confederation Lodge, No. 720, Scarborough, on September 18, 1967, by the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Donald J. Gunn.
- (b) Otisippi Lodge, No. 719, Sarnia, on October 30, 1967, by R.W. Bro. Bruce B. Foster, Deputy Grand Master.

Representations have been made to members of the Grand East and to me by several of our Temple and Hall Boards that they have found it difficult to obtain much-needed revenue from the rental of the banquet room to non-Masonic organizations, bodies and groups, because of the above prohibition, which they respectfully ask to be removed as it pertains to such non-Masonic organizations, etc. At the same time, they agree, without reservation, that this prohibition shall still apply in full force and effect to all Masonic bodies, organizations or groups of Masons using the banquet room or other rooms of our Temples, Halls and lodge premises.

Relying on the assurance that those Masons, whose responsibility it is to govern, control and supervise the rental of such banquet and other rooms, will see to it that no rowdyism, drunkenness, loud and disturbing noises or other objectionable conduct of the lessees will be permitted, I hereby remove the above Clause 4 only insofar as it pertains to non-Masonic functions. It behooves all of us to protect to the fullest degree the dignity and reputation of Freemasonry. I sincerely hope that it will never be necessary to restore this prohibition.

2. The Ruling covering the procedure to be followed when a lodge remits a brother's dues has been in effect since 1891. It is the custom in many districts to send the courtesy copies of the lodge summons to the Worshipful Masters and Secretaries of other lodges in the district. For this reason, and to avoid embarrassment to any brother, I rule that the Ruling (1891) under "DUES" be modified to read:

"A notice of motion to remit a brother's dues must contain the amount of the dues to be remitted but does not need to contain the name of the brother whose dues are to be remitted."

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE ON THE GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

At the conclusion of the Address it was moved by M.W. Bro. R. W. Treleaven, seconded by M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn, and carried: That a committee, composed of all the Past Grand Masters present, consider and report to Grand Lodge on the Grand Master's Address. The motion was put by the Deputy Grand Master.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

This report was presented by M.W. Bro. J. N. Allan, and on motion of M.W. Bro. Martyn, seconded by M.W. Bro. R. W. Treleaven, it was received and adopted.

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario:

Brethren:

I am honoured to have the privilege on behalf of the Committee on the Grand Master's Address to present their report to you, the members of Grand Lodge.

It was with deep regret that we, the members of Grand Lodge, learned in March last that our Grand Master had suffered a sudden illness which required him to relinquish some of his duties for a time. We are happy and express our gratitude to the Great Architect of the Universe for our Grand Master's splendid recovery. We recognize and appreciate his leadership during the year that is closing and pray that he will be given health and strength to guide the affairs of our institution with the same dedication and skill as in the year covered by the excellent report presented by him to Grand Lodge.

Your Committee shares the joy expressed by him in welcoming particularly our many guests from other Grand Jurisdictions, as well as so many of our own members to this Annual Communication of Grand Lodge.

We share the regrets of our Grand Master with respect to the continued absence from Grand Lodge as a result of a prolonged illness suffered by our Grand Treasurer, M.W. Bro. J. A. Hearn. We remember his splendid service as guardian of our finances and in so many other ways.

We agree also with the Grand Master's reference to the excellent service rendered by R.W. Bro. M. C. Hooper. As Assistant to the Grand Treasurer, he assumed fully the responsibilities of that high office and has discharged same with efficiency and satisfaction.

Your Committee share with our Grand Master and all members of Grand Lodge our deep appreciation of the generosity of the Board of Education of the Borough of Scarborough for the use of the excellent facilities we are enjoying to-day, and to Bro. Howard Campbell and members of his staff for their complete co-operation.

Our sincere good wishes go to those lodges who celebrated the culmination of 100 years of active existence also to those lodges to whom permission was given to wear gold braid at the appropriate dates. We extend especial congratulations to Sussex Lodge No. 5, Brockville, who celebrated the completion of 150 years of Masonic existence. We acknowledge the splendid service to Masonry over these many years by the brethren of these lodges and wish each of them the greatest possible success in the years ahead.

Your Committee unanimously approves those charitable donations made under the authority of the Grand Master. We also agree with the Grand Master in his expression of thanks for donations received by the Memorial Benevolent Fund and The Masonic Foundation.

Your Committee approves the appointment of Grand Representatives near other Grand Lodges as announced by our Grand Master. We also approve the granting of past rank to six Worshipful Masters and to R.W. Bro. Glenn F. Dafoe, who was elected District Deputy Grand Master of Eastern District, following the resignation of R.W. Bro. Keith Dafoe. R.W. Bro. Glenn Dafoe was installed on August 23, 1967 by M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn.

Your Committee learned with much pride of the Grand Master's active participation in the Grand Masters' Conference in Washington as Chairman of the Conference Committee for 1968. We were pleased, also, that R.W. Bro. Bruce Foster, our Deputy Grand Master, was able to attend this important Conference.

We note with satisfaction the Grand Master's reference to the changes that have been initiated by R.W. Bro. Duncan Copus in the Grand Lodge Library. We would encourage the use of these improved facilities by all our members, particularly by District Deputy Grand Masters and officers of our constituent lodges.

Your Committee was particularly interested in that part of the Grand Master's Address dealing with The Masonic Foundation. We were encouraged and proud to learn that the extent of the funds dispersed last year was greater than in the previous year and that 59 students attending twelve Universities had benefited from this charitable corporation. We would remind the brethren that gifts or bequests to this foundation qualify for exemption from income tax, estate tax and succession duties, if such would be otherwise applicable. We envision and hope that the capital fund of this worthy project will increase substantially as a result of the financial support of our brethren.

We congratulate those lodges, three in number, who had new premises dedicated during the year. Likewise, we welcome two new lodges to our fraternity. These were duly constituted and consecrated during the year.

Your Committee shares the regret of the Grand Master which he expressed regarding the further decline in membership as well as his concern with respect to the effect of continuing inflation upon the financial position of our lodges. We would emphasize the need for study and caution by the appropriate officers of our constituent lodges, as expressed by the Grand Master in his Address to Grand Lodge.

And now Grand Master, we commend you for your outstanding efforts during your first year of office. We endorse all your rulings, decisions, appointments and recommendations during the year under review and look forward with keen anticipation to another year of outstanding administration.

With the highest possible fraternal regard and deep affection for the Grand Master, this report is submitted to Grand Lodge.

JAMES N. ALLAN,
Chairman.

LETTERS OF REGRET

The Grand Secretary advised that several letters and communications had been received from Grand Masters, distinguished brethren and Grand Lodges, extending most cordial fraternal greetings and best wishes and expressing regret that they were unable to be present or represented.

He also read a cable from M.W. Bro. W. L. Wright from Uppsala, Sweden, sending greetings and best wishes.

RECEPTION OF GRAND REPRESENTATIVES

As the Grand Secretary called the roll of Grand Representatives of other Grand Lodges those who were present stood up and were welcomed by the Grand Master. Grand Honours were then given under the direction of the Grand Director of Ceremonies.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I have examined the books and accounts of your Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary for the year ended

April 30, 1968. My examination included a general review of the accounting procedures and such tests of accounting records and other supporting evidence as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

The securities of the General, Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds, as set out in the respective schedules accompanying the Grand Treasurer's Report, are held and certified to under date of May 16, 1968 by the Canada Permanent Trust Company.

In my opinion, and according to the best of my information and the explanations given to me and as shown by the books of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario, the accompanying statement of resources (cash basis) and statements of receipts and disbursements of the General Fund and the combined Memorial and Semi-Centennial Fund are properly drawn up so as to present fairly the financial position of the Grand Lodge as at April 30, 1968, and the results of its operations on a cash basis for the year ended on that date, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Yours fraternally,

A. W. PARISH, F.C.A.

GRAND TREASURER'S REPORT

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. M. C. Hooper, Assistant to the Grand Treasurer, in the absence of the Grand Treasurer, M.W. Bro. J. A. Hearn, because of continued serious illness.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Owing to the continued disability of our beloved Grand Treasurer, M.W. Bro. J. A. Hearn, this annual Financial Report is presented on his behalf.

The Statement of Income for the fiscal year ended April 30, 1968, both with respect to fees and income from investments, discloses receipts only slightly less than those of the previous year, whereas our disbursements, both in the General Account and from the Memorial Fund, have been substantially decreased. In the course of the year our Headquarters rent payable to Masonic Holdings was reduced by one-third resulting in an aggregate rent reduction in the financial year of $5,000.00. Other non-recurring items of expenditure omitted in the past year and decreases in our Benevolent Grants have made possible substantial operating surpluses in both of our accounts.

Now, for the first time, the total resources of Grand Lodge exceed the maximum shown in the Report of 1964. At that time the assets in the General Account included more than $160,000.00 available for benevolent purposes only. These funds were transferred to The Masonic Foundation of Ontario in accordance with the resolution of Grand Lodge passed at the Annual Communication of 1965, but are now replaced through donations and successive operating surpluses.

No attempt is made in our statement of resources to show securities at their market value. Under present conditions, such a valuation would reflect a material discount from the par value which we are accustomed to give and would fluctuate from year to year. Since our usual practice has been to hold securities until maturity when they are invariably redeemed at par, they are listed in our reports at their face value. Our portfolio at present includes a number of low-interest bonds which are soon to mature, and it is reasonable to expect that they will be replaced with securities yielding a more favourable return.

The current shrinkage in the purchasing power of the dollar which seems likely to continue during the foreseeable future, makes it desirable for Grand Lodge to continue to have successive surpluses in order to sustain the exchange value of our resources.

In most years our Memorial Fund has been augmented by legacies and other donations. This year we gratefully record a gift from the M. A. M. Ross Estate of $500.00 and other donations amounting to $200.00. In these affluent years brethren may well consider making gifts and providing legacies to their Lodges, to the Memorial Fund of Grand Lodge and, of course, to The Masonic Foundation of Ontario, so as to maintain and enhance the true value of our reserves. Grand Lodge has contributed moderately to certain general charitable objects as listed in our report. This is a mere token of confidence but it is well known that Masons as individuals contribute generously to all deserving causes and, in many cases, members of our Order are found in the personnel promoting and directing projects of public welfare and relief of distress. As we quietly lend our support to other worthy causes let us not overlook the institution which inspires us to exercise the supreme virtue in its most ample sense.

Again we must acknowledge the efficient operation of our accounts through the day-to-day efforts of the M.W. the Grand Secretary and his staff and the Supervisor of Masonic Benevolence and also the services of the Auditor of Grand Lodge. The ready and wise counsel of R.W. Bro. R. C. Berkinshaw, the Chairman of the Committee on Audit and Finance, has been much appreciated.

In the following pages and as the essential portion of this report may be found the detailed summaries, schedules and accounts of the fiscal year together with certain comparative figures from the previous year.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

M. CLEEVE HOOPER,
Assistant to the Grand Treasurer.

SPECIAL RESOLUTION RE M.W. BRO. JOSEPH A. HEARN

To: The Most Wor. The Grand Master,
Officers and Members of The Grand Lodge
Of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Dear M. Wor. Sir and Brethren:

While serving as your Grand Master I noted with pleasure, the honor and esteem in which M. Wor. Bro. Joseph A. Hearn was held, not only in this Grand Jurisdiction, but throughout the whole Masonic fraternity on this continent. M. Wor. Bro. Hearn has, as you all know, been seriously ill for some time, and it is my feeling that his outstanding contributions to Craft Masonry should in some way be recognized.

M. Wor. Bro. Hearn was born on a farm near Markdale in 1895. In 1923 he was initiated in Royal Arthur Lodge, No. 85, Montreal, and after moving to Toronto he received his Fellowcraft and Master Mason Degree in Canada Lodge, No. 532, Toronto. He became Master of that lodge in 1930. In 1937 he was elected Grand Junior Warden of our Grand Lodge, and was elected to our Grand Lodge Board of General Purposes in 1944. He served with great zeal as Chairman of the Committees on Audit and Finance and Benevolence. In 1950 and 1951 he also served as Chairman of the Masonic Relief Association of the United States and Canada. In 1953 he was elected our Grand Master and served with distinction for the last two years of our first century. As Grand Master he presided over our Centennial Celebration in 1955. M. Wor. Bro. Hearn took over as our Grand Treasurer in 1960 from M. Wor. Bro. W. J. Dunlop who was forced to resign because of ill health. M. Wor. Bro. Hearn was and is a man of keen intellect, a man of dedication, and one who has served this Grand Lodge long and well.

I, therefore, recommend that this Grand Lodge recognize the faithful efforts and service of this great Mason. It is a pleasure for me to move, seconded by M. Wor. Bro. J. N. Allan, that the rank of Honorary Grand Treasurer be conferred on our beloved Past Grand Master, M. Wor. Bro. Joseph A. Hearn. The motion was carried unanimously.

GRAND SECRETARY'S REPORT

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I present herewith my annual report for the year ended April 30, 1968, containing a Summary of Receipts from various sources placed in the General Fund; Details of Receipts in the General Fund and Ledger Balances as at April 30, 1968, a Summary of Receipts for the year; Details of the Returns of Lodges as at April 30, 1968, a Summary of the Receipts and Payments to the Grand Treasurer on account of the Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds; and a Statement of the Receipts and Disbursements on the Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds Revenue Account.

As an appendix to the Proceedings I have recorded the details of the Returns of the 633 warranted Lodges as of June 30, 1968.

My thirty-second Annual Report now presented is not very comforting because I must report another substantial net loss in membership of 1,638 as of December 31, 1967. This loss is 99 fewer than our net loss of last year but is still much higher than any of us like to see. It challenges all of us, and particularly those of us who have responsibilities as officers of a lodge and as officers and members of Grand Lodge to do something about it. The time for complacency and hopeful thinking is past; the time for sound planning faces us and most of this planning must be done at the lodge level. If one old lodge in our Grand Jurisdiction can proudly boast of no suspensions and no arrears of dues for many years, is this not evidence that most of our lodges if not all of them, can accomplish the same results if they will put some planned effort into operation? Personal contact with delinquent members, if this is possible, will bring greater results and, at the same time, will awaken the apathy of many members who have been out of touch with their lodges altogether too long. If it were possible for me to speak to our delinquent members and to those who resign and tell them about the grateful members who have found Masonic brethren in all parts of the world ready, willing and anxious to help them when ill times beset them, brethren to whom they may safely appeal at all times, I know that I could convince them that membership in their lodge, even at twice the present cost, is the best and most extensive form of universal insurance and protection that they can carry. I am not referring to any financial coverage but to the assuring and comforting knowledge that there are devoted members near at hand to assist, in any way possible, something which money cannot buy. Let us convince them that membership in their lodge is much more than a dues card carried in their wallet. Let every Master plan now for an energetic and productive campaign in the fall to offset controllable losses in membership that this coming Masonic year will record gains in membership and in attendance at meetings. Let us make this RECOVERY YEAR.

A comparison with what I reported last year will show that this year we had 45 fewer initiations, 94 fewer affiliations and 17 fewer restorations. On the brighter side we recorded 14 fewer suspensions, 75 fewer deaths and 17 fewer resignations, leaving us with a total membership of 128,590 as of December 31, 1967.

Two new lodges were constituted and consecrated during the year but none was instituted, making a total of 633 warranted lodges.

FIFTY YEAR LAPEL BUTTONS

During the year we proudly added to the ranks of our veteran members 598 who were the recipients of our 50 year Lapel Button. To them we extend our heartiest congratulations and very best wishes.

SIXTY YEAR LAPEL BUTTONS

The ranks of our sixty year veterans were increased by 55 members who received our 60 Year Button in recognition of sixty years or more of membership. To them, also, we extend our heartiest congratulations.

PAST MASTERS' BUTTONS

During the year no fewer than 24 of our Past Masters have been presented with our 50 Year Lapel Button marking fifty years of service as a Past Master.

One of our Past Masters received a special Lapel Button on completion of sixty years as a Past Master.

We are grateful to these long-serving Past Masters for their outstanding service and devotion to the Craft.

SEVENTY YEARS A MASON

Three more of our veteran members have completed seventy years of membership being now well past 91 years of age. They are:

- V.W. Bro. George Thomas Kennedy, The St. Thomas Lodge, No. 44, St. Thomas.
- Bro. Thomas J. Medland, Doric Lodge, No. 316, Toronto.
- Bro. Edmond J. Tett, Simpson Lodge, No. 157, Newboro.

FIFTY YEARS A PAST D.D.G.M.

R.W. Bro. Frank T. Shaver of Farran-Ault Lodge, No. 256, Ingleside was awarded our special Lapel Button on completing fifty years as a Past District Deputy Grand Master of Eastern District. He served many years as Secretary of his lodge and was most active in the work of re-locating his lodge in a very fine new Temple following the building of the St. Lawrence Seaway. He has certainly set an example for others to emulate.

WILLIAM MERCER WILSON MEDAL

Since 1945, when this Medal was adopted, there have been only eighty-one members who have received it. The following members have been awarded this "Victoria Cross of Masonry" since our last Annual Communication:

- Bro. William Howard Garringer, Amity Lodge, No. 32, Dunnville.
- Bro. Clifford Naylor, Maple Leaf Lodge, No. 103, St. Catharines.
- Bro. Wilbert Armstrong Kingston, Golden Rule Lodge, No. 126, Campbellford.
- Bro. Thomas Jackson, Mimosa Lodge, No. 576, Toronto.
- Bro. Leslie Owen Browne, Chukuni Lodge, No. 660, Red Lake.

SPECIAL MENTION

I am again very happy to inform you that;

- (a) Very Wor. Bro. R. S. McLaughlin of Cedar Lodge, No. 270, of Oshawa has completed 73 years of membership and that;

- (b) Bro. John A. Walker of Shuniah Lodge, No. 287, Port Arthur, now living in Kelowna, B.C., has completed 78 years' membership and on February 27 of this year celebrated the 103rd anniversary of his birth.
- (c) R.W. Bro. Adam Brown, P.D.D.G.M. of Granite Lodge, No. 352, Parry Sound is in his 106th year.

We extend to these outstanding brethren, our heartiest congratulations and very best wishes.

THE CENTENNIAL MEDAL

Our Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Donald J. Gunn, is a very modest person and so it is my very great pleasure to ask you to join with me in extending our heartiest congratulations to one whose services have been recognized during the year by our nation, he having been awarded the Centennial Medal.

APPRECIATION

Another year has passed, and has been made so much easier for me because of the continued very competent and loyal assistance I have received from the members of our staff. Through their whole hearted devotion to serving the best interests of Grand Lodge, the lodges and their members my task has been minimized. To each and every one of them I am very deeply indebted and grateful. We have a very happy family in our Grand Lodge office.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

Grand Secretary

On motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by the Grand Secretary, the Report was received and referred to the Committee on Audit and Finance.

COMMITTEE OF SCRUTINEERS

The Grand Master appointed V.W. Bro. Robert Strachan, Chairman of the Committee of Scrutineers, to supervise and count the vote at the election of Grand Lodge officers, with power to name the members of the Committee.

REPORT ON THE MASONIC FOUNDATION OF ONTARIO

M.W. Bro. R. W. Treleaven, President of The Foundation, in reporting on the work of The Foundation, read to the members of Grand Lodge the Directors' Report for the year ended April 30, 1968, which had been presented to the Annual General Meeting of The Foundation.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario:

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Again, this year, your Directors decided that they would continue the policy of nonrepayable bursaries to university students, who were faced with financial emergencies that, if not solved, would end their studies. This is because the still-limited income of The Foundation makes substantial grants in more conventional fields of activity for foundations rather difficult to assess as to merit and, because the field of education, in spite of the bountiful grants of governments to university students, there are many who are outside of the qualifications required, which have a strong academic element to meet and because governmental grants take so long to process to make them useful in emergencies.

Sixty-one bursaries were granted to students of thirteen universities—in a total amount of $12,171.00. The expressions of appreciation from both students and universities are more extensive than ever and recognize this as a significant Masonic activity.

Unfortunately, the interest in The Foundation seems to be changing from our Masonic brethren to the public at large for, in spite of the reminders in The Bulletins of Grand Lodge and other media, out of over 130,000 Masons, The Foundation received only five donations, this year, in a total amount of $178.55.

The income-producing investments of The Foundation now amount to $175,000 so, although we have made a beginning on something that should, in the future, be very significant, we need more enthusiasm and a greater response from the Craft at large if we are to fulfill our purpose.

I am sure you will be interested to know that the Officers and Directors of The Foundation for the ensuing year are:

A. C. Ashforth, President
 R. C. Berkinshaw, Vice-President
 J. N. Allan
 H. L. Martyn
 N. R. Richards
 J. J. Talman
 R. W. Treleaven
 T. L. Wilson
 M. C. Hooper, Secretary-Treasurer.

Again, I wish to express my appreciation to all those who have given freely of their time and talent to further the work of The Foundation.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

R. W. TRELEAVEN.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

M.W. Bro. R. W. Treleaven, Chairman, presented this report and read the Foreword to the Reviews. The Deputy Grand Master then moved, seconded by M.W. Bro. Treleaven, that the report be received and adopted. The motion was carried, unanimously.

REPORTS OF THE DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTERS

The Reports of the 39 District Deputy Grand Masters were presented by the Grand Secretary and on his motion, seconded by R.W. Bro. B. B. Foster, they were received and referred to the Board of General Purposes.

The Report of every District Deputy Grand Master is addressed to "The Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario." Each begins, "Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren," and every one ends, quite rightly, "Respectfully and fraternally submitted." To save space these formalities are omitted from the beginning and end of each Report.

ALGOMA DISTRICT

As I submit my report for the past year, I would like to express my gratitude for the honour of representing the Most Worshipful the Grand Master. My thanks and appreciation are extended to the Past Masters, Masters and Wardens of the District and particularly to those of my Mother Lodge, Shuniah No. 287, for electing me, and to you, Most Worshipful Sir, for confirming my election.

My appointments of Wor. Bro. S. J. S. McCutcheon as District Secretary, Bro. Rev. Dr. Russell A. Peden as District Chaplain and Wor. Bro. L. J. Tulloch as District Supervisor of Masonic Education, all members of Shuniah Lodge No. 287, have proven most fortunate. Except on rare occasions only they have attended with me all the district and local visitations.

Rt. Wor. Bro. Harold Lockwood again accepted the Chairmanship of the Blood Donors' Committee and accomplished commendable results in that about 315 members were registered as donors and doubtless there are others who neglected to report their donations.

As an initial step in my office, I invited the presiding Masters of the District to a meeting in August. A majority of the Lodges were represented and topics and suggested activities for the ensuing year were discussed with mutual benefit to all.

I have visited all Lodges except Hornepayne, No. 636, which I am to visit officially on June 22nd and will attend their Church Service on Sunday morning, June 23, 1968. In every instance I was most graciously received with dignity and respect.

The Work, including the conferring of all degrees, is being done in a manner creditable to all concerned. The recent revisions in the Work have been incorporated throughout the District.

The Past Masters', Masters', and Wardens' Association of the District has been very active in carrying on an intensive Masonic educational programme. Their shield for the best Masonic Education Programme of the year was awarded to Terrace Bay Lodge, No. 662.

In addition to my Official Visits I attended the Installation of Officers in most of the Lodges, three fraternal exchange visits of brethren from American Lodges attending Lodges here, and several visits to Lodges in other Jurisdictions.

The Annual Curling Bonspiel and a Bowling Play-off between members of the Knights of Columbus and brethren of our Craft were held with 123 being present at the former function and the Masonic brethren being the winners of the latter. These functions, I believe, have, over recent years, done much to promote good-will and better relationships between the members of both fraternities.

Several Divine Services, sponsored by different Lodges, were well attended by the brethren.

A pleasant duty which I performed was the presentation, on behalf of Grand Lodge, of a Fifty Year Button to three brethren.

A Father and Son Banquet was sponsored by the four Fort William Lodges, at which there was an attendance of some 240 persons.

Mrs. Faithfull and I had the pleasure of attending several "Ladies' Night" functions at which we were received with the usual Masonic hospitality, for which we extend our sincere thanks.

The books and records of all Lodges are well kept and were written up or posted to date. In most Lodges dues have been raised and all are in a financially-sound condition.

In conclusion, I have found Masonry in Algoma District to be in good and capable hands and, with the leadership of the incumbent succeeding officers and brethren, it cannot help but continue to flourish, exert and extend its influence for all its tenets throughout the District and indeed beyond.

Finally, I would like to thank the officers and brethren who have supported me with their time and effort.

R. W. FAITHFULL, D.D.G.M.

BRANT DISTRICT

May I begin my report by saying, without reservation, that this year has been a most rewarding and fulfilling experience. It is difficult to adequately express with mere words the gratitude I feel toward those who made this experience possible. I therefore, very humbly and simply, say "thank you" to my Mother Lodge, Wilson No. 113, for proposing me; to the fourteen lodges of Brant District for electing me; and to you, Most Worshipful Sir, for confirming that election. As I end the year I do so with the hope that the trust of so many was well founded.

I know that my own trust was well founded when I appointed the several District Officers, Wor. Bro. Wilton Elliott as District Secretary, Wor. Bro. George Baigent as District Chaplain, Wor. Bro. Kenneth Richardson as Director of Masonic Education, and Wor. Bro. James Haviland as Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee. All gave unstintingly of their time and effort. To these brethren I express a special thanks for the excellent manner in which they fulfilled their duties this past year.

I was very proud of the high calibre of the Work which I observed at each of my fourteen Official Visits throughout the district. The younger Masons are taking an active interest and are moving into responsible positions within their lodges. As a result the vigour and enthusiasm of youth, together with the steady influence and knowledge of the senior members, are proving a perfect balance. In every instance I found that the lodges were improving attendance by presenting good work and well planned meetings. The majority of the lodges are very busy with new candidates, perhaps in some cases, too busy. I have stressed that quality is more important than quantity, and that each lodge should insure they are making Masons and not just another name on a membership roll. I would like to respectfully suggest that perhaps even four weeks is too short a time to elapse between degrees. A longer period of teaching and learning would awaken and strengthen the individual to the excellence of our institution. So many seem to drift away simply because they did not recognize, or there was no time to show them, the true value of Freemasonry.

At this point I would like to recall some of the events that made this year so rewarding.

The 100th Anniversary of Scotland Lodge, No. 193, was celebrated on September 15th, 1967. How appropriate it was to have such a celebration during Canada's Centennial Year and to have, as their Worshipful Master, Wor. Bro. Arthur Anderson, a true Canadian of the Six Nations. The presence of the Grand Master, Most Wor. Bro. Donald J. Gunn, made that occasion a complete success. I would also note that this same lodge, at a later date, were hosts to over one hundred Masons when an Indian Degree Team in full Indian dress presented the evening's work. It was a most impressive sight.

On April 26, 1968, Brant District was honoured to receive the Deputy Grand Master, Rt. Wor. Bro. Bruce B. Foster. More than two hundred Masons gathered to welcome him home to Brant District. His Mother Lodge, St. John's No. 35, Cayuga, was particularly pleased to greet him. That so many of the Board and other distinguished Masons were present only confirmed again the high esteem in which our Deputy Grand Master is held.

The Villa Nova Baptist Church was filled to capacity on Sunday, May 5th, when we gathered for worship at the Annual District Church Service. I thank the Grand Chaplain, Rt. Wor. Bro. Garbutt F. Smith, for being with us. The message he presented in his sermon, "What is your accent" was an inspiration to all.

I was present when three district Masons received their 50 Year Lapel Button. They are certainly to be congratulated. I would be shirking my duty, however, if I did not report that, even though the Button is very fine, many feel there should be some provision made for a jewel as was formerly given even though the lodge may have to pay for it from its own funds.

Other memorable occasions are too numerous to mention but they will long be remembered. The Ladies' Nights, which my wife and I attended, were most enjoyable and we are grateful for the opportunity to have been present.

I regret to report that time has taken its toll of many fine Masons this past year. They will be missed by their lodges and by the district. I must mention here that whenever Masonic Funeral Services were held, they were well attended. Many of the lodges have a telephone committee which ensures communication to members, many of whom do not learn of such occurrences until afterward.

As I close this report I must make special mention of the help and support I have received during my term of office. The assistance and advice given by other Grand Lodge Officers and specifically be the Grand Secretary, Most Wor. Bro. E. G. Dixon, was asked for often. The invaluable aid in books and material, as provided by Rt. Wor. Bro. D. S. Copus, and his kindness, will not soon be forgotten. I sincerely thank them all. I shall ever be humbly grateful to the Worshipful Masters, the officers and brethren of Brant District for their support and the way in which they received me this year, and to you, Most Worshipful Sir, for making it possible.

ALLAN E. BROADLEY, D.D.G.M.

BRUCE DISTRICT

As the finest year of my Masonic career draws to a close, I wish to express my sincere thanks to the brethren of Harriston Lodge, No. 262, for proposing my name for the office of D.D.G.M., to the brethren of Bruce District for electing me and to the Grand Master for confirming the election. It has been a privilege and an honour to serve the Grand Master and the brethren of Bruce District. It took preparation, time and energy to carry out the duties and I hope my efforts in the District and in other Districts have reflected honour to the Grand Master, Bruce District and to my Mother Lodge. Any errors or omissions I trust will be forgiven.

I was very fortunate to have such devoted Masons as W. Bro. J. G. McEachern, District Secretary; R.W. Bro. Rev. G. F. Leigh, E.D., District Chaplain; W. Bro. J. F. Blacker, Chairman of Masonic Education; and Bro. D. M. Maltby, Chairman of Blood Donors; assisting me in my duties and accompanying me on all my visitations.

W. Bro. McEachern found the records of all the lodges in good order, and was greatly impressed by the devotion to duty of the faithful brethren who hold the office of Secretary in our lodges. From his report I see that both attendance and membership show a slight increase for the year.

At every visitation either the District Chaplain or the Chairman of Masonic Education gave a short inspiring address which was well received. The Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee has worked diligently to see that the brethren of every lodge were informed of Clinics being held in their communities, and his enthusiasm has paid dividends.

Masonic Education is being carried out in all lodges. The Masters', Wardens' and Past Masters' Association is to be commended for the meetings it held in the fall with R.W. Bro. Rev. G. F. Smith, Grand Chaplain, as the speaker. In the spring R.W. Bro. R. E. Davies, a member of the Board of General Purposes, was the speaker. Both meetings were well attended and were very educational.

During the year I visited every lodge in the District at least once. On all but one occasion degrees were performed in a satisfactory manner. The ritual is being followed in accordance with the traditions of the Craft; a few of the officers were requested to put forth a little extra effort in order to strive for perfection. As I see it the work is in good hands and the spirit of true Masonry is very much alive in Bruce District. The friendly and gracious reception extended to me in all lodges showed the esteem the brethren have for Grand Lodge.

The warm hospitality and wonderful co-operation I have received from the brethren will be forever remembered.

The highlight of the year was the opportunity I had to receive such a large number of Grand Lodge Officers and visitors to the Dedication of the new Temple of Cedar Lodge, No. 396, Wiarton. We were sorry that our Grand Master was unable to attend but appreciate the attendance of M.W. Bro. James N. Allan, P.G.M., who so ably presided for him. Many thanks are extended to our Grand Secretary and his office for the assistance and guidance they so freely gave me on this occasion. Cedar Lodge held their Divine Service the following morning and I was pleased to be able to take part in this Service along with our Grand Chaplain, R.W. Bro. Rev. G. F. Smith.

Many 50-Year Lapel Buttons were presented during the year. On one occasion I was privileged to present W.Bro. B. Scarborough and W. Bro. W. Laidlaw of Hanover Lodge with Grand Lodge's recognition of 50 years a Past Master, and to watch both of these brethren take an active part in the degree conferred that evening.

The District Divine Service was well attended in Harriston. The Service was conducted by R.W. Bro. Rev. G. F. Leigh, E.D., assisted by the Speed Lodge Masonic Choir of Guelph, and R.W. Bro. Rev. G. Hazlewood, Past Grand Chaplain, of Hamilton, who preached an inspiring sermon to the brethren assembled.

Mrs. Aitchison and I were guests at many of the Ladies' Nights held in the district and at our first District Ladies' Night. These events were all well attended and the fellowship enjoyed and the new friends made will long be remembered.

During the year I was able to attend Masonic functions in ten other Districts; the fellowship and knowledge shared on these visits was very rewarding.

Many lodges have brought up the subject of a study of our Masonic Districts. With the many changes that have occurred in the past few years in our High School Districts, Electoral Districts I feel that a committee could look into some changes which could result in better inter-lodge relations and greatly reduce the travelling time of district officers.

In conclusion, I would like to say, in general, that the condition of Masonry in Bruce District is good, but let us continue to strive to make it better, and let the example set by Masons in our daily life be one that has no spot or stain. I appreciate the wonderful support I have received from all my brethren, and I know that my successor can expect the same.

DONALD M. AITCHISON, D.D.G.M.

CHATHAM DISTRICT

It has been a great honour and privilege to represent the Grand Master in Chatham District for the past year, and it is with pleasure I submit my report.

I would express my appreciation to Star of the East Lodge, No. 422, for my nomination, and to the brethren of Chatham District for electing me D.D.G.M. I trust that in some small way I have contributed to the advancement of Masonry in the District.

It was with a great deal of pride that Chatham District learned that Rt. Wor. Bro. B. B. Foster was elected Deputy Grand Master, and the brethren of the District were happy to be with Howard Lodge, No. 391, Ridgetown, at a reception for Rt. Wor. Bro. Foster on October 25, 1967. It was a fine tribute for a worthy Brother.

A few words of thanks are due my District Officers, Wor. Bro. Delbert Johnston, District Secretary; Very Wor. Bro. Ward Leitch, Chairman of Masonic Education; Wor. Bro. Ross Beamish, Chairman of Blood Donors; and Bro. Ivan Perritt, District Chaplain; who served their offices well.

On the occasion of my official visit to each of the fifteen lodges in the District, I was well received and was well pleased with the high standards I observed in the conduct of business and degree work in all lodges.

I was honored to have the privilege of presenting several 50-Year Lapel Buttons and I had the pleasure of visiting many neighbouring Districts on the occasion of the D.D.G.M. visiting his own lodge. I was indeed happy to have four D.D.G.M.s with me on my visit to Star of the East Lodge, Bothwell.

The District Divine Service was held on Sunday, May 19, 1968, in the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Bothwell, when the District Chaplain, Pastor Bro. Ivan Perritt, delivered a very inspiring sermon, assisted by Wor. Bro. Delbert Johnston. I had the privilege of attending a number of Divine Services held by the lodges in the District.

My wife and I attended many Ladies' Nights and were made most welcome on all occasions.

In conclusion, I wish to thank all the brethren for their assistance and loyal support.

J. GORDON McDONALD, D.D.G.M.

EASTERN DISTRICT

It has been a great honour and privilege to have represented the Grand Master in Eastern District during the 1967-68 Masonic year. Words fail to express my sincere appreciation adequately, but I am truly grateful to the brethren of my own lodge, Farran-Ault Lodge, No. 256, for my nomination, to the lodges in the District for supporting my election, and to the Grand Master for confirming their decision.

My brother, Wor. Bro. Keith Dafoe, who was officially installed D.D.G.M. of Eastern District at Grand Lodge in July 1967, due to unexpected health conditions was forced to resign shortly after his return from Grand Lodge. After following the proper Masonic procedure, I was appointed by the Grand Master to the office of D.D.G.M. of Eastern District. I was installed by Most Wor. Bro. Harry L. Martyn on August 23 in Sussex Lodge, No. 5, Brockville.

Following my installation, I organized two sectional meetings in the District where I met with the senior officers of the lodges and discussed matters of mutual Masonic interest, after which it was unanimously agreed that a great deal of benefit was derived from these meetings.

In carrying out my duties during the year, I was ably assisted by Wor. Bro. John J. Stewart, District Secretary, who accompanied me on each visit and reported to me on the condition of lodge records and finances, which I am pleased to report were all in satisfactory condition; by Bro. Rev. Harold W. Giffin, District Chaplain; by Rt. Wor. Bro. Geo. A. Revell, District Chairman of Masonic Education; and by V. Wor. Bro. Geo. E. McCutcheon, District Chairman of Blood Donors. To each of them, I say a sincere "thank you."

During the year several significant events took place in the District, and, when possible, I was present to assist and participate. The 100th Anniversary Celebrations of Plantagenet Lodge, No. 186, Riceville, were well organized and well attended. This event is certainly a milestone in the history of any lodge.

The annual dinner of the Past Masters' and Wardens' Association was highlighted by having Rt. Wor. Bro. Willard M. Gordon, guest speaker, make a presentation of a much coveted 50-Year D.D.G.M. Button, to the commonly referred to "Dean of Masons" in Eastern District, Rt. Wor. Bro. Frank T. Shaver.

It was a great pleasure to attend the reception to the Grand Master in St. Lawrence District, and we, in Eastern District, were keenly disappointed when we were forced to cancel our reception, due to the Grand Master's sudden illness.

A meeting on Masonic Education, held in Cornwall, under the direction of the District Chairman, was well received and well attended.

Accompanied by my wife, Wor. Bro. Stewart and Mrs. Stewart, I attended several Ladies' Nights to which we were invited and which we thoroughly enjoyed.

I visited each lodge officially, and several on more than one occasion, and I am happy to report that the calibre of the work which I inspected was quite satisfactory. I observed a desire by all to perform to the best of their ability. I was well supported on these visits by members of my own lodge and neighbouring lodges, and especially Henderson Lodge, No. 383, Winchester, several of whose brethren attended all but one of my visits, and this exception was due to weather conditions. My father, V. Wor. Bro. Frank E. Dafoe, accompanied me at all times, and on the evening of the visit to my own lodge, Farran-Ault, No. 256, I had the honour of presenting him with a 50-Year Lapel Button. This was a memorable occasion for both of us. It was also unique since I was escorted into the lodge by Rt. Wor. Bro. Frank Shaver, D.D.G.M. in 1917, and Rt. Wor. Bro. Jack Edwards, D.D.G.M. in 1948, both P.D.D.G.M.s of Eastern District and still active members of Farran-Ault Lodge. In attendance with the many visiting Masons were several visiting D.D.G.M.s, and several P.D.D.G.M.s of Eastern and neighbouring Districts.

The District Divine Service was held in Trinity United Church, Ingleside. This well-attended event was a fitting conclusion to what could be considered a happy and successful term of office. The choir was composed of brethren of the District, and the climax was an inspiring sermon entitled "The Wise Master Builder," by the District Chaplain.

On June 24 a special event took place in Wales Lodge, No. 458, when the members burned the mortgage on their building. This was an event worthy of the congratulations of the District.

As my year now comes to a close, it is with deep gratitude that I have had the pleasure to serve Masonry in this capacity. I trust that I have kept burning brightly the flame of Masonry in Eastern District as I received it.

GLENN F. DAFOE, D.D.G.M.

FRONTENAC DISTRICT

The year 1967-68 has been a most interesting and challenging one for me as D.D.G.M. of Frontenac Masonic District. On my Official Visits to all the lodges in this District I found the buildings well cared for, the officers well skilled and a fine spirit of brotherhood prevailing. On these occasions there were six First, six Second, and two Third Degrees conferred and the four lodges which were without candidates opened and closed in the three degrees to prove their proficiency. An average attendance of 82 gave additional proof of the healthy state of Masonry in our District.

Special events of the year were the Centennial Celebrations of Simpson Lodge, No. 157, Newboro, and Leeds Lodge, No. 201, Gananoque. At the former we were honoured by the presence of our Grand Master, Donald J. Gunn, and, as a guest of R.W. Bro. Wallace of St. Lawrence District, we were privileged to associate with him again in Sussex Lodge, No. 5, Brockville.

Another unique event of the year was at Albion Lodge, No. 109, Harrowsmith, when P.D.D.G.M. Art Hodgson and his four sons initiated a son-in-law into Masonry. It was a gala occasion attended by Masonic brethren from all lodges of our District.

Outstanding events of the year were the holding of Lodges of Instruction at Union Lodge, No. 9, Napanee, Cataraqui Lodge, No. 92, Kingston, and Rideau Lodge, No. 460, Seeley's Bay. W. Bro. Eldon Guthrie, our Supervisor of Masonic Education, and his team made these very worthwhile projects by opening and closing in the three degrees and by exemplifying the changes in the penalties.

I participated in the Divine Services of Simpson Lodge, No. 157; Albion Lodge, No. 109; Minden Lodge, No. 253; and Westport Lodge, No. 441. Our District Divine Service was held in Cooke's-Portsmouth United Church, Sunday, May 26. We had an attendance of 250. The presiding Pastor, Rev. S. Delve, was unavoidably absent due to the severe illness of his mother. The Service was conducted by our Chaplain, Bro. Mac. Freeman, M.A., B.D., Ph.D., of Victoria College. He delivered a challenging address upon "The Brotherhood of Man," with special emphasis on our Indian Brother.

To the many lodges who invited Mrs. Freeman and me to their Ladies' Nights, I extend my sincere thanks, and Mrs. Freeman's apologies for being unable to attend.

Again the Knights of Columbus of Frontenac Council have extended their kind hospitality to your representative of the Grand Master. This spirit of brotherhood, which has resulted from a new birth amongst Christian Churches, bids well for the future of our Order and already some Catholic brothers are expressing a desire to become Masons as soon as their Church gives its full sanction.

While I have been well pleased with inter-lodge conditions of Masonry, I have a feeling that Masonry needs something outside of the lodge to maintain the interest of the brethren in the affairs of the world, something whereby they may make a practical application of Masonic teachings and thereby prove that it is a vital force working for the betterment of mankind.

I wish to express my appreciation and thanks to my predecessor, Rt. W. Bro. Hanlon Wilson, and his District Secretary, V.W. Bro. W. Selby, to all Grand Lodge Officers, and to the Worshipful Masters and members of our lodges for their loyalty in supporting me throughout the year. I trust they may be as kindly and considerate to my successor.

In conclusion, I wish to thank Rideau Lodge, No. 460, for sponsoring me, and our Past Masters', Masters' and Wardens' Association for supporting me, and our Grand Master for having approved my election to serve as District Deputy Grand Master. I trust my small contribution has been for the welfare of our Order. It has been a wonderful year.

N. V. FREEMAN, D.D.G.M.

GEORGIAN DISTRICT

As the representative of the Grand Master in Georgian District, I am both proud and pleased to present this, my report, on the condition of Masonry in the 21 lodges of the District.

Many notable occasions were celebrated by various lodges at which it was my pleasure to speak. Main topics of my discussions were the dropping off of membership in the Craft and the lack of attendance at the lodge meetings. It would appear that we are lacking in facing the issues pertinent to the above mentioned two subjects. Consequently, rather than elaborate on the many enjoyable and fraternal visits and Ladies' Nights attended, may I respectfully refer to some of the more important points affecting Masonry in this District as expressed to me in my travels by Master Masons, Officers, and Past Grand Lodge Officers.

1. There should be a stipulation that a Master Mason cannot become an officer of a lodge until he has proved himself in the Third Degree.
2. An educational campaign to dispel the accepted practice that ladder promotion is practically essential at the election of officers.
3. A course of examinations be drawn up by the Committee on Masonic Education to cover basic requirements essential to the fulfilment of any office in a lodge.
4. That consideration be given to the granting of lapel buttons, jewels, etc., simply on the completion of a stipulated number of years as a Mason. It is suggested that a certain attendance performance accompany such an honour, or reason for lack of attendance be adequately explained.
5. That the serving of alcoholic beverages be condoned at certain types of Masonic functions.
6. That consideration be given by Grand Lodge to regulate or recommend that initiation fees be set at a minimum of $100 exclusive of apron or Bible.
7. That Grand Lodge consider a rearrangement to reduce the number of lodges in this District (presently 21) to the two adjacent Districts (Grey with 12 and Muskoka-Parry Sound with only 8).

This report, because of the brevity required, cannot include the arguments pro and con for the above recommendations, but I should be happy to appear before any committees to attempt to validate the proposals which we feel would enhance the value of Freemasonry in general.

May I also report that I have found 18 of the 21 lodges near perfection in their ritualistic work while the other three can be reported only in fair condition. Special instruction has been afforded these lodges. Financially, the condition of the lodges is good to excellent.

I would be remiss in my duties if I did not pay especial tribute to three brethren who have helped Masonry immensely during my visits; firstly, my very efficient and tactful Secretary, W. Bro. C. S. Wice, who has lightened to a great extent the duties of this office; secondly, to M.W. Bro. Harry L. Martyn for his unhesitating response to the several "knotty" problems encountered; and thirdly, to Rt. W. Bro. Bailey, as Chairman of Masonic Education, who has provided, most enthusiastically, material for the "Instruction and Guidance of the Workman."

At the district level, tribute must be paid to the work of the Masonic Officers' Association which held three meetings during the year with an average attendance of about 90 brethren. This Association conducted a Lodge of Instruction in the First Degree as well as acting as a sounding board for several of my recommendations.

On the whole, I am pleased to report that the condition of Masonry in the Georgian District is of a generally high order and the greatest esteem of the efforts of Grand Lodge has been expressed on each and every visit.

W. N. KEEFE, D.D.G.M.

GREY DISTRICT

I deem it a real privilege and an honour to present my report on the condition of Masonry in Grey District for the year just ended.

Before proceeding with my report, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the brethren of Grey District for the honour they conferred on me when they recommended me to be the representative of the Most Worshipful the Grand Master in Grey District. A most sincere thank you.

My first duty after returning from Grand Lodge was to make the following appointments as District Officers; namely, District Secretary: Wor. Bro. Clifford W. Dales, Grand Valley.

Chaplain: Wor. Bro. Edward Windus, Grand Valley.

Blood Donors: Wor. Bro. C. W. Curtis, Belwood.

Masonic Education: Bro. Gordon Winters, Grand Valley.

I would like to thank these brethren for very capably filling these offices for me.

A special thanks to Wor. Bro. District Secretary who accompanied me to all twelve lodges on my official visit. I visited every lodge officially once and several on other occasions. I might say that the condition of Masonry in Grey District is very satisfactory to me. I was royally received and most cordially welcomed on my Official Visits. I give a great deal of credit to the Past Masters', Masters' and Wardens' Association for arranging inter-lodge visitations which in turn have produced more uniformity in the conferring of the degrees. Also it enables the brethren of the District to get better acquainted.

Mrs. West and I attended several Ladies' Nights in the District and were made most welcome on all occasions. The Past Masters', Masters' and Wardens' Association held their annual Ladies' Night in Markdale Community Centre on April 6, 1968, which was a real success and very good entertainment was provided as well. R. Wor. Bro. Willard M. Gordon was the guest speaker. I also have had the pleasure of attending the dedication of Regalia in St. Alban's Lodge, Mount Forest, at which time Most Wor. Bro. Harry L. Martyn made the official dedication.

On April 29, 1968, Lorne Lodge, Shelburne, held a Lodge of Instruction, at which time the Entered Apprentice Degree was exemplified in a very fine manner by the Senior Wardens of Grey District, assisted by Rt. Wor. Bros. Wilfred Newell and John Ballard. I feel that the lodge officers in Grey District are doing very good work in their respective lodges. There seems to be a very good number of brethren giving blood to the Blood Donors' Clinic. Also each Lodge held a reasonable number of meetings on Masonic Education.

I attended three District Divine Church Services—namely Bruce District, Wellington District and Grey District, the latter being held in Trinity United Church, Grand Valley. It was a grand success with Bro. Rev. Cerwyn Davies, a member of Scott Lodge, as guest speaker. The church was filled to capacity.

I attended the Centennial Banquet on June 4, 1968, in St. Alban's Lodge at which time Most Wor. Bro. Donald Gunn, Grand Master, was our special guest.

In closing, may I say thanks again for the honour of serving as District Deputy Grand Master for Grey District during 1967-68. I trust I have in some small way contributed to the betterment of Masonry in Grey District. I would like to say thanks to the Grand Lodge Officers for the very courteous assistance given to me at all times.

WILFRED WEST, D.D.G.M.

HAMILTON DISTRICT "A"

It has been a very great privilege and high honour for me to represent you in Hamilton "A" District as your District Deputy and I am most grateful that you confirmed my election to this high office.

The duties and responsibilities of my office were made so much easier by the wonderful assistance given to me by the District Secretary, W. Bro. Jack McPhail, the District Chaplain, R.W. Bro. Ernest E. Baskier, the District Chairman of Masonic Education, R.W. Bro. W. L. Sommerville, and the Chairman of Blood Donors, V.W. Bro. Kenneth Watson. To these brethren I extend my sincere thanks and appreciation.

The warm welcome and loyal support given me by every Lodge in the District certainly shows that the Grand Master and our Grand Lodge are held in high esteem by the brethren.

The District Secretary accompanied me on all of my official visits. On examination of the books of the various Secretaries and Treasurers of the Lodges, he highly commended them on the efficient manner in which the books were kept.

Masonic Education is being carried out in all Lodges under the direction of R.W. Bro. W. L. Sommerville, P.D.D.G.M., who is dedicated to this work, and the interest in this regard reflects great credit on the efforts of the Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Education under the chairmanship of R.W. Bro. William K. Bailey. District meetings were held in Milton, Dundas and Campbellville; all were well attended, although I would like to see a little more interest shown by the brethren.

V.W. Bro. Kenneth Watson, in assuming the responsibilities as Chairman of the Blood Donors, has carried out these duties in a very efficient manner.

Hamilton Districts "A" and "B" are most fortunate in having very active Past Masters' and Masters' and Wardens' Associations. These brethren are doing a great deal toward promoting Friendship and Brotherly Love in the two Districts as well as promoting Masonry in general.

It is most gratifying to note that the brethren in Hamilton Districts "A" and "B" are holding joint Ladies' Nights, also joint meetings with neighbouring Lodges in the two Districts.

I have visited all twenty Lodges at least once and some several times and have been convinced that the condition of Freemasonry in the District is sound and above reproach. Where irregularities were found, a quiet word to the Master or other officers sufficed. The work in each of the twenty Lodges was conducted in a very capable manner. I noticed that a great many of the members were participating in degree work besides officers and Past Masters. The brethren could do with, and would appreciate a little more guidance by the Past Masters or the Committee on Masonic Education.

Attendance at our District meetings was very good but the attendance at the regular meetings could certainly be increased. I feel that all that is required in this respect is a little effort on the part of each Brother.

During my visits I thought it my duty to bring to the attention of the brethren the need for concerted efforts by all Lodges towards reducing suspensions and resignations and encouraging restorations and affiliations. I also endeavored to bring to the brethren's attention that, although the Official Visit of the D.D.G.M. was always looked upon as a special evening, they must always keep in mind the fact that the candidate was the most important person present. At all my Official Visits, I witnessed the conferring of degrees. The work was portrayed with dignity and sincerity impressing the Principles of Masonry on each candidate.

I have found that Lodges with smaller memberships have the best average attendance. Candidates, after receiving their degrees, must have some small part of the work to do in order to become zealous members. A man cannot be a true Mason by receiving his various degrees and then be ignored. It is my opinion that, due to the change in population from rural to urban community, preparation should be started to cope with the situation in the future.

A number of fraternal visits were exchanged between American and Canadian Lodges. I had the pleasure of attending some of these. They were among the highlights of my year and were enjoyed by all. Mrs. Auckland and I attended a number of Ladies' Nights in both Districts "A" and "B". The warmth of the receptions, the fellowship and hospitality extended to us are memories for which we will always be grateful.

I made six visits outside my District and was received with great Masonic Friendship. I was pleased to attend a banquet in Waterford, held in honour of our Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Bro. Bruce B. Foster, where I met so many capable and devoted Masons.

There were two Divine Services held during the year by the combined Hamilton Districts under the auspices of the Masters' and Wardens' Association, individual Lodges also held Divine Services. The District Divine Service was held on May 5th in Wellington Square United Church, Burlington. R.W. Bro. Rev. Baskier's sermon, "Only the Stars are Neutral", moulded a temple in Masons' hearts that will long be remembered. This Service was well attended by the brethren, their families and visitors.

During my term of office I have had with me, at all my Official Visits, R.W. Bro. Rev. Ernest E. Baskier, District Chaplain. His support and assistance have been of great value to me. I am pleased to report that Masonry in Hamilton "A" District still maintains a high degree of perfection.

In conclusion, may I thank, most sincerely, the Grand Master, the Grand Secretary, the Chairman of Masonic Education, the members of my Mother Lodge, Campbell No. 603, and the brethren of Hamilton "A" District for granting me the privilege of serving Masonry in this District. I am most grateful to the Present and Past Grand Lodge Officers, Past Masters, Worshipful Masters, the officers and members of the twenty Lodges who supported me on many of my visits. I hope, that, in some small way, I have contributed to the betterment of Masonry in general and Hamilton "A" District in particular. It has been a rewarding year.

FREDERICK J. AUCLAND, D.D.G.M.

HAMILTON DISTRICT "B"

It is with a sense of justifiable pride and privilege that I submit a most favourable report on the general condition of Masonry in Hamilton District "B". While it is neither normal nor desirable in mankind to be satisfied with anything less than elusive and unobtainable perfection, there is an abundance of evidence throughout the District that this is the goal continually beckoning most lodges, under the enthusiastic direction, precept and example of their Worshipful Masters. I could not help but construe a gracious compliment to the Grand Lodge and myself in the carefully planned meetings on the occasions of my Official Visits, and in the obviously sincere warmth and kindness extended to the District Officers and to me at all times.

I was favoured with the able assistance of singularly competent and devoted District Officers, whose unstinted support and regular attendance I acknowledge gratefully. The District was saddened early in the season by the tragic death of the District Assistant Chaplain, Very Wor. Bro. Percy T. Wood, as the result of a traffic mishap. Brother Wood was a Mason of the old school, a guide, philosopher and friend of his lodges and indeed of all Masons.

It is fitting that the names of the District Officers should be here recorded. Wor. Bro. Sanford J. Griffin officiated as District Secretary, Wor. Bro. Hugh W. Hill as District Chaplain, and Wor. Bro. Alf G. Adams as District Blood Donor Chairman. These brethren are all members of Westmount Lodge, No. 671, and Rt. Wor. Bro. J. Allen Senn of Enniskillen Lodge, No. 185, the Immediate Past District Deputy Grand Master of this District, kindly accepted the function of District Supervisor of Masonic Education. Such men are the stuff of which Masonry is made.

There was a decline of nearly two per cent in total membership of the District during the term, and the reported total membership now stands at a little over six thousand. The greatest single contributing loss resulted from 142 deaths. Other losses were 65 resignations and 59 suspensions. Of equal concern is a reported total of 302 Masons who are in arrears with annual dues. The concern stems, not only from reduced numerical strength, deplorable as that is, but which is secondary to the fact that 300 good men believed worthy of Masonry have apparently failed to experience the satisfaction and revelation which is the core of our Craft. It was emphasized that while every encouragement should be urged to redeem these foundering brethren, all attempts to recover them must be for the right reasons, and not merely for statistical purposes.

It is very encouraging to observe a greater awareness on the part of lodges in their financial structures. This recognition has been accentuated for the City Lodges by the pending enforced loss of the Hamilton Masonic Hall by urban renewal, and the consequent necessity of planning for new premises. A realistic reappraisal has generally been long overdue in financial matters, and our future cannot be served better than by striking sound budgets designed to be met by annual dues alone, unbolstered by a necessity of relying on initiation fees for solvency. It is my hope to see the formation of more lodges within the District, which will provide opportunities for active participation by more of our brethren. The active member is an interested member, and it is from the ranks of these that our future District leaders must come.

Early in the season, a meeting was called at the District level with the Masters and Wardens of the constituent lodges. Amongst the matters discussed and explained were the changes in the Ritual. Several lodges displayed their zeal by early incorporation of these changes with demonstrable mastery in facing the changed situation, while others elected prudently to await the issue of the new edition of the Ritual in order to be supported by the authority of the exact wording. Both approaches were considered meritorious and were commended for several reasons.

A number of Divine Services were conducted, during my term, and I was graciously invited to participate where the opportunity was available. At one Service, the District Chaplain, Wor. Bro. Hugh W. Hill, delivered an accomplished sermon which met with warm approbation.

My wife and I were honoured as guests at many Ladies' Nights of lodges in both of the Hamilton Districts. The generous hospitality and warm fellowship extended to us constituted a delightful and most heart-warming embellishment to my term in office.

I am forever indebted to Westmount Lodge, No. 671, and to the members of Hamilton District "B" for electing me for the approval of the Most Worshipful the Grand Master as his representative in this thriving District. I am deeply sensible of the great privilege which has been accorded to me and the enriching experience of fulfillment which it has brought. I trust that I shall not be thought immodest if I conclude by echoing the song of Giuseppe from the 'Gondoliers' —

—"the culminating pleasure
That we treasure beyond measure
Is the gratifying feeling that our duty has been done!"

I do not, however, regard my duty as completed, for I shall esteem it a privilege to devote my energies to the great cause of Masonry as long as I retain the faculties to do so.

W. JAMES CURTIS, D.D.G.M.

LONDON EAST DISTRICT

May I submit my report on London East District, and say what a privilege and rewarding experience it has been to represent our Grand Master in this District. On behalf of my Mother Lodge, Belmont 190, I would like to thank the Masons of London East District for bestowing the honour of this office on our Lodge. It has made our 100 years in Masonry even more wonderful.

Wor. Bro. Donald A. Black, my District Secretary, has handled the duties of his office very capably. He attended every meeting with me, and his love and devotion for the Craft have been an inspiration to the District. I am sure that every Mason in the District would like to convey special thanks to Bro. Rev. R. T. F. Brain, who was our District Chaplain. He spoke for a few minutes at every meeting, often on the close relationship between our Church and our Lodge. We all benefited from his wisdom and council.

A very active group was our Masonic Education Committee, under the Chairmanship of Wor. Bro. Bill Luxton. Each Lodge visited another in the District and presented a program of Masonic Education. The highlight of the year in this field was our District Education Meeting in the Temple, in London, attended by 325 persons, with over 40 Masons taking part, representing every Lodge in the District. The theme of our Committee was "Keep it diversified and have active participation."

Wor. Bro. Bill Fuller, Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee, organized two clinics and spent much time and effort promoting this very worthy cause.

A District Divine Service was held in Belmont United Church on April 21, when Bro. Rev. R. T. F. Brain delivered an inspiring sermon entitled "God and Man." This Service was well attended, and we were delighted to have with us our Grand Chaplain, Rt. Wor. Bro. Rev. G. F. Smith.

We have fulfilled your request by reorganizing the London Masonic Bureau, with Wor. Bro. Jon Hall as President. We are happy to report that all Lodges in the District are co-operating with us.

There were many outstanding events during the year, but I would like to make special mention of the Past Masters', Masters' and Wardens' Association's Annual Fish Supper at Port Stanley, where a capacity crowd heard Most Wor. Bro. R. W. Treleven deliver a very interesting and entertaining address.

Over 1000 Masons, their sons and friends attended the Annual Sunrise Service and Breakfast at Fanshawe Park, sponsored by Kilwinning Lodge, No. 64, on Sunday, June 2. Bro. Rev. Robert Trimble of Wesley United Church delivered the sermon.

My wife and I, together with the District Secretary and his wife, were graciously entertained at the Ladies' Nights in the District. It was a pleasure to associate with this fine group of Masons and their ladies.

I am very impressed with the condition of Masonry in London East District. The meetings were well planned, were started on time, and the work was done with confidence and dignity. However, I believe that many good Masons are looking for Grand Lodge to come up with some solutions to the problems which confront all Lodges, and if this is not done I am afraid we will have each Lodge going in a different direction, all trying to solve their own problems in their own way. If we continue to dwell forever in the past, we may lose sight of the future.

ANDREW WILLISIE, D.D.G.M.

LONDON WEST DISTRICT

It has been a rich and rewarding experience and an honour and pleasure to have had the privilege of representing the Grand Master in the London West District. I wish to thank him for confirming my election.

On behalf of all the members of this District, I certainly want to express our sincere best wishes to Most Wor. Bro. Donald J. Gunn for continued recovery from his illness. At the same time we share the disappointment he must have felt in having to postpone some of his commitments.

I was very fortunate to have the co-operation and full support of all the lodges and particular individuals within them in making this the most enjoyable and rewarding year of my life. My only regret is that in trying to convey the many thoughts and contributions I may have made through the year it always left me with the impression that a D.D.G.M. was still the one receiving the most benefit. For this privilege I sincerely thank my own Lodge, Doric, No. 289, for presenting me to the District and for the Masters, Past Masters and Wardens for placing their valued confidence in me at Grand Lodge.

I highly commend my District Secretary, Wor. Bro. Campbell Vail, for completing his assigned task with that quiet but thorough manner that was prevalent all year. In fulfilling his duties he found all the Secretaries most co-operative as he examined their books which were found to be in good order. In receiving these records, it is disappointing to notice the suspensions and resignations within the District that seem impossible to ignore if the lodges are going to adhere to their by-laws, as we would expect of them.

The direction of Masonic Education was under the capable supervision of Wor. Bro. Roy Hurst. His committee, with the co-operation of the Senior Wardens of the District, presented two educational programs that were well attended and accepted in their respective areas of the District.

I am sincerely indebted to Bro. Rev. Geo. Morris, District Chaplain, for his untiring efforts throughout the whole year. Besides attending many official visits with me, he gave us a very inspiring address at our District Divine Service held on April 28, at Byron United Church, which was well attended. I was pleased to attend many Divine Services held by the lodges throughout the year as well.

The Blood Donors' Committee was headed by Wor. Bro. Lyle McConnell and, under the co-ordinating efforts of Wor. Bro. Wm. Fuller, both London Districts held two clinics, the second on June 3rd showing improvement over the others.

This year London West welcomed St. John's Lodge, No. 81, Mount Brydges, into the District, giving me a total of fourteen Official Visits.

In addition to the twelve installations, I managed to attend special occasions in several lodges, which gave me the opportunity to become better acquainted. I also was pleased to be able to visit several times outside the District from which a strong fraternal relationship with my neighbouring D.D.G.M.s resulted.

Mrs. Frank and I, along with the District Secretary, Wor. Bro. Campbell Vail, and Mrs. Vail, were extremely appreciative of the invitations we received from each lodge to their Ladies' Nights. We availed ourselves of all possible nights, and enjoyed meeting the wives of all the officers and members we came to know through the year.

London West District was honoured to have Rt. Wor. Bro. James Ritchie as Grand Senior Warden this year. I not only congratulated him, but also St. John's Lodge, No. 209a, for the added honour it brought to the District. I also congratulate The Tuscan Lodge, No. 195, in becoming eligible for their centennial celebrations, which have been postponed now until fall.

I presented one Fifty-Year Past Master Lapel Button to the now late Wor. Bro. Hiram Zavitz of my lodge, and other Fifty-

Year Buttons. We will have presented, this year, a total of four Fifty-Year Buttons in my lodge alone.

My last visit for the year was to my own lodge, and I am most pleased to report an attendance of 147, comprised of six visiting D.D.G.M.s, twenty-five Grand Lodge officers, nineteen Masters, fifty visitors and forty-seven members.

I feel my year could not have been complete without the co-operation of the Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Education, headed by Rt. Wor. Bro. Wm. K. Bailey, to whom I owe my sincere appreciation.

To sum up, may I express my sincere gratitude to everyone responsible for giving me their confidence and co-operation in allowing me to serve my brethren of the London West District.

WM. C. FRANK, D.D.G.M.

MUSKOKA-PARRY SOUND DISTRICT

I wish to thank the brethren of Golden Rule Lodge, No. 409, Gravenhurst, for selecting me to represent them and, also, the brethren of the lodges of Muskoka-Parry Sound District for electing me as the representative of the Grand Master, Most Worshipful Brother Donald J. Gunn. I also thank you, Most Wor. Sir, for confirming my election. This has been a great honour and a very rewarding experience for me.

The duties and responsibilities of my office were made so much easier by the wonderful assistance given to me by the District Secretary, Wor. Bro. Gordon J. Borneman; District Chaplain, Wor. Bro. Ronald A. MacNab; District Chairman of Masonic Education, Wor. Bro. Budd Hampson; and the Chairman of Blood Donors' Committee, Brother Eldon Matches. To these brethren I extend my sincere thanks and appreciation.

During the year every lodge in the District was visited at least once. At most of these visits degrees were conferred and the work of the officers in general was excellent. The large attendance at these meetings, the enthusiasm among the brethren, and the kindness and courtesy extended to me will long be remembered. To the Lodge Secretaries, I would like to extend my thanks for the prompt attention given to any request for information and for the lodge summonses regularly received.

The District Divine Service was held on Sunday, May 26, 1968, at St. James Anglican Church, Gravenhurst, which was well attended by the brethren. The Rector, Rev. W. R. Thistle, conducted the Service.

The Past Masters', Masters', and Wardens' Association is in the midst of preparation for a Lodge of Instruction to be held at Unity Lodge, Huntsville, on an afternoon to be selected during October, 1968. It is their wish that the Grand Master will visit this District at a banquet later the same day.

This report would not be complete without thanking the Grand Lodge Officers for their kindness and assistance to me, particularly the Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. E. G. Dixon.

It is my hope that, in some way, I have been able to contribute to the advancement of Masonry in general and Muskoka-Parry Sound District in particular. To my successor, I wish him the same loyal support that has been an inspiration to me.

O. FINNISON, D.D.G.M.

NIAGARA DISTRICT "A"

The past Masonic year in Niagara District "A" has seen a renewed interest in the Craft. The most significant factor, and from my standpoint the most pleasant, has been the ability and enthusiasm of the Worshipful Masters. Each has contributed sincerely and conscientiously, emphasizing that the individual lodge is the unit of Masonry, and they have co-operated with and supported their fellow Masters. The loss in membership in recent years has stopped. Eight lodges increased their membership and in the District there is an overall increase of about 10.

The presentation in the District of two William Mercer Wilson Medals to Bro. William Garringer of Amity Lodge, No. 32, and Bro. Clifford Naylor of Maple Leaf Lodge, No. 103, was unique. These brethren have indeed rendered unusual services: M.W. Bro. James N. Allan made the presentation to Bro. Garringer who had built the altar and pedestals for the new Temple at Dunnville, each a beautiful example of hand craftsmanship, entirely of wood. I presented W. Bro. W. J. Mable (W.M. of Mountain Lodge, No. 221, in 1916) with his 60-Year Button at the Eventide Home. M.W. Bro. James N. Allan received his 50-Year Button in Amity Lodge on June 12th. I joined in this tribute to him.

A Lodge of Instruction was conducted by M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn at St. Marks Lodge, No. 105, Niagara Falls, under the joint auspices of Niagara Districts "A" and "B". All but one lodge of my District was represented by senior officers. The evening was very useful and highly appreciated.

I have endeavoured to promote Masonic Education and to challenge the brethren by speaking at each of my Official Visits on Masonic-things-to-live-by, usually with specific reference to the degree of the evening. This has been well received. W. Bro.

Lorne Stringer was District Supervisor of Masonic Education and assisted at several meetings by invitation.

A very well-attended District Divine Service was conducted by R.W. Bro. Alex Campbell, Past Grand Chaplain and District Chaplain, at his church, St. Andrew's Presbyterian, Thorold. I am especially happy to acknowledge R.W. Bro. Campbell's assistance. His friendship and sincerity added much to the numerous meetings.

All the brethren regret that a joint reception by Niagara Districts "A" and "B" to the Grand Master had to be cancelled because of M.W. Bro. Gunn's illness. We are glad that our Grand Master's health is being restored and look forward to his full recovery.

Cordial fraternal relations exist with neighbouring lodges in the United States. Our lodges have welcomed numerous American brethren as visitors. Friendship Lodge, No. 145, Manchester, Conn., visited St. George's Lodge, No. 15, and exemplified the Hiram legend in full costume. Their work was not merely excellent but was conducted with dignity.

An evening of special personal interest was at my Mother Lodge, University, No. 496, Toronto, on R.W. Bro. Chester McClure's Official Visit. University Lodge has, uniquely, in R.W. Bro. McClure and myself, two members holding the office of D.D.G.M. I was accompanied by some thirty brethren from Niagara "A" on this memorable occasion.

My homecoming visit to Perfection Lodge, No. 616, was heartwarming. The attendance was one of the largest in recent district history. Visitors included W. Bro. Argyle and several brethren of University Lodge. All fourteen Masters of Niagara "A" came into the lodge with me, the W.M. of Perfection Lodge coming out to escort us.

The work in individual lodges has ranged from acceptable to excellent. The changes in ritual have been well received and are in general use.

Bro. Harley Johnson is District Chairman for Blood Donors. He is active in this phase of Red Cross work and reports increased donations from several lodges.

Ladies' Nights were much enjoyed by my wife and myself. I attended eleven of thirteen such occasions which were pleasant, well organized, usually well attended, and did much to promote good fellowship and the general interest of the Craft.

Nine past D.D.G.M.s have assisted by representing me, each on at least one occasion, such as Installations, Divine Services, and Ladies' Nights which I was unable to attend. This division of labour has been not only helpful but beneficial. W. Bro. Gordon Trenholm has given unfailing, competent and devoted support as District Secretary, and I thank him warmly.

I feel significantly more encouraged as to the condition of Masonry in this District than I did at the beginning of the year. Our ultimate progress depends, as always, on individual Masons. I am proud and happy to be numbered as such.

CHARLES A. SANKEY, D.D.G.M.

NIAGARA DISTRICT "B"

In these closing days of my tenure as District Deputy Grand Master of Niagara District "B", I must pay tribute to the lodges for the complete co-operation afforded me and my District Officers. To my District Officers, W. Bro. N. H. Korell, District Secretary; W. Bro. C. M. McNeil, Chairman of Masonic Education; W. Bro. Rev. W. B. Martin, District Chaplain; W. Bro. W. W. Maxwell, Blood Donor Chairman; and Rt. W. Bro. V. R. Hall, Special Events Chairman, I extend my sincere thanks for an excellent job. Their enthusiasm and co-operation have made it a very pleasant and successful year.

It was with deep regret that we learned of the illness of Most Worshipful Grand Master Donald J. Gunn. We are very happy that he is gathering strength and will again be sharing his wisdom with us.

The brethren of Niagara "B" and our sister district, Niagara "A", were disappointed when, due to the illness of the Grand Master, the reception for him scheduled for May 11, 1968, in Welland, had to be cancelled. We look forward to being honoured by his presence at a future date.

On October 17, 1967, at Niagara Falls, Ontario, M.W. Bro. Harry L. Martyn, P.G.M., conducted a Lodge of Instruction. The lodge room was filled to capacity by brethren from Niagara Districts "A" and "B", who all agreed on the wisdom and charm of our Most Worshipful Brother. The hope was expressed that Niagara "B" would not have to wait another fourteen years for this outstanding privilege. This was the first year of the change in our ritual and I am very gratified at the response throughout the District. Without exception the officers of the constituent lodges are incorporating the changes.

The Masonic Education program was directed by W. Bro. C. M. McNeil, assisted by sub-chairmen from three sections of the District. The calibre of the information was high. We must pay tribute to the Grand Lodge Chairman of Masonic Education, Rt. W. Bro. W. K. Bailey, for the very excellent publications he provided. The various lodge chairmen are making excellent use of this material and have expressed the hope that this service will be continued.

The District Officers and I attended many Divine Services during the year. The attendance was good and the Services were conducted with dignity becoming Masonry. These Services culminated with the District Divine Service conducted by our District Chaplain, W. Bro. Rev. W. B. Martin, in St. David's Anglican Church, Welland, on May 5th. The Church was filled to capacity by the brethren and their families and was an inspiration to all who attended.

Mrs. Thornton and I are grateful for all the invitations to attend Ladies' Nights. The courtesy and friendliness with which we were received will long remain in our memory.

The Masters' and Wardens' Association, under the able direction of W. Bro. H. W. Gisel and V.W. Bro. C. S. Morningstar, made its presence felt in the District by arranging a very successful schedule of visitations to Installations.

The general condition of Masonry within the District is excellent. This District enjoys a fellowship with many brethren from across the border. Visitations from both sides and to other Districts are a part of our Masonic Life. The attendance throughout the District has improved and it appears that a resurgence is under way. Many lodges have increased the membership fees so that the general financial situation is excellent.

Finally, I must thank the brethren of the District for affording me the honour of acting as District Deputy Grand Master. I must also thank M.W. Bro. Donald J. Gunn, Grand Master, for confirming my appointment. It has certainly been a most gratifying year to me and I trust to all.

L. H. THORNTON, D.D.G.M.

NIPISSING EAST DISTRICT

I wish to express my thanks and appreciation to the officers and members of North Bay Lodge, No. 617, for nominating me, and to all Lodges in Nipissing East District for honouring me by electing me last July to the office of District Deputy Grand Master, and I am most grateful to the Most Worshipful the Grand Master for confirming my election to that high office. It has been a great privilege to serve Most Worshipful Brother Gunn and the brethren of Nipissing East District during the final months of Canada's Centennial Year and the first six months beginning our second century.

I was fortunate to have had as District Secretary, Wor. Bro. A. S. Haley who, as a most dedicated Mason, looked after his responsibilities with despatch and great ability; also Very Wor. Bro. Rev. H. Carson Mateer as District Chaplain; Rt. Wor.

Bro. A. S. R. Easey and Wor. Bro. Lavery as co-Chairmen of Masonic Education; and Wor. Bro. Pelkey as Chairman of Blood Donors' Committee. All were very active and dedicated to their respective duties.

One of the highlights of the year was my visit to Toronto with several members of Nipissing Lodge, No. 420, on November 11, 1967, to present to Wor. Bro. P. W. Brown, on the occasion of his one hundredth birthday, a plaque commemorating seventy-one years as a Mason and sixty-three years as a Past Master. Most Wor. Bro. Gunn met us in Toronto and was with us on this memorable occasion.

Another highlight was the joint celebration of the Sixtieth Anniversary of Haileybury Lodge, No. 485, and Silver Lodge, No. 486, on May 25, 1968, in the Temple at Haileybury, when brethren from Lodges in Nipissing East, Nipissing West, and Temiskaming Districts were in attendance. Past Grand Lodge Officers of Nipissing East District conferred the Master Mason Degree on Bro. Earl Cook, a member of Silver Lodge, No. 486, Cobalt. I also made a fraternal visit to Nickel Lodge, No. 427, Sudbury, on the occasion of the Official Visit of Rt. Wor. Bro. W. J. C. Noble to that Lodge.

I visited all Lodges in the District at least once and most of them more often. I am most appreciative of the fine reception I received on every occasion. Masonry in Nipissing East District is on a very high level. The work in every Lodge was well done, indicating a strong inclination on the part of the Worshipful Masters and officers to reach a reasonable perfection. The condition of the lodge buildings in the District runs from fair to excellent and, financially, all Lodges are in good shape.

North Bay Lodge, No. 617, set up a scholarship fund about three years ago and each year a student, graduating from Grade 13 and going on to advanced education from North Bay Public Secondary Schools, receives one hundred dollars. In 1968 it is the intention of this Lodge to provide an additional one hundred dollars to a Grade 12 student going on to college.

All Masons in Nipissing East District were sorry to learn of the illness of Most Wor. Bro. D. J. Gunn, our Grand Master, and it is our sincere wish that his recovery will be swift and complete.

Now as the year ends, I would like, once again, to thank all the brethren in the District, with a special thanks to the members of North Bay Lodge, No. 617, for the excellent support, advice and assistance given to me during the year which encouraged me to put forth a special effort to uphold the tradition of Freemasonry in the District.

GEORGE A. COOMBES, D.D.G.M.

NIPISSING WEST DISTRICT

It has been an honour and a great privilege to have served as the representative of the Grand Master in the District of Nipissing West for the term 1967-68. The cordial receptions, hospitality and co-operation that I received from the officers and brethren on my visits to the various lodges throughout the District are gratefully and sincerely acknowledged and will be long remembered.

I extend my sincere thanks to the brethren who so willingly accepted the responsibility of the many duties connected with the work in this District; Wor. Bro. J. J. Gilpin who, as the District Secretary, so capably assisted me throughout the year; Bro. the Rev. Gordon Adams, the District Chaplain, who took time out from his many church duties to accompany me on some of my Official Visits. Wor. Bro. Adam Dinwoodie, as District Chairman of Masonic Education, made an outstanding contribution to the District in this capacity. Bro. A. H. Wilson took charge of the Blood Donors' Committee and, from his report, has had a very successful year. Wor. Bro. R. E. Bryson, as Historian for the District, has quite a task in compiling a history of this District.

It was an honour and a pleasure to be elected as the D.D.G.M. in the year 1967 and to represent the Grand Master at the 75th Anniversary of Nickel Lodge, No. 427. A very enjoyable meeting was held on Thursday, November 2, when the lodge room was filled to capacity for this memorable occasion.

One of the highlights of my term of office was the dedication of the Masonic Temple at Little Current. A large number of brethren, along with many Past and Present Grand Lodge Officers, joined in the celebration of this auspicious occasion. I extend my sincere thanks to M. Wor. Bro. W. L. Wright, Rt. Wor. Bro. Geo. McQueen, V. Wor. Bro. R. J. Connor, V. Wor. Bro. J. C. Guy, and Bro. Rev. Gordon Adams for the parts they took in this impressive ceremony.

On my return from the School of Instruction at North Bay, under M. Wor. Bro. Harry L. Martyn, who so ably conducted the instructions to the D.D.G.M.s on the changes in the ritual, I immediately held meetings with the Masters and Wardens of the 17 lodges in the District. I appreciated the interest and attendance of the brethren at these meetings as it made the task of enlightening them as to the changes in the ritual so much easier.

On my Official Visits to the lodges I was accorded a very warm and fraternal welcome. The District Secretary and I found Masonry to be in excellent condition. The books of the Secretaries and Treasurers were to the satisfaction of Wor. Bro. Gilpin, who appreciated the co-operation of the brethren. A degree was conferred or exemplified at all my Official Visits. I was very happy to see many lodges using Master Masons to assist in the degree work. The brethren had put a lot of effort into learning the work and carried it out in a dignified manner. I particularly enjoyed my visit with the brethren of Sturgeon Falls Lodge when Rt. Wor. Bro. Geo. Coombes, D.D.G.M. of Nipissing East District, made his Official Visit to that lodge on April 11. It had been quite some time since the Districts of Nipissing East and West exchanged visits of the D.D.G.M.s. I hope we can make this an annual occurrence.

Mrs. Noble and I have enjoyed the many Ladies' Nights which we were able to attend. We wish to thank the Worshipful Masters and their ladies for their gracious hospitality.

In conclusion, I am quite sure that Masonry in this District is in excellent condition. One recommendation I would like to make is that serious thought be given to dividing this District. I believe the D.D.G.M.s would then be able to make one official and possibly one or two fraternal visits to the lodges and be of greater assistance to the Masters and officers in carrying on the work. The distance that has to be travelled curtails the visitation of the D.D.G.M. to his Official Visit. Seldom do the lodges in the extreme west end see the D.D.G.M. more than once a year. I believe it would be of great benefit to the Craft in general if this were carried out. I would like to add that the many friendships I have made will be long remembered and I look forward to renewing those friendships in the years to come.

W. J. C. NOBLE, D.D.G.M.

NORTH HURON DISTRICT

During the past year I have visited the twelve lodges in this District officially and, in addition, have made one or more visits to many of them. These meetings were well attended by the Masters and members of the District. On many occasions there were several Grand Lodge Officers, both Past and Present, in attendance. Visits to several of the neighbouring Districts were made and a very warm and cordial reception was accorded me on all occasions.

One of the highlights of my year was the celebration of the Centennial of my own Lodge—Old Light Lodge, No. 184, in Lucknow, and to have the honour and privilege of having our Grand Master present with us on the occasion of our Banquet, when he gave a very inspiring address. We were also honoured at our banquet by having Most Wor. Bro. R. W. Treleaven, Past Grand Master, and Most Wor. Bro. E. G. Dixon, Grand Secretary, as well as many other Masonic dignitaries.

It was my pleasure to appoint Wor. Bro. Wallace Conn as my District Secretary, and Wor. Bro. Rev. Howard W. Strapp as my District Chaplain. I owe much to these brethren for their loyalty and assistance throughout my term of office.

The books and records of all lodges were inspected and found to be in good order. The Secretaries are to be commended for the manner in which they zealously perform their duties.

I attended several Ladies' Nights held in and outside our District—accompanied by my wife, together with Wor. Bro. Jack Fisher, Wor. Master of Old Light Lodge, and his wife. Each visit evinced the high esteem in which the Grand Master and Grand Lodge are held by the brethren and their ladies. I was pleased to be in attendance with the District Deputy Grand Masters of both South Huron and Bruce Districts and was honoured in having these visits returned at some of my Official Visits in North Huron.

A District Divine Service was held in the Lucknow Presbyterian Church on May 19, 1968. We had an exceptionally large attendance and those who attended heard one of the most inspiring addresses by our District Chaplain.

It has been mentioned in our District on several occasions that it has come to the time that our Districts be revised. The boundaries, in the last number of years, for schools, political ridings, etc., have been changed and I believe that the feeling throughout our District is that Districts should come up for revision in the near future.

In conclusion, I would like to thank all the Grand Lodge Officers, Past and Present, for the assistance and guidance given to me during this year; also the Masters whose enthusiasm and co-operation were most helpful and inspiring to me. My term of office as District Deputy Grand Master has been a richly rewarding experience of co-operation and association that I shall reflect upon with much happiness for years to come. It is my hope that in some small way I have been able to contribute to the advancement of Masonry in North Huron District.

ROBERT C. MacKENZIE, D.D.G.M.

ONTARIO DISTRICT

I thank the officers and brethren of the David T. Campbell Lodge, No. 706, and of Ontario District for the honour, privilege and pleasure which has been mine during the past year and to you, Most Worshipful Sir, for making it possible by confirming my election.

It will be most difficult to express in words the delight and gratification that I have derived from being your representative in Ontario District. The high esteem in which you are held was very evident in the District by the concern of the brethren when they were made aware of your illness and their pleasure on learning of your recovery.

The following appointments were made early in the Fall of 1967; Wor. Bro. H. J. Guthrie, District Secretary; Bro. H. M. Douglas, District Chaplain; Very Wor. Bro. R. W. Agg, Chairman of Blood Donors and Wor. Bro. R. E. Sims, Masonic Education, to all of whom I am most grateful for their most loyal and capable support.

The welcome I received throughout the District on my official and fraternal visits was indeed most heartwarming and in true Masonic fashion. The work was, in the main, well exemplified. It is not hard to spot the lodges that have active committees on lodge rehearsals. It was encouraging to find that the Worshipful Masters were making good use of their officers, at the same time keeping Past Masters and other brethren active.

The District Secretary kept me well informed of the activities of each lodge and the condition of books and finance. I am pleased to report that all lodges are in good order. It was necessary to make mention of the fire hazards in one or two lodges. The District Chaplain was given an opportunity to speak to the brethren in most lodges which was done in a reverent and dignified manner. He tells me of the support and encouragement he obtained from the Grand Chaplain. The Chairman of Blood Donors stressed the importance of this humane service and urged everyone to be a blood donor.

In my talks to the brethren, I used the theme of "self-discipline" in many cases as well as items of interest from the Proceedings and other publications sent to me by Rt. Wor. Bros. Bailey and Copus. A series of some forty Masonic lectures was prepared during the year and has been distributed to each lodge in the District. The efforts of Wor. Bro. C. Stafford and Wor. Bro. R. E. Sims are much appreciated. I found myself referring to Most Wor. Bro. Martyn as "The Fountain of all Knowledge" for his instruction and guidance were of immense value.

Early in September I called a meeting of Worshipful Masters and Wardens to explain the changes in the Work and to discuss many items that were considered important. This type of meeting was thought to be of great value and is recommended for adoption by forthcoming D.D.G.M.s.

During my year I was privileged to present a 50-Year Button and Grand Lodge Regalia and a scroll of appreciation from Composite Lodge, No. 30, to Wor. Bro. Fred Gale who was Wor. Master in 1917.

The Past Masters', Masters' and Wardens' Association held a successful dinner meeting. Rt. Wor. Bro. The Hon. Donald M. Fleming was the guest speaker, who left a stirring message in the minds of all. I was pleased to have the Grand Junior Warden, Rt. Wor. Bro. C. D. MacKenzie, accompany me on one of my visits.

A District Divine Service was held in Whitby and was well attended. I was also pleased to attend Lodge Divine Services and some installations.

My wife and I will be ever grateful for the many wonderful Ladies' Nights to which we were invited. Much is gained by these very pleasant occasions. I am sure I speak for the District Officers as well as myself in saying that we are all much richer in heart and mind for the experience of the past year. I am indebted to the good offices of the Grand Secretary for sound judgement and support. It has been my joy and reward to serve our most noble Order. May the Great Architect grant you a complete return to good health, Most Worshipful Sir.

L. HARRY INKPEN, D.D.G.M.

OTTAWA DISTRICT

The privilege of representing the Grand Master, Most Worshipful Brother Donald J. Gunn, in the Ottawa Masonic District is one which I will always be able to look back upon as most rewarding in many respects.

Only one who has had the honour of being chosen by this District and had his appointment confirmed as District Deputy can fully realize, after acting in this capacity, the loyalty and dedication of lodges of the Ottawa District to Grand Lodge and Masonry in general. The work of this office was made much easier and more pleasant by the support and help given to me by the brethren and officers of the District. The co-operation and enthusiasm of Worshipful Masters, together with their well-thought-out planning and preparation, speak well for the continued bright image of Masonry. The work done in each of the twenty-nine lodges was, generally speaking, of a very high calibre and was very well attended by Grand Lodge Officers, Worshipful Masters and other brethren.

I must express my thanks to my District Secretary, Wor. Bro. Blaine Phillips, who has been most faithful and efficient in the performance of his duties and who has assisted me at all our functions. On my Official Visits he inspected the books of each lodge and reported, in every case, that the Secretaries and Treasurers of the various lodges were doing a fine job.

This year I had the very happy privilege of having Bro. Rev. A. Lloyd Shorten act as the Chaplain for the city lodges and Bro. Rev. W. F. Jewell to act as Chaplain for the rural lodges. There were two District Church Services held during the year, as well as many Church Services held by individual lodges. The District Church Service, held in Ottawa, on April 21, conducted by Bro. Rev. Dr. A. Lloyd Shorten, was most inspiring and was very well attended, as was the Service on May 5 held at Forrester's Falls and conducted by Bro. Rev. W. F. Jewell. I am particularly grateful to these brethren who donated so much of their valuable time taken from a very busy schedule and for their support at various functions to the benefit of Masonry in this District.

We have been very fortunate this year in having Wor. Bro. Alf Pell as head of our Blood Donor Committee. He, with his Committee, has done a splendid job in aiding the Red Cross in sponsoring Blood Donor Clinics in different parts of our District and recording, through the chairmen in the lodges, the donations of the brethren and their families. In this connection I might mention that the Red Cross has appointed one of his Committee, Wor. Bro. Cliff Stone, as "Cobden Chairman of the Red Cross Blood Donor Committee."

I am very happy to report that Wor. Bro. Ken Nesbitt agreed to accept the chairmanship of our Masonic Education Committee, succeeding Wor. Bro. Robert Taylor, thus establishing a continuity so that literature distributed and meetings held were not too repetitious. There were four district meetings held, all of which were well attended and had a favourable reception by the brethren.

Although we did not have the privilege of listening to our Grand Master in this District this year, we are looking forward to the possibility that his health will permit him to visit with us in the future. Our Annual Masonic Ball was again held at the Chateau Laurier Hotel and was a complete success under the chairmanship of Wor. Bro. Joe Johnson. A very enjoyable evening was spent in the company of our ladies and friends.

Again this year, twenty-eight Ladies' Nights were held by lodges and, accompanied by my wife, we were received and made most welcome and enjoyed the opportunity of meeting with the Masons and their wives. To all the brethren, on behalf of my wife and myself, I would like to say "thank you" for the manner in which we were received and the enthusiasm which prevailed at all times.

The Past Masters', Masters' and Wardens' Association, under the chairmanship of Wor. Bro. J. Geddes, held three dinner meetings, which were well attended and for which, on two occasions, excellent speakers were obtained. This Association, among other worthy efforts, sponsored a golf tournament on September 15, which was well attended and for which much credit must be given to Wor. Bro. Ken Nesbitt.

Due to many enquiries made to me early in the year, I ascertained through the Past Masters' Association, who in turn inquired of the various lodges, if it were desirable to set up an inquiry into the subject of possible "division of the District." The answer was overwhelmingly in favour of such a committee. I, therefore, proceeded to have each lodge appoint a representative and, from these appointments, I selected Rt. Wor. Bro. John O'Donovan to act as chairman. The report of his fact-finding committee is enclosed and I feel it is my duty to request Grand Lodge to give it due consideration at the earliest possible convenience.

I had, during this year, the pleasure of presenting several Fifty-Year Buttons to some of the real pillars of the Craft who, in many cases, have proved their faithfulness by their attendance and diligence in whatever capacity they have been required to act.

On April 27 a Wardens' Night was held in Temple Lodge, No. 665, and I had the very happy privilege of welcoming the Grand Senior Warden, Rt. Wor. Bro. J. M. Ritchie, and the Grand Junior Warden, Rt. Wor. Bro. C. D. MacKenzie, to the Ottawa District.

One of the outstanding events of the year was the celebration of 100 years of Masonry in the Arnprior area by Madawaska Lodge, No. 196, at which I had the privilege of taking part in the ceremonies and welcoming your representative, Rt. Wor. Bro. C. D. MacKenzie, Grand Junior Warden, who delivered an excellent address that was well received.

In conclusion, I would like to thank all those who have assisted me during my year in office. I hope, very sincerely, that the honour which has been bestowed on me this year as your appointed representative, Most Worshipful Sir, and by my election in this wonderful district of ours has, in some small way, been reflected by a contribution to the advancement of Masonry in the Ottawa District.

ERNEST J. J. JACKSON, D.D.G.M.

PETERBOROUGH DISTRICT

The Past Masters have accepted graciously the challenge to use the new penalties in the obligation and, in the main, have co-operated with the Masters in achieving this change.

The physical conditions of three of the smaller lodges have undergone a face lifting, much of the work being donated labour. This improvement has been matched by a new enthusiasm in three of the smaller lodges with an influx of very young candidates. Statistics would have tempted a D.D.G.M. to have advised that several smaller lodges amalgamate in due time but, with newly improved facilities and a vigorous enthusiasm, it is now possible to credit several of the smaller lodges with a splendid Masonic spirit. Two of the larger lodges could well benefit from a like experience.

My immediate predecessor revived our interlodge visiting scheme motivated by the exchange of a travelling square. The Chairman of the Past Masters', Masters' and Wardens' Association and I have planned a two-year interlodge visitation which has been accepted and is being enthusiastically adhered to, thus bringing interlodge visits between the four city lodges and the surrounding eight lodges in the District.

The Chairman of the District Blood Donors' Committee has visited each lodge and has presented credit cards to blood donors consistent with the suggestion of Rt. W. Bro. G. E. Turner. The Chairman of District Masonic Education has accompanied me on most of my visits and has met and transferred Grand Lodge material provided by R.W. Bro. Bailey to each lodge.

The four Peterborough Lodges have established a new library in the Temple and have extended to the lodges of the District the privileges of the library which will contain, not only newly-purchased books, but also valuable contributions from many of the brethren. The Masonic Education material, which is consistently being sent out through the Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Education, is being deposited in the new library. On my visit to each lodge, it was my privilege to leave a copy of the Booklet — "Why the Confusion in the Temple?" — which I was enabled to purchase through R.W. Bro. Copus.

The near future makes it imperative that one of the lodges must provide itself with an improved lodge hall, but this matter is very much in the hands of the Past Masters of the lodge concerned and, when the lodge can fulfil the conditions of the Grand Lodge Building Committee, I feel sure that the lodge will proceed with the project.

My Secretary, Wor. Bro. G. R. E. Melton, has completed a good examination of the statistical condition of each lodge and has made acceptable comments and recommendations in each case.

L. W. COPP, D.D.G.M.

PRINCE EDWARD DISTRICT

For your consideration I have the honour to submit my Report on the condition of Masonry in Prince Edward District, as I have found it, in the Masonic year, which is rapidly coming to a close. May I express my sincere thanks to all who have made it possible for me to enjoy the honour and happy experience of representing the Most Worshipful the Grand Master in this old Historic District of Prince Edward.

Following my election I had the good fortune to appoint a most competent team of assistants. Wor. Bro. P. E. Kerr has carried out the duties of District Secretary with efficiency and zeal, and the efforts of Wor. Bro. W. B. Humphreys, in the office of District Chaplain, left little to be desired. Both of these dedicated brethren accompanied me on all my Official Visits, with one or two exceptions, and proved themselves excellent travelling companions. Wor. Bro. L. G. Lennox attended to matters pertaining to Masonic Education, and Wor. Bro. F. G. Belsey looked after the important work of District Blood Donors. I will always be grateful to these brethren for their efforts in the cause of Masonry during my term of office.

My first official act, following the appointment of the District Officers, was to call the Masters and Wardens of the District to a meeting, at which time many items of interest were discussed, including the changes in the ritual. At the same time I had the opportunity of making several suggestions to the brethren, such as opening and closing lodge meetings on time, proper procedure in proposing toasts and their responses. This session proved invaluable as, in most cases, the Masters adhered to the ideas suggested, which added greatly to the enjoyment of every meeting, and the brethren were permitted to return to their homes at a reasonable hour.

I visited all seventeen lodges in the District at least once officially. Indeed, I had the pleasure of visiting some of them twice, others three times, and, in all cases, I was greatly impressed with the gracious and friendly reception received, indicating the high regard the Masons of Prince Edward District accord the Most Worshipful the Grand Master and Grand Lodge. These meetings were well attended and the work, which included all three degrees, was conducted in a most commendable fashion. In one or two cases, where no candidates were available, the Masters and the officers opened and closed the lodge in all three degrees, giving, in each, a short recitation of part of the work. I will always appreciate their efforts and will never charge the little discrepancies, which may have occurred, to lack of interest or indifference.

Wor. Bro. P. E. Kerr, District Secretary, reports that the books and records of all the lodges appeared to be well kept, and I am deeply indebted to the Lodge Secretaries for their co-operation in making available for inspection anything which was required by the District Secretary in the course of his duties.

In addition to attending individual Lodge Divine Services, one of the highlights of the year was the District Divine Service, held in Tabernacle United Church, Belleville, on Sunday, May 12th. Attendance was somewhat reduced by the unfavourable weather, but those who attended enjoyed a stirring message from the pulpit, ably delivered by Rt. Wor. Bro. Rev. G. F. Smith, our Grand Chaplain. I will always be thankful to him for his contribution to the success of the event.

The Past Masters', Masters' and Wardens' Association of the District are to be commended for arranging the many inter-lodge visits. These visits gave the officers of the smaller lodges, where candidates are limited, the opportunity of doing the work or of seeing how the other lodge performed. I was greatly impressed with the calibre of the fine young men who most of the lodges are taking into membership. This speaks well for the future of the Craft provided these new Masons are given the right kind of encouragement and leadership while their enthusiasm is still high.

Most of the lodges held Ladies' Nights and Mrs. Oliver and I were honoured to be guests on several of these occasions. A fine spirit of Masonic fellowship was always in evidence and the nature of the entertainment was, at all times, of the highest quality.

In conclusion, may I say that Masonry in Prince Edward District seems to be in good hands. Many of the lodge officers are young and eager and it is my earnest hope that they have gained something from our work together this past year. I have found most of the lodge officers to be conscientious Masons, striving to maintain their office with dignity and skill. The year has been filled with much happiness and disappointments have been kept to a minimum. I will always cherish the friendships formed and will be forever grateful to the brethren of the District for their loyalty and kindness, which has made my year, as D.D.G.M., one to be remembered always. For my successor, I bespeak the same loyalty and co-operation.

W. OLIVER, D.D.G.M.

SARNIA DISTRICT

I am ever grateful to the brethren of my Mother Lodge, Liberty, No. 419, for selecting me as their candidate for this high office, to the brethren of Sarnia District for electing me District Deputy Grand Master and to you, Most Worshipful Sir, for confirming that election.

As one begins the most important year in his Masonic life, as District Deputy Grand Master, it is with a feeling of mixed emotions. The election, when you are selected by the Masons of your District, and the most impressive Ceremony of Installation make a person very humble and, at the same time, very proud to be a member of this great institution. Many thoughts go through the mind. Will I be worthy of the confidence placed in me by the brethren of Sarnia District? Will I be able to uphold the honour and dignity of my predecessors? Will I be able to add anything to the principles of Masonry in my District and to the Craft in general? The importance of the office was deeply impressed on my mind during the few hours spent with M.W. Bro. Harry L. Martyn, Custodian of the Work, on July 25th, following Grand Lodge. One cannot leave a meeting with this outstanding Mason without feeling encouraged and strengthened for the very important task ahead.

My first official duty was to appoint Wor. Bro. George William Gough as my District Secretary. He accompanied me on all my Official and many fraternal visits. His assistance and co-operation were greatly appreciated. He reported that the books and records of all the lodges in Sarnia District had been kept in a very neat and efficient manner. It was also a privilege to appoint Wor. Bro. Kenneth Riggs as District Chairman of Masonic Education. His zeal and enthusiasm for Masonry have contributed much to Masonry in this District. I was also proud to appoint my own Minister, Bro. Rev. George H. Young, as District Chaplain. His spiritual leadership was greatly appreciated. Bro. Harold Marriott was appointed District Blood Donor Chairman and I am proud of the record of Sarnia District in this worthy project.

The first meeting of the year was held in the Petrolia Masonic Temple where the Worshipful Masters and Senior Wardens of the lodges in the District were presented to the new District Deputy Grand Master. It is a yearly practice in our District and is conducted in an informal manner where we can meet personally at the banquet table and plan the work of the year.

I made Official Visits to all 21 lodges in the District and the degree work was performed in a very efficient manner, many using the changes in the wording in the "Work".

There were many highlights of this Masonic Year and the greatest was undoubtedly the Constitution and Consecration of the newest lodge in Sarnia District, Otisippi, No. 719, on Monday, October 30, 1967. It was my duty and privilege to complete arrangements for this important event. I also considered it an honour to be appointed Acting Deputy Grand Master as, in the absence of our Grand Master, Rt. Wor. Bro. Bruce B. Foster, Deputy Grand Master, assumed the duties of Grand Master. This lodge is a welcome addition to Sarnia District and is growing steadily.

I attended many meetings where Fifty Year Lapel Buttons were presented. I also made visits to several of the neighbouring Masonic Districts, St. Thomas, Chatham, London West, Wilson and Windsor. I was, in turn, rewarded by having return visits from the D.D.G.M.s of these Districts.

Mrs. Craig and I had the pleasure of attending many of the Ladies' Nights held by the district lodges. These were most enjoyable and the kind hospitality received on all occasions was most appreciated.

The Past Masters' and Wardens' Association had to cancel two of their scheduled meetings through conflicting dates and bad weather but finally had a meeting on May 30th. This is a very worthwhile organization and has supplied speakers and guidance to lodges in the District.

I attended several of the Lodge Divine Services. The final official function of the year was the District Divine Service held at Paterson Memorial Presbyterian Church in Sarnia on Sunday, June 2nd. The Service was conducted by the District Chaplain, Bro. Rev. George H. Young, and a large number of the District Masons and their families attended. We had the very great privilege and honour of having the Grand Chaplain, Rt. Wor. Bro. Rev. Garbutt F. Smith, B.A., B.D., as our guest speaker. He delivered a very inspiring address which will be long remembered by those present.

Among the many great rewards I received during my term have been the warm personal friendships that have developed between the D.D.G.M.s in Southwestern Ontario. It is our vow that these friendships will not cease with our Masonic year but will continue in the future.

I was privileged to be present with Rt. Wor. Bro. William C. Frank, D.D.G.M. of London West District, when he made his Official Visit to St. John's, 209A, in London, where that great Mason, Rt. Wor. Bro. Fred Kingsmill, was honoured. Another highlight was the annual "Pilgrimage" to Pelee Island Lodge with the D.D.G.M. of Windsor District, where a large number of Masons enjoyed a very delicious fish fry dinner.

I could not conclude this report without expressing my thanks to the Worshipful Masters and Secretaries of the District for their kind assistance in helping me to perform my duties during the year, to our Grand Secretary, Most Wor. Bro. E. G. Dixon, Rt. Wor. Bro. George J. McQueen and Most Wor. Bro. Harry L. Martyn for their assistance and instruction and Rt. Wor. Bro. Roy Cox, P.D.D.G.M., my predecessor, for guidance and advice, especially at the start of the year.

As the year finally comes to an end I have found Masonry in Sarnia District worthy of its high ideals and abounding in good fellowship. It is my earnest prayer that I may be granted health and strength that I may be able to continue to be of service to our great Fraternity in grateful thanks for the many privileges it has bestowed on me. Many have said "You get out of anything only in proportion to what you put into it." It has always been my observation that Masonry repays, many times over, the effort or time we put into it. This is a year I will never forget.

JOHN C. CRAIG, D.D.G.M.

ST. LAWRENCE DISTRICT

As the end of another Masonic term is rapidly approaching, it is with a sense of pleasure and of gratitude that I submit my report of the Masonic activities in St. Lawrence District for this current period. It is with a sense of pleasure because I must be ever mindful of the fellowship, the courtesy and hospitality that have been so generously extended to me as I have traveled about the District. I would hasten to point out that it is also with a sense of gratitude for the privilege and the opportunity I have had to enrich my own experience, to broaden and deepen my personal appreciation and understanding of the concepts of Freemasonry. The co-operation, assistance and sustaining support of the District Officers, whom I appointed, rendered the burden of responsibility more tolerable. Wor. Bro. Harold Blanchard, who acted as District Secretary, was always ready and willing to assist and was regular in attendance at our Official Visits, at which he inspected and reported that the records and affairs of each lodge were adequately and properly looked after by the respective officers of the various lodges.

I shall be ever grateful for the conscientious and dedicated support of Rt. Wor. Bro. F. J. Latham who acted as District Chaplain. His enthusiasm for the Craft has always been an inspiration to me, and I am pleased to report that he devoted himself to the duties of this appointment with the same zeal and competence that have characterized every phase of his long and faithful service.

Wor. Bro. C. I. Thompson of Evergreen Lodge, Lanark, acted as District Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee for another term, and again discharged his responsibilities in a manner that was most encouraging and gratifying. I extend my sincerest thanks to Wor. Bro. Thompson for his kind and loyal support.

It is my belief that Masonic Education is one of the most important and rewarding aspects of our Masonic activity. Wor. Bro. C. A. Bailey of St. Francis Lodge, Smiths Falls, assumed the responsibilities of District Chairman and carried out his duties with dignity and competence. The documents and bulletins that emanated from his own desk, to supplement the Grand Lodge material, were most enthusiastically received throughout the District.

My Mother Lodge, Sussex, No. 5, reached the 150th milestone of its existence, in 1967, and my first official duty, as D.D.G.M., was to accompany a delegation of brethren on a pilgrimage to the graveside of our first Wor. Master, R.W. Bro. Zeba Phillips, on Sunday, July 30. A very appropriate and impressive Remembrance Service was arranged and conducted by our District Chaplain, R.W. Bro. Latham.

I would report that the highlight of my Masonic year was reached on December 18th, the occasion being the Installation Ceremonies in Sussex Lodge on its 150th anniversary, which was attended by the Grand Master, Most Wor. Bro. D. J. Gunn, as well as many Grand Lodge Officers and brethren. I am confident that this was an inspirational event for all of us and was extremely rewarding for me.

I am happy to report that all lodges in this District are conducting their business with competence and discretion. Degree work is carried out with dignity and precision, and, generally, I feel confident that Masonry will be strong, respected and resourceful in this area for as far into the future as any of us can foresee.

We, the brethren of St. Lawrence District, were deeply grieved to hear of the Grand Master's illness. We hope and pray that he may be speedily restored to normal health and enjoy the benefits of the office he so richly deserves.

In conclusion, I would thank all those who assisted me in any respect, the Grand Master, for allowing me the opportunity to serve, my brethren of Sussex Lodge, for making my appointment possible, and also those of my District for providing me with the privilege. Finally, I hope and pray that I may have discharged my duties in a manner somewhat worthy of the trust committed to my hands and that, in some small way, I may have served the Craft in general, and St. Lawrence District in particular.

R. H. WALLACE, D.D.G.M.

ST. THOMAS DISTRICT

As the representative of the Grand Master in St. Thomas District, it is my duty to report on the condition of Masonry in this District. It has been an honour for me, and Cameron Lodge, No. 232, Dutton, to have had the privilege of representing the Grand Master in this District. I would like to express our appreciation to the Masons of St. Thomas District for my election and for the very loyal support that followed. It has been a very interesting year and my sincere hope is that I have been able to contribute something, in return, for the benefits I have received.

I have visited all the Lodges in the District and am pleased to report that all are seriously endeavoring to exemplify the work in the best manner possible. In fact, I think the work in general is of a very high order. There seems to be a regular flow of candidates to most Lodges, more particularly to the city Lodges. However, the smaller Lodges, which may lack Work because of few candidates, pay fraternal visits to other Lodges and confer degrees and so keep proficient in the Work. While attendance at regular meetings is still of much concern, at all special events, including Official Visits, the attendance has been good.

According to the District Secretary's report, the Lodges of St. Thomas District are in a sound financial position. However, in order to maintain this position, a good many of the Lodges have found it necessary to raise their dues.

There are many highlights in a District Deputy's year but certainly one of the highlights of my year was what was termed a Dr. Kennedy Night, held Oct. 11, 1967, in St. Thomas. V. Wor. Bro. Dr. Geo. T. Kennedy was 70 years a Mason in September, 1967. He was 64 years a Past Master of St. Thomas Lodge, No. 44. His Masonic record is unique in that he is now and always has been a very active Mason, attending all lodge meetings, as well as a good many of my Official Visits in the District. The three Lodges of St. Thomas, of which he is a member, were joint hosts for the reception for this distinguished Mason.

A reception for the M.W. Donald J. Gunn, Grand Master, was planned for May 31st but, owing to his illness, it was indefinitely postponed. This was certainly to have been the highlight of the year but, as his health was of the first consideration, we decided that we would wait until a later date for the reception. We sincerely hope that we will be able to receive him sometime during his term of office.

At the time of this report, we are looking forward to our third District Divine Sunrise Service to be held in Pinafore Park, St. Thomas, on June 9. Last year more than 600 Masons attended this Church Parade and Service, at 7:30 a.m., followed by a sit-down breakfast. This year we are expecting an even larger attendance.

I have enjoyed very much the fine fraternal relations with the surrounding Districts. The D.D.G.M.s of these Districts and I have travelled many miles together and the friendships formed will not soon be forgotten.

In conclusion, I would like to say that my duties have been made much easier by the real support of the District officers; Wor. Bro. George Ford, the District Secretary; Wor. Bro. Lloyd Corby, the Chairman of Masonic Education; Wor. Bro. Morley Page, Chairman of the Blood Donors; and Bro. Rev. Alexander Clements, the District Chaplain. These brethren have fulfilled the duties of their office in a commendable manner and I certainly have benefited by my association with them.

The condition of Masonry in St. Thomas District is, in my opinion, very good. Masonry in this District is, I feel, in good hands. I am greatly impressed with the calibre of the officers of the 11 Lodges in this District. I wish for them and my successor the best for the year that is ahead of us.

STUART McWILLIAM, D.D.G.M.

SOUTH HURON DISTRICT

As this Masonic year draws to a close, I am thankful to the brethren of this District who made possible the most interesting year of my Masonic career, and to the Grand Master who confirmed my election. It has been a very rewarding experience with many pleasant memories.

At the meeting of Masters, Past Masters and Wardens, my first duty was the announcement of the changes in the work as adopted by Grand Lodge, July, 1967. This was welcomed and accepted. During my Official Visits to each of the seventeen lodges I included some additional reference concerning the same.

Wor. Bro. K. G. Rupert kindly accepted the appointment, as District Secretary, and I am most grateful to him for the excellent service he rendered to the District during the year. I also wish to commend Bro. George Smith for his services as District Chaplain, including dedication of lodge equipment on two occasions.

Rt. Wor. Bro. Clare Reith again assumed the responsibility of Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee with his customary devotion and experience. As Chairman of Masonic Education, Rt. Wor. Bro. W. J. Neely, generously assisted me with his counsel.

At the regular meeting in October, Tecumseh Lodge, No. 144, honoured the three newly-elected Grand Lodge Officers namely—Rt. Wor. Bro. Rev. Garbutt F. Smith, Rt. Wor. Bro. Duncan S. Copus and myself with a banquet and a presentation for each. This will be long remembered as an outstanding occasion.

On October 31st, Stratford Lodge, No. 332, was host for the District Past Masters' Masonic Education Meeting. The program was provided by members from Kilwinning Lodge, No. 64, London, and was well attended. I must commend the Past Masters' Association for promotion of Masonic Education and also for arranging the interlodge fraternal visits.

The Work, which I witnessed on my Official Visits, was of good to superior quality, and a sincere attempt was made to adopt the recent changes. Good fellowship and warm fraternal relations were evident on each occasion. I included presentations on Masonic Education during each visit, which were well received. Literature from the office of the Grand Secretary was of definite assistance in the preparation of same.

During the year, Fifty Year Buttons were presented to seven senior members of the Craft, and I regret to report that four Past Grand Lodge officers from this District were called to the Grand Lodge Above.

A successful District Ladies' Night was held at the Victoria Inn, Stratford, in March, which was well attended. Mrs. Gilmore and I were also pleased to be present at several Ladies' Night banquets both in this District and in adjacent districts. I appreciate the visits made by the neighbouring District Deputy Grand Masters and I thank them for the opportunity to attend Official Visits in their districts, some of which represent scenes of my boyhood.

The District Divine Service, May 26th, was held in the Ontario Street Baptist Church, Stratford, of which our Grand Chaplain is the pastor; he chose as the subject of his address — "What are you Building?" The choir of Speed Lodge, Guelph, provided the musical portion of the Service which was most impressive. I am pleased to report an excellent attendance including eight members of the Board of General Purposes.

Last but not least, I wish to commend the coaching I received from M. Wor. Bro. H. L. Martyn during the special sessions of instruction. It was most inspiring and I trust that some of it was imparted on each of my official visits.

W. M. GILMORE, D.D.G.M.

TEMISKAMING DISTRICT

It has been an honour and a privilege for me to have served as the representative of the Grand Master in Temiskaming District for the past year. I am most grateful to Aurum Lodge, No. 704, and the brethren of the District for electing me to this high, important office.

The numerous duties were greatly lightened by the following brethren who, so willingly, accepted the responsibility of the many phases of the work: Wor. Bro. H. J. Kleven, District Secretary; Wor. Bro. A. E. Humphries, Chairman of the District Masonic Education; the late Wor. Bro. R. F. Dewar, Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee; Rev. Bro. G. D. Empey, District Chaplain. To these brethren I extend my sincere thanks for their assistance and credit must be given to them for a very successful year.

On each Official Visit to the nine lodges in the District, I was greatly impressed by the work of the Masters and Officers of each lodge in performing their duties with dignity and dispatch. The conferring of the various degrees was done in a most impressive manner, and it was most gratifying to see brethren and Past Masters on so many occasions taking an active part in the degree work. The secretaries are also to be commended for their untiring efforts and interest in the welfare of their lodges, which was indicated by the very well-kept books and records that the District Secretary found on each occasion.

We were all deeply saddened by the death of V. Wor. Bro. W. D. Stroud, Secretary of Doric and Corinthian Lodges of Kirkland Lake, who passed to the Grand Lodge above on February 1, 1968; also Wor. Bro. R. F. Dewar, Past Master of Porcupine Lodge and Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee, who passed to the Grand Lodge above on March 4, 1968. Their courage and devotion to Masonry will always be an inspiration to all of us. We cherish their memories in our hearts.

I am pleased to report that Abitibi Lodge have purchased a building and hope to have it remodelled in the very near future and be able to have a Temple to hold regular meetings and confer degrees as in the past.

Lodges of Instruction were held, in Timmins, on April 13, 1968, and Kirkland Lake on April 27, 1968. The First Degree was exemplified on each occasion, with question and answer periods, under the direction of Wor. Bro. A. E. Humphries. I feel from the attendance at these Lodges of Instruction and the interest shown that Masonry in Temiskaming District is still of a very high degree.

The Blood Donors' Committee of each lodge is active and again it is gratifying to see the great response from the Masonic brethren to this appeal.

District Church Parades were held at Kirkland Lake, Sunday, May 5, 1968, St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, and at South Porcupine, Sunday, May 26, 1968, with Bro. Rev. G. D. Empey conducting the service. On both occasions the brethren attended from the various lodges and all lodges were well represented.

I am pleased to report that the lodges in Temiskaming District are taking steps to offset the rising costs and expenditures incurred, and that they are in a sound financial position. Again, I wish to extend to my brethren of the District my sincere appreciation for their loyal support and co-operation, and for this memorable and rewarding year I say thanks.

In conclusion, I do want to express my sincere appreciation to Most Wor. Bro. E. G. Dixon, Grand Secretary, and Most Wor. Bro. H. L. Martyn, Custodian of the Work, whose patient understanding and kindly assistance greatly enabled me to carry out my duties. I extend my sincere thanks to all Past Grand Lodge Officers, Past Masters, Worshipful Masters, officers and brethren of our District for their confidence, support and many kindnesses.

A. K. GRAHAM, D.D.G.M.

TORONTO DISTRICT "1"

It is particularly significant to have the honour to serve the M. W. the Grand Master in the District from whence he came. To him and to those brethren whose confidence made this a reality, I am deeply grateful.

The enthusiastic and capable support of the brethren who were appointed to the several District responsibilities contributed in a large measure to an upswing in interest in this District. I am particularly indebted to Wor. Bro. Paul J. P. Liscumb who discharged the duties of District Secretary with skill and tact. My thanks go to Wor. Bro. A. Edward Dyer, Chairman, and to Wor. Bro. James P. O'Sullivan, Secretary of the District Education Committee, who gave service far in excess of that which was asked of them.

Bro. Rev. William B. Mitchell was a most fortunate choice as District Chaplain, as my comment on the Annual Divine Service will attest. Wor. Bro. Oscar E. Rice as Chairman of the District Blood Donors' Committee is deserving of real appreciation for his effort in enabling our donations to surpass last year's total. Wor. Bro. V. A. Mountford and the brethren of Ionic Lodge, No. 229, deserve special mention for their contribution of the lion's share of the donations in Toronto District "1".

Lodge finances generally are in good condition. In some cases I made mention of the Grand Master's admonition of 1967. It is heartening to note that several lodges have taken steps towards upward revision of initiation and dues schedules. Interest and, consequently, attendance appear to be on the upward trend. This is markedly so where strong, active and dedicated leadership is exhibited in the East.

The District Education Committee, assisted by the Wardens of the District, maintained the high standard of instruction at two Education Meetings. Capacity attendance at both of these meetings serves only to underline the need to continue such activities under the guidance of similarly skilled and enthusiastic brethren. The meeting of December 28, 1967, was addressed by R.W. Bro. Bruce B. Foster, D.G.M., while the April 3, 1968, meeting was equally rewarded by an address of M.W. Bro. James N. Allan, P.G.M.

On April 28, under the direction of Bro. Rev. William Mitchell, District Chaplain, our Annual Divine Service was attended by an overflow congregation of brethren and their families. The sermon was of particular interest to Freemasons of our day and time. Great was our delight that the Grand Master's health permitted him to exercise his desire to attend. It is our greatest wish that the rigors of his office will in no way delay his complete recovery.

One of the delightful dividends of this office was the kindness of many lodges in extending invitations to attend their Ladies' Nights. Mrs. Smith and I, in the company of the District Secretary and Mrs. Liscumb, enjoyed the hospitality of these evenings on all occasions.

Because of a deep concern for the vitality of the Craft, I addressed myself, on most Official Visits, to an examination of those features which appear to contribute to the recent decline in membership. Time alone, of course, will prove whether or not this approach will bring any fruit but there is a tone of increasing optimism that is most encouraging.

This report would be incomplete without an expression of appreciation for the publications issued by the Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Education. The quantities which were available for distribution were avidly snapped up and it is to be hoped that funds will always be available to continue and broaden this eminently worth-while program.

ROBERT W. SMITH, D.D.G.M.

The best manner in which a man can be a leader of others is to surround himself with knowledgeable and hard-working assistants. At the outset of my term of office, I was fortunate in obtaining the services of Wor. Bro. Fred Harris to fill the office of District Secretary. Those who have preceded me will attest to the importance of having an efficient and dedicated Secretary to bear the brunt of the paper work involved. The manner in which Wor. Bro. Harris carried out his required duties was of personal satisfaction to me and a credit to Toronto District "2."

Bro. Rev. Scott Duncan kindly consented to act as District Chaplain, and V. Wor. Bro. Harry Hunter headed the District Masonic Education Committee. He was ably assisted by Wor. Bro. Chris Mellen who acted as Secretary for this important committee. In order to give the Blood Donors' Committee more prominence, I appointed co-chairmen in the persons of Wor. Bros. J. W. Stacey and Geo. H. Moulton. This enabled us to have additional coverage throughout the District and closer contact with the individual Lodge Chairmen. I pause at this point in order to question the merits of a Masonic Blood Donors' Committee. I feel that the greatest percentage of the brethren who make donations are regular donors whether under the name of Masonry or not. In other words, the percentage of donors from our total membership is so small that it could even become embarrassing to associate the two under the same heading. The alternative is that Grand Lodge should perhaps pursue this important service to a much greater extent by sponsoring blood donor clinics and seeing that all the necessary publicity is accorded such a venture. Even an explanation as to what use is made of the donation figures as supplied by the Districts would be welcome information.

Throughout my travels, this year, it was my pleasure to be received into the nineteen lodges under my jurisdiction. I must express my appreciation of the reception tendered to me and to the District Secretary on these occasions. We were also fortunate, in many instances, in having with us the Grand Junior Warden, Rt. Wor. Bro. Colin MacKenzie. It was most gratifying to observe such a good attendance at these meetings, not only of members but also visitors. It is my opinion that lodges exchange too few visits with one another and the Masters responsible are missing a great opportunity to fill some of the empty seats in their lodge rooms. Masonically speaking, is this not one of the fundamental tenets taught to us in Masonry—fraternization with our brethren? I made it a point, when signing the register on these visits, of checking back through the register to similar nights of five to ten years ago and noted that attendance was usually very nearly the same and, in many instances, it had increased. Generally speaking, in conversation with many of the Masters, I am led to believe that there is a small upswing in attendance, which is a very promising sign.

On my Official Visits, the lodge books and records were readily available to the District Secretary, and I was pleased to find that the individual lodges were sticking strictly to the ritual and, in all cases, were using the new ritual that I had given to the Masters and Wardens when I met with them last September. On the whole, the quality of the work, displayed in these Lodges, was a pleasure to witness, although I believe that the D.D.G.M., while seeing that the ritual as laid down by Grand Lodge is followed as closely as possible, should not dwell at length on the quality of the degree, for I think that this is an internal problem and, if necessary, should be remedied by the Master and/or Past Masters.

One of my main concerns in each lodge that I visited was what steps are being taken, or what steps should be taken, to increase attendance. This seems to be the overlying problem in each lodge. As mentioned previously, I met with the Masters and Wardens at the beginning of my term and, throughout that meeting, I endeavoured to stress the importance of timing during their meetings. The time at which visitors are received, the length of time in receiving them, the time to get the work under way and the time to close the Lodge are all of prime importance. I further tried to emphasize the necessity for proper programming which can prove an additional attraction to the brethren. I am happy to report that, today, most Masters realize these facts and are taking appropriate steps to see that the very best is offered to their brethren. Of particular concern to me were my five visits to Weston Masonic Temple. The building is in need of a few repairs and, most important, the lodge room certainly needs a new coat of paint. I found it very drab and certainly not conducive to the spirit that should permeate a lodge room. I made mention of this fact to each of the lodges that use the facilities in this Temple and, further, pointed out that all the lodge charters are permanently displayed on one wall, whereas I believe that the only charter that should be hanging on the wall is the one of the particular lodge that is holding its meeting on that evening. The remaining ones should be put away, preferably in a fire-proof locker. By coincidence, while writing this report, I received a call from a representative of the Weston Temple Board advising me that, within the next few months, the building is to be renovated and plans are being drawn up to make further improvements.

In the field of Masonic Education, V. Wor. Bro. Harry Hunter assembled around him a committee of twenty Masons. At their formation meeting it was unanimously agreed that, in order to bring Masonic Education to more brethren than have been able to enjoy this subject in the past, they would dispense with Masonic Education in the form of a District Night, in order to bring this education directly to the brethren in their lodge rooms. One of the main advantages was the elimination of District "nights" so that it was not necessary to obtain guest speakers nor sell tickets for a banquet hour. It naturally took considerable more time and effort to direct the programming in this manner but I am pleased to report that the committee was well rewarded in that they reached a total of 1045 brethren. This far exceeded the most optimistic estimates that had been suggested and is due, in no small part, to the manner in which the individual Lodge Chairmen and Masters got behind this experiment.

On April 28th a District Divine Service was held at Armour Heights Presbyterian Church. Bro. Rev. Scott Duncan, the District Chaplain, officiated at this Service. I was exceedingly gratified with the attendance, particularly since practically all of the lodges of our District were well represented.

Before concluding this report, there is one observation that I would like to pass along or even suggest at this time. This is an observation that I have developed over the past few years and during my term of office I was able to discuss it with many Masters and brethren. I firmly believe that lodges and, consequently, the individual membership, are seriously in need of a project, some goal on which they can set their sights and, at the same time, thereby derive a rewarding experience. Several lodges, individually, have such a project but I feel that there should be an overlying one, set up by our Grand Lodge, in which all Masons can participate. Without dwelling at length on this subject, I respectfully submit that a Grand Lodge committee be set up to explore the possibilities of such a project. It is very easy for us to give in a monetary manner but our younger brethren are anxiously awaiting direction from Grand Lodge as to where and how they can best put to use the talents with which they have been endowed. I certainly believe that with the ever-increasing demands on our brethren from outside sources we must give them something from within in order to keep their interest stimulated. In Masonry, activity and interest go hand in hand.

In closing, I would like to record here what a pleasure it has been to serve my District as their District Deputy Grand Master. I trust that I have carried out my duties with adequate wisdom and dignity and have warranted the confidence that the brethren displayed in me upon my election last July.

DAVID LIST, D.D.G.M.

It has been a truly wonderful and happy experience for me to serve as D.D.G.M. in Toronto District "3" for the past year and for this privilege I will be eternally grateful to my brethren of Birch Cliff Lodge for nominating me, to the brethren of the District for electing me, and to our Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Donald J. Gunn, for confirming my election to that high and important office.

Following my election it was my pleasure to appoint W. Bro. Lorne B. Koenig as our District Secretary; Bro. the Reverend H-Wyn Williams as our District Chaplain; W. Bro. John S. Lawson as Chairman of our District Blood Donors' Committee; W. Bro. Lloyd Mellor as Chairman of our District Committee on Masonic Education; and W. Bro. Keith L. Bellamy as Secretary of the latter Committee. To all of these brethren I am indeed indebted for the friendly and efficient manner in which they carried out their respective duties.

The year 1967 was not only an extremely important one for our great Canadian Nation; it was also an extremely important one for Toronto District "3" as, with the granting of a Warrant of Constitution to Confederation Lodge, it became No. 720 on the Register of Grand Lodge and thereby officially increased the total number of lodges in this District from fifteen to sixteen. This new lodge—the Centennial project of the members of its mother lodge, Birch Cliff, No. 612—was Instituted on Monday, November 21, 1966, by my predecessor, R.W. Bro. Alan J. Wedlock, and was Constituted and Consecrated by Grand Lodge, under the direction of our Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Donald J. Gunn, on Monday, September 18, 1967, at Scarborough. This was a colourful, dignified ceremony and delighted the large attendance. Two weeks later I was privileged to serve as the first Installing Master.

Accompanied by W. Bro. Koenig, we attended all Installations and made an Official Visit to all sixteen lodges in the District and I am most grateful for the warm welcome and the courteous reception extended to us on each occasion. I was privileged to witness the conferring of all three degrees. With few exceptions the work of each degree was performed with dignity and dispatch and in a very impressive manner. The District Secretary reported favourably on the records and on the financial position of each lodge. At his request the Secretaries and the Treasurers of the lodges were congratulated for their noteworthy and efficient efforts.

I am saddened to report the loss by death of quite a number of the brethren of our District, among them six Past Grand Lodge Officers whose names are mentioned in the report of the Committee on Fraternal Dead. Their passing we deplore; their memory we revere.

Our District Divine Service was held on Sunday, April 21, 1968, at St. Paul's United Church, Scarborough, and was well attended by the brethren and by a goodly number of Present and Past Grand Lodge Officers, headed by our Grand Master. A thought-provoking and inspirational sermon was delivered by our District Chaplain. After the Service the Scarborough Glee Club entertained with a short musical program, following which light refreshments were served by several of the ladies of the church.

During the year two very interesting District Masonic Education Meetings were held, both of which were well planned and well publicized by the District Committee. As a result the attendance was excellent and both meetings were thoroughly enjoyed by the brethren. At this point I want to emphasize the importance of two things that will help increase interest in "Education" in the District; they are (1) for the District Committee to work closely with the Committees of the individual lodges; and (2) to maintain some continuity of leadership in a District Committee from year to year. As a point of interest the Secretary of the Committee in this District for each of the past three years has moved up to be the Chairman the following year.

Our Blood Donors' Committee was extremely active and I am pleased to say that for the fourth straight year there has been an increase in the number of Donors in this District. The Committee and the donating brethren are to be congratulated for this accomplishment.

On Friday, January 26, 1968, it was my special privilege to present a 50-Year Lapel Button to V.W. Bro. James V. Trebell, a Past Master of Georgina Lodge, No. 343. Bro. Trebell was initiated into Masonry in Georgina Lodge on December 8, 1917, and since then he has been, and still is, a tower of strength to his lodge and to the Order. Masons, such as Bro. Trebell, are justly deserving of our recognition and I was proud to make this presentation on behalf of Grand Lodge.

Mrs. Young and I had the pleasure of attending, as honoured guests, all the Ladies' Nights that were held in the District and we will both be forever grateful for the gracious hospitality extended to us on those occasions. The many good times that we had and the kind friends we made will ever be remembered by us both.

During my term of office it was my particular privilege to represent our Grand Master on many special occasions within the District and also to represent my District on many special occasions, such as Installations, Divine Services, Receptions to Grand Lodge Officers and Anniversary Celebrations, that occurred in other Districts, all of which proved to be not only enjoyable but a source of inspiration to me personally.

It was my pleasure to have V.W. Bro. R. J. Williams, Grand Steward, accompany me on many occasions throughout the year and for his support I am indeed grateful.

To the Worshipful Masters, Wardens, other Officers and the brethren throughout the District, who so faithfully supported me on occasions too numerous to mention, I wish every happiness and prosperity in the future, for they have indeed made my year as D.D.G.M. a happy one and, I trust, a successful one for our District.

No doubt those reading this report will, by now, feel it is a favourable one and it is intended to be insofar as the approximate average of twenty percent of our membership, who attend and support our fraternal functions, is concerned. What worries me, however, is the other eighty percent. The apathy of this segment of our membership should be of immediate concern to all Masons and something must be done soon if our great fraternity is to continue to prosper in this day and age of never-ending changes. Just what can be done, I do not know, but it is my hope that our Grand Lodge will see fit to take action in the not too distant future, perhaps by forming a committee to thoroughly research the situation and then put forth some concrete suggestions to rectify it. In addition, the poor financial condition of some of the Temples in this metro area is of deep concern to me and, here again, some action will have to be taken to remedy this situation.

In concluding my report I wish to express my sincere appreciation to our Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. E. G. Dixon, and to his staff for their kind co-operation and their prompt response to all of my queries and correspondence.

Finally, it is with justifiable pride in the active Masons of Toronto District "3" that I say the condition of Masonry in our District, insofar as they are concerned, is of the highest order.

ARCHIE T. YOUNG, D.D.G.M.

TORONTO DISTRICT "4"

It is a pleasure to present this report on the condition of Masonry in Toronto District "4" for the years 1967-1968. But first I must express my sincere appreciation to the Past Masters, Masters and Wardens who allowed me the honour of serving as District Deputy Grand Master. I would also like to thank the Grand Master for confirming my election and for the warm relationship he has helped foster during the year.

Official Visits were made to each Lodge in the District as well as attendance at as many Installations as were possible. In all cases, I found the ritual performed in a most competent manner. While a contrary opinion was expressed on rare occasion, each Lodge is making an effort to have revisions in the ritual adhered to. A slight increase in attendance was noted and this, I believe, is due to devoted Masters attempting to present a varied and interesting programme. Lodges appear to be in sound financial shape and any that are at all questionable are taking steps to correct the situation.

I cannot speak too highly of Wor. Bro. Charles T. Snider who assisted me in the capacity of District Secretary. He was a pillar of strength and was certainly a credit to the job which was his. The books of every Lodge were inspected and he advises that, in all cases, they are up-to-date, comprehensive and kept in a neat, orderly fashion.

The District Education Committee, under the leadership of Wor. Bro. James Speirs, held a District Meeting on April 18, 1968. Papers presented by the various members of the Committee showed a great deal of research and preparation. While this information is extremely interesting to the advanced student, from comments received I have concluded the average member is looking for a more understandable presentation of the very basics of Masonry. There should be simple explanations of the ritual that will be easy to comprehend and will create an appetite for personal research into the complexities of our teachings.

Our Blood Donor Committee was jointly chaired by Wor. Bro. Herbert Claridge and Wor. Bro. Douglas Bruce and the efforts of these brethren are reflected in the results. An interesting experiment tried this year was a District Blood Donor Clinic held under the auspices of West Hill Lodge, No. 670. It was a highly successful venture and resulted in 114 donations in a little over three hours.

I was extremely proud of the attendance at our Annual Divine Service held in Rogers Memorial Presbyterian Church. The brethren and their families practically filled the Church to hear an inspiring message delivered by our District Chaplain, Bro. the Rev. James M. Milroy, M.A., B.D.

During the year I was privileged to present several 50-Year Lapel Buttons, but possibly the most pleasant duty was the presentation of the William Mercer Wilson Medal to Bro. Thomas Jackson, of Mimosa Lodge, No. 576, for his many years of outstanding service to the Craft. Another highlight of the year was joining with The Imperial Lodge, No. 543, in celebrating their 50th anniversary, when M.W. Bro. James N. Allan was the guest speaker.

Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Snider, Wor. Bro. Charles Snider and I were guests of the Lodges at their Annual Ladies' Nights. The many kindnesses and courtesies extended to us on these and other occasions were something we will long remember and treasure.

One subject that was mentioned time and time again was the old controversy about alcoholic beverages at social functions, primarily Ladies' Nights. From opinions voiced it appears our present attitude does not reflect the opinion of our members. The feeling is, that while a ruling may have been perfectly valid years ago, with the passage of time society has changed considerably. Our members express the thought that what has become socially acceptable should also be considered Masonically acceptable.

In conclusion, I would like to say that the warm reception accorded the Grand Master's representative throughout the District cannot be adequately described by words. If it is indicative of the esteem in which Grand Lodge is held, then there is no need for concern when considering Toronto District "4."

ROSS ROBERTS, D.D.G.M.

TORONTO DISTRICT "5"

Being elected District Deputy Grand Master of Toronto District "5," on July 19, 1967, was a highlight of my Masonic career, long to be remembered. I was very proud to share with R.W. Bro. Robert L. Brown a portion of our wonderful Centennial Year as D.D.G.M. To the members of the District go my most sincere thanks and gratitude for having the faith to elect me to this high office, and to the Grand Master for confirming the election.

After the most wonderful reception hosted by the Lodge of Fellowship, No. 702, and Richmond Lodge, No. 23, the first official function I had the privilege of attending was "Canadian Night" sponsored by Zetland Lodge, No. 326. This event has become an annual success, as was proven by a capacity filled lodge room, as well as the use of the auditorium, at 888 Yonge Street, for the banquet hour.

I was pleased to appoint Wor. Bro. Ralph Scarlett, District Secretary, as he has been a personal friend for over twenty-five years and a very devoted Mason. His work has been of the highest calibre.

The Masonic Education Committee proved very successful under the Chairmanship of Wor. Bro. K. Robbins of Richmond Lodge, No. 23. Two meetings were held, one in Richmond Lodge and the other was hosted by Wilson Lodge. The attendance, on both occasions, was proof of the interest in Masonry in Toronto District No. "5."

The Past Grand Lodge Officers, whom I appointed as an advisory board, have proven once again that they are the reason Masonry is kept at such a high level in the District, and the aid and guidance they are always ready and willing to render to the new District Deputy are of the greatest value. To them I offer my sincerest thanks.

Having visited each Lodge once for the Annual Inspection I found the work to be of the highest calibre; also all records were found to be kept in good order. At the Annual Inspection I found the members of each Lodge to be a little tense, and felt that it was my duty to make the brethren of the District feel at ease. It was with this thought in mind I made an unofficial visit to each Lodge. It was the most rewarding experience. On these occasions any small problems were discussed and a solution was found. Also the implementation of the new wording in the various parts of the ritual was carried out very well.

My wife and I, together with the District Secretary and his wife, attended many Ladies' Nights and Church Services and were shown every courtesy one could expect. All this we enjoyed to the fullest.

The District Divine Service was held at St. Mary's Anglican Church in Richmond Hill, on April 28, 1968, and to all Past and Present Grand Lodge Officers go my thanks for the support given this function. If I may offer a small bit of advice to our successors in the seven Toronto Districts I would suggest a closer relationship in arranging the District Divine Services. It was unfortunate that four District Services were held on the same date.

It is pleasing for me, in this Report, to draw attention to the good judgment shown by Grand Lodge last year in the approval of the appointment of Bro. Wm. McKee as Librarian, and to note the continued good work of the Library under his direction and that of the Rt. Wor. Bro. D. S. Copus, Chairman of the Library Committee of Grand Lodge.

The facilities of the Library are always at the command of the brethren, and with the ever increasing number of books and periodicals available in the Library on Masonic subjects there is no excuse for any Mason to be uninformed.

In conclusion, to all brethren who served on any committee or assisted in any way, I shall be ever grateful. It is my sincerest and earnest prayer that, as District Deputy Grand Master of Toronto District No. "5," in some small way I have contributed something that will be beneficial to Masonry in general. If this is so I have been amply rewarded.

FLOYD WALKER, D.D.G.M.

TORONTO DISTRICT "6"

In submitting my report for the year 1967-1968, I take this opportunity to thank the brethren of Toronto District "6" for electing me as their D.D.G.M. and to M.W. Bro. Gunn for confirming that election.

My first pleasant duty was appointing W. Bro. Alfred J. Child, a Past Master of Rising Sun Lodge, No. 129, as the District Secretary. His knowledge of bookkeeping was such that I cannot find words adequate to express my appreciation. He discharged his duties in an excellent manner and was most efficient in examining all lodge records and in reporting to me the excellent condition in which they are all kept.

It was my pleasure to appoint W. Bro. Aubrey Barker, a Past Master of Bedford Lodge, No. 638, and a charter member of Willowdale Lodge, No. 717, as the Chairman of the Masonic Education Committee for the District. He was assisted by W. Bro. Harold Jack as Secretary and a devoted committee. They spent many hours preparing two, very interesting educational nights which were most informative and were very well attended.

W. Bro. Arthur Kee kindly consented to act as Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee and was assisted by W. Bro. Kenneth Wallace. I am pleased to report that this worthy cause received enthusiastic support from all Lodges throughout the District. Through W. Bro. Kee's endeavours, we were most fortunate to have the Chairman of the Toronto Branch of the Red Cross and his assistants on two occasions to outline the important functions and urgent need for blood donors.

I appointed Bro. the Reverend T. C. Hancock as District Chaplain. He accompanied me on several Official Visits and on Sunday, April 28th, conducted a District Divine Service in the Aurora United Church, assisted by R.W. Bro. Reg. Huxley and myself. This Service was very well attended and I have had many fine comments and suggestions that we should have more Services like this.

The District Secretary accompanied me on all Official Visits and we were most pleased at the enthusiastic, sincere and warm welcome with which we were received into each Lodge. The Secretary reports the financial status of Lodges as being very sound. Masonry is being maintained at a very high level throughout the District and I am very pleased to say that the change in our Work has been progressing much better than I anticipated for the first year. Besides the Official Visits, it was our pleasure to attend most Installations in the District and three in other Districts. We also visited many Lodges in our District three and four times throughout the year on special invitation. It is my belief that, as the direct representative of the M.W. The Grand Master, we should be in close communication with each individual Lodge. I am sure that these unofficial visits are appreciated as well as being enjoyable. It was our pleasure to attend many receptions in other Toronto Districts and the consecration and constitution of Confederation Lodge. Also a most enjoyable evening was spent on the occasion of Metropolitan Lodge, No. 542, celebrating their 50th Anniversary, at which the Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Bro. Bruce Foster, was present.

The Ladies' Nights and other social functions were highly successful and were a credit to our fraternity. I extend our sincere gratitude, on behalf of the District Secretary and our wives, for the many kindnesses shown to us on these happy occasions.

In conclusion, I would like to thank all the present and past Grand Lodge Officers for their assistance and guidance during my year as D.D.G.M. It has been a richly rewarding experience, the memories of which will remain with me throughout my life. It is my sincere hope that, in some way, I have been able to contribute to the advancement of Masonry in this District.

ANDREW ROSE, D.D.G.M.

TORONTO DISTRICT "7"

To the brethren of Toronto Masonic District "7" for electing me District Deputy Grand Master and to the Most Worshipful the Grand Master for confirming my election, I wish to express my sincere and heartfelt thanks for the honour that has been mine to represent Most Wor. Bro. Donald J. Gunn.

The District is indebted to Wor. Bro. Charles S. Gulston, of University Lodge, No. 496, a dedicated Mason, scholar and gentleman, for so effectively and efficiently carrying out the arduous duties of District Secretary. His contributions were many and his constant companionship will long be remembered.

Our District Chaplain, Bro. the Reverend Frank M. Cryderman, of Irvine Lodge, No. 203, organized our District Masonic Church Service, which was held in Timothy Eaton Memorial Church on Sunday, March 24, 1968. Bro. the Rev. Dr. C. Andrew Lawson, of Harcourt Lodge, No. 581, delivered an inspiring sermon entitled, "Moral Confusion," to a congregation exceeding 1200. This record District attendance was most gratifying to all concerned. The Grand Chaplain, R.W. Bro. Garbutt F. Smith, read the first lesson, while I was privileged to read the second lesson in this magnificent church.

Five Lodges in the District also held Masonic Church Services, all well attended, filling the churches and synagogue on almost every occasion. District "7" has amply proven that THE CHURCH AND MASONRY GO HAND-IN-HAND.

On February 29, 1968, our Chairman of Masonic Education, Wor. Bro. James M. McCombe, of Tuscan Lodge, No. 541, assisted by Wor. Bro. Peter de Karwin, of Alpha Lodge, No. 384, organized an outstanding Lodge of Instruction, at which Simcoe Lodge, No. 644, was the host Lodge. Two hundred and fifty-seven Masons, representing all 26 Lodges in the District, experienced a stimulating evening when three former D.D.G.M.s of District "7", R.W. Brothers R. E. A. Lindsey, G. M. Fleming, and C. J. S. Nixon, organized teams to demonstrate the five changes in the E.A. Degree, the four changes in the F.C. Degree and the three changes in the M.M. Degree. A display of a realistic series of pictures depicting life in the Holy Land in Biblical times was a splendid finale. The evening was one that will live long in the memories of all those who were privileged to be present. The impression that this Lodge of Instruction made on the District was noticeable during inspections when almost every Lodge put these new changes into practice.

Our District Chairman, Blood Donors' Service, Wor. Bro. Matthew Campbell, of Blackwood Lodge, No. 311, and his Committee lost no opportunity to emphasize the compelling need for donations of blood. They stressed its importance on every occasion by promoting the theme, "Attend a Clinic of Your Choice at a Time of Your Choosing." While the returns, as of this date, have not been finalized, it is anticipated that over 400 donations will have been received as a result of the work of this energetic committee.

My year has been saddened by the passing of many of our beloved brethren, two of whom passed to the Grand Lodge Above while occupying the chair of K.S.; Wor. Bro. William Rash of Palestine Lodge, No. 559, and Wor. Bro. Angus L. Scully of University Lodge, No. 496. It is regretted that space does not permit the recording of all the names of the brethren who passed away during this year. My deepest sympathies are extended to their wives, children, family and friends.

It is a pleasure to report that the condition of Masonry in Toronto District "7" has, on the whole, attained a very high standard, due in no small part to the continued contributions made towards perfecting the ritualistic Work by the Wor. Masters, Past Masters, Senior Wardens' Association and the officers of the various Lodges. The brethren of this District have a right to be proud of this achievement.

During the inspections one cannot help being impressed by the potential, the enthusiasm and the desire for Masonic knowledge that is prevalent in the brethren of the various Lodges. However, concern is also expressed about the wealth of talent that lies dormant in the District that cannot and will not be utilized, due to the limited number of offices that are available. Each year the new Masons come to us with their high expectations, enthusiasm, vigour and willingness to serve. Unfortunately, we cannot always find outlets for their energies. It is, therefore, incumbent upon us to find more ways and means to put these brethren to work if we are to reverse the present membership trend. To assist in providing additional outlets to utilize some of the potential talent that lies dormant in our District, I would recommend:

1. That the 26 Lodges in this District be divided into 2 separate districts. In this way we would not only be utilizing additional personnel but this would also provide a greater opportunity for the D.D.G.M.s to spend more time in assisting individual Lodges.
2. That, in any division of this District, the present ratio of rural and city Lodges be maintained. To have a District composed of only rural Lodges or of only city Lodges would not be advantageous as these brethren contribute immeasurably to one another masonically.
3. That the formation of new Lodges with smaller memberships be encouraged. This would lead to a more active participation of a greater percentage of the membership.
4. That present Lodges be encouraged to "SPONSOR" new Lodges. It is my feeling that, in a Lodge with a large membership, only a small percentage of its membership potential is utilized.
5. That Junior Officers of the Lodge be encouraged to realize fully the necessity of proper planning and punctuality at all lodge functions so that no time is wasted. Continual late nights will result in a lower attendance at our meetings.
6. That as soon as the new Master Mason has been raised he should be put to work. He should not have to wait 2 or 3 years before he receives his first assignment whether it be ritual or otherwise. To my mind these brethren should be put to work immediately.

To all of the brethren of Toronto District "7", I again thank you for the high honour that you have bestowed upon me and, as my interesting and satisfying term comes to a close, my wife joins me in expressing our appreciation for the kindness and courtesies extended to us in this most memorable year.

G. CHESTER McCLURE, D.D.G.M.

VICTORIA DISTRICT

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I submit this report on the condition of Masonry in Victoria District as the representative of the Most Worshipful the Grand Master.

The acceptance of Wor. Bro. Stanley Kelsey to act as District Secretary lightened my duties considerably. He fulfilled his duties in a most capable manner and was with me on each and every of my fourteen visits throughout the District. Bro. Rev. Kenneth Rooney of Knox Presbyterian Church, Woodville, my District Chaplain, added much to the spiritual needs of the brethren in his many talks throughout the District. I could not have had two more capable brethren than Rt. Wor. Bro. Ken Johnson, P.G.R., as Chairman of Masonic Education, and Rt. Wor. Bro. Charlie Heels, as Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee. Both do much for the good of Masonry not only in Victoria District but throughout Ontario.

Early in my year I had two coming events to which I was looking forward with great anticipation, the visit of the Most Wor. the Grand Master on April 18, to a District Reception and Rt. Wor. Garbutt Smith, Grand Chaplain, on Sunday, April 28th, to a District Church Service. It was a disappointment to me and the District when it was learned of the illness of our Grand Master and that his visit would have to be cancelled but we all have only one wish, that he be restored to complete health and strength.

Our well-attended District Church Service, under the direction of Bro. Rev. Kenneth Rooney with our Grand Chaplain as guest speaker was, in my assessment, the highlight of the year. The message given by R.W. Bro. Rev. Garbutt Smith and the music rendered by the choir were an inspiration to all Masons and their families who attended this Service.

In my visits to the Lodges I was very pleased with the high calibre of the degree work and also with the warmth and friendliness with which my Secretary, Chaplain and I were received. A great deal of credit must go to the Wardens' Association and to Rt. Wor. Bro. Ken Johnson, Chairman of Masonic Education, for having Masonry in such excellent condition in this District.

My wife and I attended as many as possible of both Ladies' Nights and Lodge Church Services and I wish, on her behalf, to thank the District for the hospitality shown to her on these occasions.

I was pleased to be present when Lorne Lodge, No. 375, Omemee, held their first meeting in their new lodge room by permission of the Grand Master. It is a credit to the members of the Lodge to have such a beautiful building, the major part of the work having been done by volunteer labour. We are looking forward to the dedication of this Temple in the fall.

There were several brethren in the District who received their 50 Year Buttons and to them we offer our congratulations. I am sure that Wor. Bro. Stan Kelsey, the District Secretary, was honoured to present his father with his 50 Year Button on the night of Inspection in Harding Lodge, No. 477.

Finally, may I thank Harding Lodge for proposing me as their candidate, Victoria District for electing me and the Grand Master for confirming my election. I hope that I have served the District in a creditable manner and that the principles for which Masonry stands may never waiver. To the brethren of the District I give you this poem as my message to you:—

Build well whatever you do,
Build it strong and straight and true,
Build it high and clean and broad,
Build it for the eye of God.

HUGH IMRIE, D.D.G.M.

WELLINGTON DISTRICT

On behalf of Wellington District, it is my personal pleasure and honour to present this report.

My first official privilege was to share in the dedication of Conestogo Lodge, No. 295, at Drayton. This ceremony was presided over by our Immediate Past Grand Master, Most Wor. Bro. James N. Allan. Assisting him was Most Wor. Bro. E. G. Dixon, Grand Secretary, and numerous Past and Present Grand Lodge Officers. The evening was a complete success in every way.

The District Senior Wardens' Night, held on September 26, 1967, provided an opportunity to present the changes in the ritual. Following a brief explanation, a few Masters questioned the reason given, and then promised to implement the new wording during the ensuing year. I might add, at this time, that without exception, the twenty-two Masters of this District are endeavouring to fulfil this obligation.

My Official Visits commenced on October 10th, 1967, and ended on May 16th, 1968. My reception on each and every occasion was filled with the dignity befitting this office and the deep, sincere warmth of friendship was clearly evident. The personal feeling, experienced at such times, cannot be described.

The degree work, in most cases, is above average and is delivered with that effectiveness which originates from a complete understanding of the message to be conveyed. The efforts of the Past Masters to instill this feeling in their younger brethren has not been in vain.

On several of my visits, it was deemed necessary to refer the brethren to the comments of M.W. Bro. J. N. Allan, as outlined in the Proceedings of Grand Lodge, 1967, and entitled "A Word of Caution." In most instances corrective measures have been taken. It is hoped that all Lodges will pay closer attention to this matter by a yearly review of their financial positions.

Masonic Education continued in a fine manner, which closely followed the program of last year, and was capably directed by Wor. Bro. Wm. R. Smith. We were pleased to have Rt. Wor. Bro. Wm. K. Bailey address our District Spring Meeting on May 23rd.

To the Chairman of the District Blood Donors' Committee, Wor. Bro. Doug Henderson, I extend my personal thanks for an excellent job performed for such a worthy cause.

The District Divine Church Service was held Sunday, April 28, at First United Church, Waterloo. The brethren were received by the District Chaplain, Bro. Rev. R. R. Connor, and were treated to an exceptionally fine address. We are grateful for the assistance which Speed Lodge Choir added to this occasion by their presence. A social hour followed the Service, and was enjoyed by a good representation of the district brethren and their wives.

It was indeed our pleasure and honour to have the Deputy Grand Master, Rt. Wor. Bro. Bruce B. Foster, visit with us on two occasions, the Centennial Dinner of Irvine Lodge, No. 203, Elora, on May 13th, and again, on May 29th, at the spring meeting of the Wor. Masters', Past Masters' and Wardens' Association held at Conestogo Lodge, at Drayton. The splendid and timely topic delivered at each function was thoroughly appreciated by the brethren.

The District Senior Wardens' Night, held in Wyndham Lodge, No. 688, Guelph, on April 29th, was enriched by the presence of our Grand Senior Warden, Rt. Wor. Bro. J. M. Ritchie. We thank him sincerely for being with us.

The two booklets, entitled, "Whither Are We Travelling?" and "Why This Confusion In The Temple?"—received from the Grand Lodge Library—proved invaluable to me on several occasions. My sincere thanks are extended to Rt. Wor. Bro. D. S. Copus for his personal interest and foresight in supplying this thought-provoking material.

It was a pleasure to present Fifty Year Buttons to two worthy recipients and my best wishes are extended for their continued good health in the years ahead.

The visits to neighbouring areas proved educational and we, of Wellington District, deeply appreciate their returning the call.

The sincere co-operation which I received from the District during the year is deeply appreciated. To those who accepted the responsibility of acting as Committee Chairmen, I extend my deep personal thanks for a job well done.

The District Secretary, Wor. Bro. F. J. Pryor, is to be commended for his invaluable assistance. It is due to his loyal and dedicated co-operation that this year has been so successful personally.

My deep thanks go to Waterloo Lodge, No. 539, for their confidence in me, to the brethren of Wellington District for their support, and to you, Most Wor. Sir, for your confirmation of my election and for permitting me to share in such an honour.

D. H. CAUGHILL, D.D.G.M.

WESTERN DISTRICT

It has been an honour and a privilege for me to have been the representative of the Grand Master in Western District. I wish to thank the brethren of Western District for their support in electing me as District Deputy Grand Master and the Most Worshipful the Grand Master for confirming my election.

It was my pleasure to appoint Wor. Bro. A. Warnuk as District Secretary, Rt. Wor. Bro. V. K. Croxford as District Chaplain, both from Ionic Lodge, No. 461, and from Granite Lodge, No. 446, Wor. Bro. C. F. Schubring as District Supervisor of Masonic Education and Wor. Bro. F. R. Taylor as Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee. My sincere thanks go to all these brethren for their assistance during the year.

Accompanied by the District Secretary, each lodge was visited at least once and seven visits were made to various lodges on other occasions. During my visits I was received with warmth and sincerity. Enthusiasm for Masonry was apparent at all visits and attendance was good. Members travelled long distances to attend the lodge meeting, which speaks highly of the interest of the brethren in Masonry.

On each Official Visit I witnessed the conferring of a degree. The work was of a high standard and was well presented, indicating many hours of preparation. The introduction of new wording was incorporated in the work without any difficulty.

The District Secretary reports that the books and records of each lodge are maintained in good condition. The Secretaries and Treasurers are to be commended for their fine work and co-operation. The lodges are in good financial condition. Several of the lodges are in the process of renovating their lodge buildings, particularly the banquet rooms, largely with volunteer labour.

There is a slight increase in membership in the District. Suspensions have been reduced somewhat as lodges are making special efforts to keep the members interested and to hold suspensions to a minimum. In keeping with good financial practice, some of the lodges are increasing their annual dues to keep up with increasing costs.

It is encouraging to note that there are many young officers in all the lodges and the work and administration are becoming more efficient and uniform. This speaks well for the future of Masonry in the District.

One of the highlights of the year was the presentation of the award for meritorious Service—The William Mercer Wilson Medal—to Brother L. O. Browne of Chukuni Lodge, No. 660 on March 16, 1968. The presentation was made by Most Wor. Bro. James N. Allan, Immediate Past Grand Master, at a reception and banquet held in Cochenour, Ontario. Brother L. O. Browne has been the very efficient Secretary of Chukuni Lodge for many years.

Fifty Year Buttons were presented to Wor. Bro. M. McNeill and Wor. Bro. T. O. Sandmoen of Ionic Lodge, No. 461, and to V. Wor. Bro. E. L. Botel of Manitou Lodge, No. 631, to mark their many years of service to Masonry.

All lodges have some Masonic Education, some more extensive than others. More time should be allotted to this important program. Several lodges have a program of interlodge visiting which is an important part of Masonry. Most of the lodges hold Lodge Divine Services during the year. The Annual District Divine Service was held on Sunday, June 2nd, at St. James Anglican Church, Rainy River, with a good attendance from all parts of the District.

I wish to express my thanks and appreciation for the assistance I received from the Grand Lodge Officers, Past District Deputy Grand Masters and the Masters and Wardens of the lodges, who helped to make this a memorable year.

W. B. WARNER, D.D.G.M.

WILSON DISTRICT

It has been a great privilege and pleasure to have had the honour of serving as the representative of our Grand Master in Wilson District. I wish to thank the brethren of Vittoria Lodge, No. 359, for proposing my name, the brethren of the District for electing me, and the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Donald J. Gunn, for confirming my election. This year has been an experience I will always cherish and an education I will never forget.

My District Officers, W. Bro. George Sommers, Secretary, W. Bro. Allan Lloyd, Chaplain, and W. Bro. Norman Card, Director of Masonic Education, were faithful and efficient in the discharge of their duties and were of great assistance to me at all times. V. Wor. Bro. J. L. Griffith acted as Chairman of the Blood Donors for the fifth consecutive year. His sincerity and lively humour keep our minds aware of the constant need of this worthy cause. I feel very grateful to each of them for their support and untiring effort.

The reception accorded to me was most cordial and sincere at all times. The attendance at my Official Visits was good, the average being about the same as that for the previous year. The work was well prepared and, in most cases, was well delivered. There were several very impressive degrees conferred during my visits and I believe the booklets, sent out by the Chairman of the Committee on Masonic Education, have been a great help to many of the brethren. All lodge records and information were readily made available to the District Secretary, who reported them to be well-kept and in good condition in all cases. I witnessed degree work by each lodge, at least once during the year, and was pleased with the acceptance of the ritual. I feel that the Masters, Wardens and other officers of our constituent lodges are all very capable men, who perform their duties with zeal and integrity. I feel that they certainly deserve praise for their devotion to the Craft.

Some of our lodges are experiencing difficulty in obtaining candidates for initiation, while others have enough degree work ahead to keep them busy for some time. I was very favourably impressed by the character and ability shown by our newly-admitted brethren. As long as we can continue to interest this calibre of men in our fraternity it should not cease to prosper.

The District Deputy Grand Masters of several neighbouring Districts exchanged visits with me and I feel this added much colour and interest to those meetings. I feel very appreciative to each of them for their interest in my District and in me.

My officers and I tried to add a brief discourse on some subject concerning Masonic Education or of Masonic interest at most meetings. I had the honour of presenting several Fifty Year Lapel Buttons, at various times, and was most interested in hearing the recipients recount some of their Masonic experiences.

On May 5th, 1968, under the direction of our District Chaplain, we held our District Divine Service at Vittoria Baptist Church. Rt. Wor. Bro. Rev. Garbutt F. Smith, our Grand Chaplain, delivered an inspiring message, which was felt and appreciated by everyone present. Brethren and their families were in attendance from most every part of the District.

My wife and I were invited to many of the Ladies' Night Banquets. Some of these we had to decline because of conflicting dates, but those we were able to attend were very enjoyable occasions. I am sure that these entertainments for the ladies help to create a favourable opinion of our Order.

Wilson is one of the larger districts but I feel very close to every lodge and its members. I would feel very sad indeed if it were ever reduced in size. To serve in this capacity has been a very busy time in which the brethren of Wilson District have shown me every courtesy and consideration. It is my earnest hope that I have been of some small service to them during my term of office.

HARVEY S. HUTCHINSON, D.D.G.M.

WINDSOR DISTRICT

It has been an honour and a privilege for me to have represented the Most Worshipful the Grand Master in the Windsor District for the past year, a year, I am sure, I will never forget. The courtesies, hospitality and co-operation from the Worshipful Masters and their Officers on my visits of inspection were sincerely appreciated.

The District Officers, whom I appointed, served their positions well. Wor. Bro. Ernest G. Jones, the District Secretary, did an excellent job in checking the lodge books on our visits of inspection and in keeping me informed of their condition. Wor. Bro. Gene Heydon was appointed Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee and certainly exceeded all expectations in this endeavour. Bro. Alex Henderson and Bro. Howard Peacy were appointed Chairmen for Masonic Education for the city and rural Lodges respectively. Each Lodge in the District held one night of Masonic Education and their talks were received so well that they were asked back for not only a second talk but sometimes for a third. My heartfelt thanks are extended to these two brethren for the many hours of preparation they must have expended to prepare the necessary presentations.

To my Chaplain, Bro. the Rev. Jack J. Mennell, I extend my gracious thanks for a job well done. Bro. the Rev. Mennell attended with me at nineteen of my twenty visits of inspection and always gave a short talk which was well received by the brethren present.

Early in November Pelee Lodge crossed to the mainland and conferred a Second Degree on a candidate in Central Lodge, Essex. This is the first time Pelee Lodge has conferred a degree on the mainland in forty years. It was a pleasure to have been there to witness the degree conferred perfectly, using the new changes in the Work. We were all sorry that their Wor. Master was unable to be present as he was ill in Leamington hospital. Wor. Bro. Elmer Hall assumed the Master's chair.

I called a meeting of the Masters of the District in August to explain to them the changes in the Work and to discuss the year's programme. I have witnessed degrees in every Lodge, either on my visit of inspection or while visiting them with a degree team from within the District, and I am happy to report that all Lodges are using the new changes in the ritual. My thanks are extended to all the Worshipful Masters concerned for their kind co-operation.

Mrs. Lewis and I, accompanied by Wor. Bro. and Mrs. E. Jones, attended many Ladies' Nights and were royally treated by the Wor. Masters and their Officers. I was quite pleased, in each case, to see many widows of deceased brethren in attendance as their guests.

Rt. Wor. Bro. Geo. E. Turner, Rt. Wor. Bro. D. A. McInnis and I attended Otisippi Lodge in Sarnia for its consecration and it was a very impressive ceremony indeed.

I attended eight meetings in neighbouring Districts, including a reception, in London, for our Grand Senior Warden and, in Ridgetown, for Rt. Wor. Bro. Bruce B. Foster, our Deputy Grand Master. I also attended three meetings out of our jurisdiction in Detroit, Chicago and Las Vegas.

The highlight of the year was the visit to Windsor District of Most Wor. Bro. Donald J. Gunn, our Grand Master. His charming personality and informative address at the Friday evening banquet have been commented upon many times. My thanks to you, Most Wor. Sir, for confirming my appointment and for taking time from your busy life to be with us at that time.

We held our second Annual Masters' Ball in March at the spacious Cleary Auditorium when 762 Masons and their wives honoured our Worshipful Masters of the District.

In conclusion, may I thank God, the Great Architect of the Universe, for giving me good health and protecting me in my travels on land, lake and air, in pursuing my duties in this District, also for the solid support of the Past Masters' and Officers' Association and the Worshipful Master, Past Masters and Officers of my own Lodge without whose support this year would not have been possible.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND LAWS

This Report was presented by M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn, for M.W. Bro. T. H. Simpson, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by M.W. Bro. Martyn, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M., of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The Committee on Constitution and Laws begs leave to report as follows:

PART I

Since no notices of motion have been presented to amend the Constitution this year, there is nothing to report in Part I.

PART II

A request for concurrent jurisdiction was considered from Hornepayne Lodge, No. 636, Hornepayne, and Spruce Falls Lodge, No. 648, Kapuskasing, so far as the Town of Hearst is concerned. Only these two lodges are concerned with this area and since both are agreeable, the Committee recommends that concurrent jurisdiction be granted to Hornepayne Lodge, No. 636, and Spruce Falls Lodge, No. 648, in so far as the Town of Hearst is concerned. The area covered by this recommendation will include the corporate area of the Town of Hearst and the surrounding area such as is served by rural mail delivery from the Post Office of the Town of Hearst.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

HARRY L. MARTYN,
for the Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL RELATIONS

This report was presented by M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by M.W. Bro. Martyn, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The Committee on Fraternal Relations submitted a recommendation in 1965 for the recognition of the Grand Lodge of South Africa. The listing of the name was not correctly given and it should be listed as the Grand Lodge of Southern Africa. So that our records will be correct the Committee now recommends that this 1965 recommendation be amended to read, "Your Committee is happy to recommend that we extend recognition to the Grand Lodge of Southern Africa."

From time to time your Committee has considered the request of the Grand Lodge of China for recognition by our Grand Lodge. In January of 1949 six Chinese lodges that held charters from the Grand Lodge of the Philippines met in Shanghai to discuss the advisability of establishing a Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of China. On March 18, 1949, the Grand Master of the Philippines and his Officers consecrated the Grand Lodge of F. & A. Masons of China in due and Ancient Form. Because of unsettled conditions in China the Grand Lodge moved first to Hong Kong and then in 1954 they moved to Taipei on the island of Taiwan. After a period of darkness five of the seven lodges were reactivated. These five are working to this date with creditable success considering the many problems they have had to face since the Grand Lodge was formed in 1949.

Your Committee are happy to recommend that we extend recognition to the Grand Lodge of China meeting at Taipei, Taiwan.

Communications have been considered from the Grand Lodge of Nicaragua and from the Grand Lodge of Turkey re fraternal recognition by our Grand Lodge. Your Committee is not prepared to make a recommendation in these two cases at this time.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

HARRY L. MARTYN,
Chairman.

PRESENTATION OF GRAND REPRESENTATIVE'S COMMISSION

The Grand Master welcomed M.W. Bro. Paul W. Grossenbach, Honorary Past Grand Master and Grand Secretary Emeritus of Wisconsin, and informed him that he had been very pleased to accept the recommendation of M.W. Bro. Robert V. Osborne, Grand Master of Wisconsin, and had appointed M.W. Bro. Grossenbach as our Grand Representative near the Grand Lodge of Wisconsin. At our Grand Master's request, M.W. Bro. E. G. Dixon, Grand Secretary, formally presented the Commission to his friend of many years, M.W. Bro. Grossenbach, who acknowledged the appointment and the Commission.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENCE

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. E. W. Nancekivell, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Nancekivell, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is my pleasure and privilege to present to you the report of the Grand Lodge Committee on Benevolence for the year 1967-68 at this 113th Annual Communication of Grand Lodge.

In spite of conditions of general prosperity and regardless of increased Governmental assistance and greater generosity of many individual lodges, the need for Grand Lodge Benevolence continues and, in some areas, expands. People are living longer and are, therefore, needing assistance for more years than previously and also, due, it is felt, to the pace at which we live, wage earners are being struck down at an earlier age by disabling conditions such as heart attacks, strokes and severe accidental injuries. The necessity of endeavouring to improve, in any way possible, the lot of our members and their families — financially, in an advisory capacity, helping with educational, housing, legal, medical and other needs — continues unabated. Adam Smith once said "to feel much for others and little for ourselves; to restrain our selfish and exercise our benevolent affections, constitutes the perfection of human nature." — so be it.

The Benevolent Committee met harmoniously at the Grand Lodge Administration Building in Hamilton on Friday and Saturday, June 7th and 8th. With the exception of M. Wor. Bro. J. A. Hearn, who was unavoidably absent through illness, there was 100% attendance, including our Deputy Grand Master, Rt. Wor. Bro. B. B. Foster, who has been a diligent and dedicated member of this Committee for 16 years. We carefully considered 207 applications of which 31 were new cases, a slight decrease in numbers from last year.

Grants paid (212) totalling	$ 50,990.00
Interim Grants (20)	4,200.00
Emergency Grants	498.52
Total	$ 55,688.52
Less cancellations and refunds	$ 1,920.71
Net Grants	$ 53,767.81
Refunds from previous years	3,198.59
Net Total	$ 50,569.22

Interim grants are those made by the Chairman and Supervisor of Benevolence and ratified by the Deputy Grand Master between meetings of the Committee and Emergency grants are those made on the spot by the Supervisor of Benevolence. Both these lists are later brought before the Committee for approval.

In 1965 the end of the Masonic year was changed to April 30th, instead of May 31st. Consequently, the May 15th payment of our benevolent grants each year has been projected into the following year.

It is, therefore, proposed that the issuing of cheques which has heretofore been on May 15th, be brought forward to April 15th in each year to conform with the present Masonic year end. Therefore, there will actually be five (5) cheques sent out in the coming Masonic year to resolve the adjustment.

Taking this into consideration and benevolent trends in general, it is proposed that the sum of $65,000.00 be appropriated for benevolent purposes in 1968-1969.

May I illustrate, with two rather typical cases, the situations handled by this Committee.

Case No. 1 A brother died in February, 1966, leaving his wife and four children (ages 10 to 19). The mother obtained a job as Order Clerk in the Bata Shoe Co. and was able, with careful budgeting, to support her family. The second girl, however, wanted to take a course at the Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology. This was beyond the limitations of family finances and since, unfortunately, the College was not in the recognized group for The Masonic Foundation to consider, the Grand Lodge Benevolent Committee approved a grant to assist in meeting the cost of this education. The young lady topped her class last year, received the prize in the subject of Nutrition and has been accepted on the staff of Picton Collegiate, duties commencing in September.

Case No. 2 A brother — now 43, severed his spinal cord in a swimming accident in July, 1964, resulting in permanent paralysis from the chest down. He is confined to the Riverdale Hospital in Toronto while his wife attempts to support her two young sons by operating a small beauty parlour in her home in Iroquois Falls. Assistance is being provided by Grand Lodge to both husband and wife to provide limited comforts for the former in hospital and to supplement the limited income of the latter. Incidentally, the brethren in both localities are to be commended for the regular personal visits they are making to this unfortunate family, adding the personal contact that can mean so much. These are two of the 207 individual cases considered this year.

I would again, on behalf of the Committee, mention the diligence and great personal interest of our Supervisor of Benevolence, Rt. Wor. Bro. George J. McQueen, who has this year personally contacted about 90 of our recipients and has travelled approximately 2,300 miles in so doing.

May I regretfully point out that, although most applications for benevolence are conscientiously filled out, there are still some applications in which essential detail is conspicuously absent. This delays the processing, frustrates the processors and may, indeed, interfere with the prompt granting of needful assistance. The Committee appreciates the dedication of the many Lodge Secretaries and other Masonic contacts, not only for initiating proper applications but in distributing, usually on a monthly basis, the grants sent out from Grand Lodge.

We gratefully acknowledge the bequest of $500.00 from the Myma A. M. Ross Estate, received through the National Trust Co., and the donation of $200.00 from the Sarnia Past Masters' Association, both to the Memorial Fund.

The Committee, after due consideration, again recommends continuing membership in the International Relief Association. Over the years, this Association has been of considerable help to us in various instances.

The effectiveness of any committee working together in a congenial way, should exceed the sum of the accomplishments of its individual members and so it is with this Committee. We have a singleness of purpose in endeavouring to soothe the afflictions and relieve the necessities of our brethren and their families who are less fortunate. May I, as Chairman, most sincerely thank each individual committee member for his serious and diligent cooperation in the most important work that we endeavour to do in implementing the benevolence of Grand Lodge.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

ERIC W. NANCEKIVELL,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON LODGE BUILDINGS

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. Geo. T. Evans, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Evans, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I beg to present the eleventh Annual Report of the Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings.

In the eleven years this Committee has functioned, we have examined and passed on plans for 155 buildings which were either new, added to or remodelled. This is 35% of the approximately 420 buildings housing over 630 lodges — a very commendable showing.

We urge the remaining 65% to take active steps to improve their lodge premises and thus assist our Grand Master to achieve the objectives set out in the Meeting of the Board of General Purposes in the Fall of 1966.

CONTEMPLATED WORK

Each year in our report to Grand Lodge we recommend that D.D.G.M.'s and officers of our lodges study and be guided by the "Regulations" approved by Grand Lodge in the matter of purchasing property or purchasing or leasing buildings for the purpose of altering same for new lodge quarters.

These regulations are sometimes overlooked or ignored so we are taking the liberty of again stating our requirements and the regulations approved by Grand Lodge in 1967 as listed hereinafter.

For the benefit of incoming District Deputies and the new Masters and Officers of our lodges, we will briefly summarize the purpose of our Committee and the procedure to be followed by lodges in initiating and carrying through a building scheme for new buildings or alterations or additions to existing buildings.

All plans for such work must be submitted, in duplicate, for checking and approval. Bulletins covering all phases of the undertaking from the first steps through the planning and construction have been prepared, also a folder covering fire regulations of the Ontario Fire Marshal. We have diagram plans of three small lodge buildings which are useful to building committees in learning what is required in the planning of a lodge building. Copies of the foregoing may be had on application to the Grand Secretary.

We do not draw plans or elevations of buildings, nor do we provide specifications for building work; such must be provided by the lodge.

REGULATIONS

We recommended that the following regulations covering the requirements of the Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings be approved.

1. No new building should be erected or alterations or additions of any kind be made without the approval of the Committee.
2. No property should be acquired for the purpose of erecting a new building until plan of same has been approved.
3. No building should be purchased for the use of a Masonic Temple until the plans of such building have been submitted to the Committee to enable them to determine if such building can be altered to comply with the regulations.

4. No lodge should enter into an agreement to rent or lease any building or part of a building until plans of such building have been approved.
5. No lodge should have alterations made to any building until plans for such work have been approved.
6. All contact with the Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings shall be made only through the Grand Secretary.
7. This year we recommend that the following additional regulation be hereby approved.

ELECTRICAL INSPECTIONS

Where alterations to an existing lodge building are contemplated or when a lodge purchases or obtains an existing building for the purpose of remodelling same for use as a Masonic Temple, the lodge shall have an inspection made of the electrical system by an Ontario Hydro Inspector and a copy of his report shall be sent to the Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings through the Grand Secretary.

IMPROVEMENT OF BUILDINGS

We have continually stressed the matter of improving our Masonic Temples both as to appearance and comfort and also fire safety.

We have had letters and verbal comments on this matter. One Brother stated that invitations to visit some lodges have been declined on account of the hazardous conditions of the building, particularly unsafe stairs without hand railings, lack of proper enclosures at the bottoms and tops of flights of stairs, and the lack of steel fire escapes. Consequently there are not proper and safe exit facilities in the case of fire or panic.

Also we have known of a so-called Temple, that, when a large attendance was expected, they propped-up the lodge room floor with rows of 2 x 4's. We are glad to report that that lodge has since provided themselves with fine new quarters. We know of Temples with toilet facilities which are woefully inadequate and awkward to reach.

We envisage the day when we can make an examination of the many unsuitable quarters and express the hope that, in due time, Grand Lodge will require that our run-down, unsafe Masonic Temples be inspected with a view to correcting the faults and unsafe, unsatisfactory conditions.

In the meantime, we would again urge, as we have been doing for the past ten years, that D.D.G.M.'s and officers of the lodges take a long, hard look at their accommodations and set a movement on foot to up-grade their lodge quarters.

If lodges would write our Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings, through the Grand Secretary, Most Wor. Bro. E. G. Dixon, we would be glad to offer our advice and assistance in improving the safety and comfort of their Temples.

We congratulate the many lodges on the results of their efforts to improve their Temples and wish them much pleasure and satisfaction in their endeavours.

We solicit inquiries from all lodges contemplating building and assure them of our constant desire to offer them every assistance. Needless to say, there is no charge for such services.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

GEO. T. EVANS,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL DEAD

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. J. J. Talman, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Talman, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Committee is privileged to present the following report. The great extent of this Jurisdiction precluded the members of your Committee from knowing all the brethren whose names we record. Concerning each, however, we can say, unequivocally, that their careers provide clear evidence of their warm enthusiasm for the principles of, and appreciation of the values which are to be derived from, Freemasonry. Not only were they chosen by their brethren to hold the highest office in their respective lodges but, on completing that responsibility, were subsequently chosen to extend their efforts in a wider sphere. No one can measure or gainsay the contribution to our Order of those whom we remember today.

These Tablet Pages

Are inscribed and fraternally dedicated

PRESENTATION OF MEDAL

The Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, M.W. Bro. Thomas A. Booth, after addressing Grand Lodge briefly, presented to M.W. Bro. James N. Allan, Past Grand Master, the HENRY PRICE MEDAL which is awarded by the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts for Distinguished Masonic Service. M.W. Bro. Allan replied gratefully.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PRINTING AND SUPPLIES

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. J. B. Sainsbury, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Sainsbury, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Committee on Printing and Supplies, composed of Rt. Wor. Bros. A. E. Broadley, J. M. Ritchie, W. H. Cheetham, William Oliver, J. G. McDonald, E. J. J. Jackson, D. H. Caughill and the Chairman, begs leave to submit the report on expenditures coming under its jurisdiction for the year ended April 30th, 1968, as follows:

Constitutions for resale	$ 3,734.00
Proceedings and postage	6,066.16
Grand Lodge Bulletins (3 issues and postage)	4,755.42
Printed forms, circulars, records, office stationery and supplies	2,914.76
Syllabus for Masonic Education (one issue)	82.88
Special booklets published by the Masonic Education Committee and postage	321.48
Fraternal Reviews (2,900)	1,600.48
Preliminary Reports (3,500)	1,825.60

The total cost of accounts reviewed in the current year is within a few dollars of the amount reported in 1967. Expenditures in that fiscal period for Booklets, Installation Ceremonies and Past Masters' Certificates came to $2,800. Further orders have not been required in the year just ended and this saving has offset the increase of $1,000 in the cost of the Annual Proceedings and $1,600 for the third issue of the Grand Lodge Bulletin. It was noted in the last report submitted by this Committee that the bill for one issue of the Bulletin had not been received in time for inclusion in the 1967 expenditures, consequently lowering the figure reported in that year. Other changes in this review are of a minor nature but reflect the constantly increasing costs of all items.

This condition is a matter of concern to your Committee. Costs of printing and supplies have averaged just under $20,000 per year in the past decade but it is a foregone conclusion that future expenditures will be well above this figure despite the best efforts of those responsible for placing the necessary orders. Certain changes in the wording of our Ritual, of which you are all aware, required the recent purchase of a new supply of the Work which will add some $5,000 to the amount to be reviewed next year. While this expenditure was necessary your Committee hopes that requests for other changes in content or quantity of supplies and materials will be carefully scrutinized before authorization is given.

The Chairmen of the various Committees are again commended for their assistance in forwarding their annual reports in good time.

Our thanks and appreciation are extended to the Grand Secretary and his staff for the many services so efficiently rendered during the year.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

JOHN B. SAINSBURY,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC EDUCATION

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. W. K. Bailey, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Bailey, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Committee on Masonic Education which was appointed in July, 1967, to lay lines and draw designs for the guidance of the District Masonic Supervisors and Lodge Chairmen is pleased to present its report to the One Hundred and Thirteenth Annual Communication of Grand Lodge.

Our Committee is especially desirous that the attention of our members be drawn to the two rather important publications of Grand Lodge — History of Freemasonry of Canada in the Province of Ontario 1855-1955, and Manual for Masonic Instructors and Students. In the History M. Wor. Bro. W. S. Herrington has presented an enlightening picture of the trials and tribulations in the founding years of our Grand Lodge and as well paid able tribute to each of our successive Grand Masters. Quotations from Grand Masters' Addresses are included. Their messages contain much that is pertinent and relevant for Masons in our day and age. The Manual ought to be a must in the library of every Mason who is interested in exploring the history, traditions, symbolism and philosophy of our Craft. Our leaders in Masonry, especially those charged with Masonic Education, should ever be on the alert to publicize these books through frequent reference to them and to avail themselves of every opportunity to present information from them. R. Wor. Bro. Keefe is to be commended for a very large sale and distribution of the Manual in Georgian District this past year.

The Annual Proceedings of Grand Lodge, as recorded in the Preliminary Proceedings and Fraternal Reviews available at each Grand Lodge Communication or in the complete Proceedings mailed to each Lodge Secretary in November, give a detailed and composite picture of the current condition of Freemasonry in Ontario. It is most unfortunate that so little reference or publicity is given in the Lodges to the Grand Master's Address, reports of the D.D.G.M.'s, Committee reports and the address of the guest speaker at the Grand Master's Banquet. Much time, thought and study have been given in their preparation and delivery. They make excellent reading for those who have attended Grand Lodge and serve to bring Grand Lodge to those brethren who were not privileged to attend.

Authority and responsibilities for the discharge of the obligation to draw attention to the Proceedings rests squarely with the Worshipful Master under regulation 156 of the Book of Constitution. "The Master shall read or cause to be read at one or more regular meetings of his Lodge, such portions of the Proceedings of the last meeting of Grand Lodge as in his opinion will prove most instructive and beneficial to the members of his Lodge."

It is doubtful whether many initiates, or for that matter officers, have ever given more than scant attention to the Charges, the By-laws, the Regulations and the Rulings of Grand Masters as laid down in the Book of Constitution for the well-ruling and governing of Grand Lodge and the constituent Lodges. Careful and repeated study of this important handbook of Grand Lodge should be a must for each Worshipful Master and his officers year in and year out. We feel certain that this would have the unqualified endorsement of the Grand Master and the Grand Secretary. It could be the means of sparing many Masters and Lodge Secretaries considerable embarrassment and grief.

To encourage and to direct the reading and study of the above mentioned publications and in particular to offer able guidance for communication of information to the brethren, our Committee has each year prepared copies of a Syllabus of Instruction. V. Wor. Bro. N. R. Richards, a member of our Committee, has been responsible for the syllabus this year. We are indebted to the Grand Secretary and his office staff for the printing and distribution of three copies to each Lodge—one for the Master, one for the Lodge Chairman and the third for the Lodge files.

Following on the practice of last year the Committee assembled information on Masonic Education in booklet form. Three booklets each of about twenty pages were prepared and sufficient copies were forwarded to each D.D.G.M. to provide each Lodge with a minimum of 2 copies. The following topical material was contained in the booklets.

1. The Preparation and Delivery of the Work.
2. Religion and Freemasonry.
3. The Well-ruling and Governing of a Lodge.
4. Masonic Publications.
5. Some Interesting Masonic Dates.
6. I Know the Way Well.
7. Quatuor Coronati Lodge — The Premier Grand Lodge of Masonic Research.
8. What I can tell my Non-Masonic Friends.
9. Attendance at Lodge.
10. Masonic Education for 1967-8.
11. Why a Grand Lodge.

Our Committee is not so much concerned that the Syllabus of Instruction and the articles in the booklets may not find a universal acceptance in all Lodges as that, frequently, arrangements are not made for interested parties to be made aware of them and to have the opportunity to peruse and digest them. We would hope that receipt of each publication would have announcement in the Lodge and through the Lodge circular.

Frequently brethren charged with Masonic Education programs request educational material and suggestions. We do have a limited number of mimeographed articles. However, we would prefer that brethren search out information from the available Masonic literature. R. Wor. Bro. Harry Inkpen, D.D.G.M. of Ontario District, is to be commended for preparation and distribution to each of the seventeen Lodges in his district of a compilation of two to five minute essays covering over forty topics.

In response to the suggestion from our Committee that there should be close liaison between District and Lodge Committees, R. Wor. Bro. A. T. Young and his Chairman of Toronto District "3" selected the sixteen Lodge Chairmen to assist in planning and conducting the District Education meetings. No doubt this co-operative effort coupled with the wide publicity and acceptance in the local Lodges were the principal contributing factors in the very large attendances and tremendous interest in the two meetings.

R. Wor. Bro. Chester McClure has reported that their district meeting was highlighted with an elaborate audio-visual colour presentation by W. Bro. Peter deKarwin entitled "Our Ancient Brethren" representative of the biblical background of the Craft. For a second year W. Bro. Donald Crookston and his brethren of Kilwinning Lodge, No. 64, of London East District have produced a Masonic skit which has proven most acceptable to the brethren.

The Masonic Supervisor of Frontenac District has ventured the opinion that the established idea of holding a Lodge meeting, maybe conferring a degree, then a disorganized banquet hour, is just not good enough to hold the attention of the brethren.

Our Committee is not unmindful of the many original programs which have been devised to meet the specific needs and interests of a particular district or lodge. Fortunately for Masonry in this day and age, several D.D.G.M.'s, District Supervisors, Worshipful Masters and Lodge Chairmen have dared to be different and to present novel formats to satisfy the natural interest and curiosity of their brethren in Masonry.

It is not to be denied that Masonry is an educational society. Joining a Masonic Lodge and becoming actively engaged is one of the best extension or adult education courses in which any man can engage. Although a relatively few of us may be formally designated and charged with giving leadership and instruction to the brethren who have professed a general desire for Masonic Knowledge, none of us should shirk his responsibility to help the Mason to discover the vital spark, the hidden love of life and the fellowship which we have experienced in Freemasonry.

M. Wor. Bro. H. L. Martyn, Custodian of the Work, and a former chairman of this Committee, continues to support and reinforce our labours through regional instructional meetings with the District Deputy Grand Masters and the District Lodges of Instruction. Our Committee is grateful to members of the Board of General Purposes and to Past Grand Lodge officers for their generous participation in our work. Special appreciation and commendation is extended to R. Wor. Bro. D. S. Copus and the Library Committee for the addition of current Masonic Literature to the Library and for generous assistance to all brethren who have sought information for personal use or for presentation to their brethren.

During the past six years there have been an average of 4000 initiations and affiliations. In the ordinary course of events 630 of these brethren have annually become officers. This means 630 brethren have become actively employed in Masonry each year and will have required instruction. One wonders what we have done for the other 3400 brethren to employ, involve, interest, instruct them. How many of them are members to-day? How many have sought outlets for their talents and interests in other facets in Masonry? Just think for a moment of the newly-raised Master Mason whom you had expected to make a contribution to your Lodge and to Masonry. You could probably name dozens of organizations that are using them because we did not stir ourselves to give them direction or to challenge them to activity.

Recollect, if you will, the challenge and thrill experienced by each initiate and of the avowed intention of the neophyte to deserve well of the Order. Other than the two following ceremonies and some catechism surrounding these degrees we invariably do little to satisfy the natural curiosity to learn more. Although it is not to be expected that all who join our ranks will find an active role in our Fraternity, we, nevertheless, should feel an obligation to each to do all in our power to be a source of Masonic warmth until they can generate some of their own Masonic heat and fervour.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

W. K. BAILEY,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARY COMMITTEE

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. D. S. Copus, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Copus, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is a real privilege to present the 36th Annual Report of your Library Committee. We have endeavoured to make it as factual and concise as possible.

May I, on your behalf, pay an especial tribute to the late R. Wor. Bro. Arthur E. MacGregor, our Librarian for many faithful years? He died just two days after Grand Lodge closed, last year, on July 22nd.

Freemasonry breeds men of diverse qualities. R. Wor. Bro. Arthur MacGregor had the rare quality of an absolute and sincere interest in any visitor to the Library. His mind contained a veritable encyclopaedia of the Masonic knowledge within the covers of nearly six thousand volumes on our shelves. He gratefully shared this knowledge with all inquiring Masons. We are thankful for the many years of loyal service he rendered to his beloved Library and to the Craft.

It was our good fortune to obtain Bro. William J. McKee as our new Librarian. Although inexperienced in this vocation, (as was your Chairman), he has made an invaluable contribution during his first year.

There was some consternation and perhaps a sense of helplessness, in the minds of Bro. McKee and myself, when we first met in the Library early last August. A richness of some five to six thousand books staring at us, their contents largely unknown. We cannot mislead you by stating we know all the contents now, but we can say, we are a bit better acquainted with a goodly number of them.

A few inquiries had left us feeling as frustrated as the librarian, who was called one morning by a lady. She asked to have a bird identified and gave a detailed and lengthy description of it. The librarian consulted book after book but to no avail. He just couldn't find that bird. He had a friend, a well known Ornithologist and he asked the Doctor to speak to this woman. Obliging the Doctor did, asking questions about the bird's shape, size, colour etc. Finally he asked "Where did you see this bird?" "Oh", said the lady brightly, "I saw it in a dream last night, and I just wanted to know if such a bird really existed".

One might add, it was a "bird of a featherbrain".

Your Library Committee is composed of R. Wor. Bro. E. J. Langley, Vice-chairman and the seven District Deputies in Metropolitan Toronto. They have shown an active interest in the affairs of the Library and have made many helpful suggestions. Your Chairman is most appreciative of their continuous interest throughout their year in office.

Our first meeting as a Committee was held in the last week of August when a rather limited report, we are afraid, was given. Several constructive decisions were made however, at this meeting. It was decided a new catalogue should be prepared. This was a most difficult, painstaking and time consuming task for Bro. McKee. Some books had been borrowed and not returned, of others we could find no trace; consequently he had to carefully check against all previous lists. We are pleased to say the new catalogue will go forward to each Lodge Secretary early this Fall.

The members of the Committee realized that, along with the other thirty-two District Deputy Grand Masters, they had the responsibility of giving leadership and inspiration to each of their Lodges. They know that we had a veritable treasure house of Masonic history and knowledge in the Library. "But"—they asked—"did we have any books, possibly non-Masonic, of an inspirational nature, books that would 'guide' them to thoughts or ideas—that would prove the validity of the simple, the true and the decent lessons taught in our ritual." Your Chairman was authorized to procure books of this nature.

Advice was sought from, and your Committee is most grateful to, the following for their suggestions, Most Wor. Bros. Donald J. Gunn, William L. Wright, Harry L. Martyn, and Ewart G. Dixon, Right Wor. Bros. Harry T. Blumsom and Saylor Nixon and Bros. C. Andrew Lawson and Harry M. Denning.

As it was recommended that the books be of a short, pithy nature, easily translated into our basic Masonic principles, the actual purchasing proved a more difficult and lengthy project than anticipated. Some twenty or more books of this nature were added to the Lending Library.

In the Reference Department such fundamental books as Bartlett's Familiar Quotations—Edward's—The New Dictionary of Thoughts and the Oxford Dictionary of Quotations were also purchased.

It should be brought to your attention, that over and above the listed books, we have complete sets, dating back many years, of the Research Transactions of the Quatuor Coronati Lodge and the Leicester Lodge of Research. They contain a wealth of material for the Masonic student and speaker. To illustrate — the 1964 Ars Quatuor Coronatorum gives an account of the Proceedings in the United Grand Lodge of England, plus correspondence preceding and after the changes in their penal clauses. They also publish the Annual Prestonian Lecture. The 1967 Lecture gives a very complete history of the first 100 years of the United Grand Lodge of England, with many incidents recorded prior to 1717. The Leicester Lodge of Research records many factual research papers. After spending an hour or two browsing through these interesting papers, we assure you, you will be a more knowledgeable Mason and a more interested one.

Early in the Fall of 1967, each District Deputy received from us, the booklet, "Whither Are We Travelling?", by Dwight L. Smith, P.G.M. and Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Indiana. Two months later a second booklet by the same author, "Why This Confusion in the Temple?" was mailed to them. The author has the happy faculty of kindly showing us our faults and inspires us to fully reap the harvest of goodness in our fields of Freemasonry.

From the letters received, and the favourable comments heard, we believe this aid from your Library was appreciated by the District Deputies.

This expenditure cannot be justified each year, as we are essentially a Lending and Reference Library. Therefore, each District Deputy has been asked to hand these booklets to their successor. We are sure they will deserve our interest and faith in them, by doing so.

The Librarian has regular hours. However, we wrote to the out-of-town District Deputies that if they were in Toronto at other than the regular hours, Bro. McKee or I would be pleased to meet them at their convenience. We regret to say that only two took advantage of Bro. McKee's thoughtfulness. We take some comfort in the thought that all their speeches had already been prepared, or that they could "take" Toronto only at Grand Lodge time.

We wish to be of the greatest help possible to all interested Masons but in particular to the District Deputies who must give intelligent leadership. To this end, the Library will be open this Thursday afternoon, July 18th, from 1 P.M. to 5 P.M. We trust those newly elected District Deputies from more distant points, who do not expect to be in Toronto before beginning their official duties, will take advantage of this offer. We also renew our willingness to meet with them whenever they are in Toronto, at their convenience.

We are most grateful for the assistance we have received during our neophyte year from Rt. Wor. Bro. William K. Bailey, Chairman of the Committee on Masonic Education. His suggestions have always been of merit and his interested, experienced and kindly aid invaluable. For each of these Committees to be fully effective they must meld together in harmonious co-operation. Such has been the case during our exploratory year and we appreciate greatly his help.

While some forty books have been purchased we acknowledge with gratitude the gift of books from the following donors. 10 copies of "The 250 years History of the United Grand Lodge of England", by R. Wor. Bro. W. M. Gordon; "The Freemasons' Guide and Compendium" by anonymous friends in memory of V.W. Bro. H. Babbitt; 10 copies of "Ars Quatuor Coronatorum" by Bro. G. Brett; two volumes to complete a set of "Goulds Encyclopaedia" by R.W. Bro. J. B. Stevenson; a set of "Mackeys Encyclopaedia" by Wor. Bro. W. W. Judd and "The Library of Freemasonry", 5 vols. by Bro. G. Wonnacott. The United Grand Lodge of England celebrated its 250th Anniversary in 1967. M. Wor. Bro. James N. Allan, presented to the Library a framed picture of the Officers, Members and Guests, assembled in Albert Hall for this historical occasion. This impressive picture will be more than of passing interest to our visitors. We are sincerely grateful to these Brethren for their thoughtfulness.

A number of Lodges have sought advice as to establishing a Library of their own. Our assistance, of necessity, is limited to suggestions of basic books. However, many Masons have valuable Masonic books in their personal libraries. May we suggest that they instruct their Executors to forward these to the Grand Lodge Library? In the event that we have the same books, might not your Committee act as a "clearing house" for those Lodges starting their own libraries?

This report was prepared prior to June 18th, when your Committee met to discuss the past year's activities. We cannot, therefore, enumerate what further programmes these now experienced District Deputies suggested. We can assure you their recommendations will be given to next year's Committee.

Your Committee would be derelict in its duty if we did not express our grateful thanks to R. Wor. Bro. Roy E. Baylis, President of the Masonic Temple Corporation, 888 Yonge Street and his staff, particularly Miss E. M. Abbott and Bro. Douglas Morritt. The Library is kept in immaculate condition and it, along with the workroom, are being redecorated this summer. We have received the fullest co-operation from them.

May I, as your Chairman, express your gratitude to Bro. William J. McKee for the many hours of labour, he has spent in the Library, over and above those required of him?

In conclusion, to quote Augustine Birrell — "Good as it is to inherit a library, it is better to collect one". With this in mind, may we recommend a continuing programme of acquiring new books? Grand Lodge provides ample funds for this purpose.

Your Grand Lodge Library is a magnificent collection of Masonic books and articles, many of them priceless. It is the end result of the interest and devotion of many Masons in the past. But it is of little use, if we let these books just gather dust on our shelves.

Any Library is a bridge to knowledge. A Masonic Library such as yours, is the bridge to a more knowledgeable brotherhood. We urge you to discover more of your Masonic inheritance, by visiting it.

All of which is respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of this Committee.

DUNCAN S. COPUS,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC RELATIONS

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. T. L. Wilson, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Wilson, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Another year has drawn to a close and again we believe that progress has been made in the avenue of public relations. The media of Ontario have been generous, both for local coverage and special events in the various lodges, and of our Grand Lodge Annual and Especial Communications. To the Press, Radio and Television media we tender our thanks.

We would again like to emphasize the need for the local lodges to keep their own press media informed of the events which can properly be called news. Naturally we cannot expect the media to be giving us "puffs" or propaganda, but worthwhile news which will, we are sure, be welcomed by all news editors in all media.

To the Grand Secretary and his staff, we express our thanks for keeping us informed in advance of official visits of the Grand Master and all other special events. This information is passed on to the media, sometimes direct and on other occasions through the co-operation of the Canadian Press, whose services reach nearly all media, not only in this Province of Ontario, but in all the other Provinces of Canada.

In the area of Public Relations, we feel that there is very little that is not for publication in the realms of Masonry and it is, therefore, incumbent on all of us to help make the flame of Masonry just a little brighter as the days go by, certainly brighter than when the torch was handed to us, not only through the avenue of the media, but in our individual avenues of day-to-day contacts with non-Masons. Those of us who realize the great privilege of being a Mason should not shrink, we believe, from being an Ambassador of Good Will in the cause of Masonry.

T. L. WILSON,

REPORT OF THE BLOOD DONORS' COMMITTEE

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. G. E. Turner, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro Turner, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Blood Donors' Committee again considers it a great privilege to submit its report for the Masonic Year 1967 - 1968.

This year, four previous Chairmen were honoured by their districts by being elected District Deputy Grand Master of their respective districts; Rt. W. Bro. Noble of Nipissing West, Rt. W. Bro. Jackson of Ottawa, Rt. W. Bro. Smith of Toronto "1", and Rt. W. Bro. Caughill of Wellington. The Committee congratulates them and hopes that they have had an interesting year. V.W. Bro. Bruce, of Toronto "1", was recognized for his splendid work as a Chairman by being appointed a Grand Steward. He is also to be congratulated. It is so nice to see that the Chairmen are being recognized by the brethren of their respective districts for their devoted work on this Committee.

It is with regret that your Committee announces the death of one of the most loyal and devoted Chairmen in the person of W. Bro. R. F. Dewar of Timmins. We offer our sincere condolences to his family and friends.

Following, is a list of the districts, together with the number of donors compared with last year.

Your Committee wishes to thank the District Deputy Grand Masters for their assistance to this Committee during the past year. Each D.D.G.M. promptly appointed a Chairman and, during their visits to the lodges, they have repeatedly urged the brethren to donate blood and have also presented many Grand Lodge Blood Donor cards to the brethren in recognition of their donations.

For this Masonic Year, the greatest NUMBER of donors was again reported by Nipissing West District under the Chairmanship of Bro. A. H. Wilson. The greatest INCREASE was in Niagara "A" District. Another fine INCREASE was in Ottawa District. The several Chairmen are to be congratulated on their efforts and successes.

Your Committee was thrilled by the efforts of so many of the Chairmen. They have promoted this work in so many various ways. It is very difficult to single out any one Chairman, but we do want to express our sincere thanks to each Chairman and express the hope that they will continue to act next year, if approached by the newly elected District Deputy Grand Master.

Your Committee wishes to note that thirteen of last year's Chairmen again served this year. We wish to thank them sincerely for their loyal and devoted service. Several of these Chairmen have served repeatedly on this Committee. We would like to pay tribute to V.W. Bro. McCutcheon, Eastern District, W. Bro. Babcock, Frontenac District, Rt. W. Bro. Shannon, Georgian District, W. Bro. Pelkie, Nipissing East District, Rt. W. Bro. Krauter, North Huron District, W. Bro. Thompson, Peterborough District, W. Bro. Thompson, St. Lawrence District, Rt. W. Bro. Reith, South Huron District, W. Bro. Claridge, Toronto "4" District, Rt. W. Bro. Heels, Victoria District, V.W. Bro. Griffith, Wilson District, and W. Bro. Haydon, Windsor District. May they all see fit to serve another year; it makes it so much easier for your General Chairman.

Several of the districts organized Masonic Blood Donor Clinics and these proved most successful. I might take the liberty to mention Toronto "4" District which, under the able leadership of W. Bro. D. L. Sutton, of West Hill Lodge, No. 670, sponsored a Masonic Clinic at the West Hill Masonic Temple. This was well attended and W. Bro. Sutton received a well-earned letter of praise from the Canadian Red Cross.

I would be remiss if I did not mention the conniving ways in which some contributions of blood are obtained. It has come to my attention that in a relatively large city in Victoria District there is a Worshipful Master of a lodge who owns a tobacco store and billiard hall. When the day of the clinic comes around, he tells his many clients that they will get a free game if they give blood. At the four clinics held in this city, he not only donated, but was instrumental in about 100 of his patrons doing likewise. It is quite possible that, without his leadership, many would not bother to donate. He is to be congratulated for his efforts on behalf of the Canadian Red Cross.

Your Committee wishes to thank the Grand Secretary and his staff for their support during the year. I wish to thank each Chairman for his efforts and interest in this Committee. The need for blood is increasing each year, due to the advancement in surgery that is taking place. I am sure that each and every Mason will be proud of his part in furthering this work which must go on in greater amount. I quote Winston Churchill who, in 1942, said, "This is not the end, nor even the beginning of the end, but perhaps the end of the beginning."

All of which is respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of this Committee.

GEORGE E. TURNER, M.D.,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CONDITION OF MASONRY

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. W. M. Gordon, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Gordon, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

On behalf of the Committee on the Condition of Masonry, it is a privilege for me as its Chairman to present the Report at this 113th Annual Communication of Grand Lodge. The Committee and its Chairman are not unaware of the honour bestowed on each of us at the last Annual Communication of Grand Lodge when we were appointed to this Committee and became the successors in office to dedicated Masons who had heretofore served on this Committee. One would perhaps be remiss at this moment if one did not recall to memory the outstanding services rendered by members of previous Committees on the Condition of Masonry down through the years under the Chairmanship of such leading members of the Craft as Most Worshipful Brothers Wright, Treleaven and the late Most Wor. Bro. Pitts. To add a personal note, your Chairman deemed it an honour, indeed, to have been appointed to succeed in this office the Rt. Wor. Bro. Bruce B. Foster, whose service to the Order in this capacity has been outstanding over the past several years.

A Report on the Condition of Masonry rendered each year at this Annual Communication is not dissimilar in some respects to the State of the Union address delivered each year to the people of the United States of America by the President, in that it does review the accomplishments of the past year and what might be expected in the future, both economically and socially. To the extent the State of the Union address is political, it differs from this Report. This Report will review as succinctly as possible the facts of our Masonic well-being during the period in review and, like the philosopher of old, will ask for no commendation for what is of merit, but patience and forbearance for any omissions.

Now is the accepted time each year for us in Grand Lodge to take stock of where we stand in the light of the past year's events and to endeavour to probe, as best we can, where we may or ought to be going in the months that lie ahead. In order to assess events, your Committee has before them the Reports of the District Deputy Grand Masters of all the Districts. One cannot peruse and consider the Reports and refrain from paying great tribute to these master workmen in our fraternity. Their work, year after year, in Masonry is worthy of our most sincere commendation and we will always be deeply indebted to them for their long hours of travel and concentration on their work of being the direct representative of the Grand Master in each of the Lodges in their Districts. The District Secretaries must not be forgotten because they, too, are worthy of our greatest respect for their labour at the right-hand of the District Deputy. The work of these two Masons in each District is one of the greatest influences in keeping the condition of Masonry throughout the Grand Jurisdiction in such good condition. The Reports indicate, as you read them, the powerful influence for good of the District Chaplains. The tributes to each District Chaplain are unanimous from each District Deputy. Rt. Wor. Bro. Andy V. Willsie, District Deputy of London East District, reports — "I am sure that every Mason in the District would like to say a special thanks to Bro. Rev. R. T. F. Bain, who was our District Chaplain. He spoke for a few minutes at every meeting, often on the close relationship between our Church and our Lodge. We are all benefited by his talks and counsel." Similar tribute is paid by Rt. Wor. Bro. F. J. Auckland, District Deputy for Hamilton District "A" — "It has been my pleasure through my term of office to have had with me at all my visits of Inspection Rt. Wor. Bro. Rev. Ernest E. Baskier, District Chaplain. His support and assistance has been of great value to me."

From the Reports, your Committee is confident that the various Grand Lodge Committees have been discharging their several duties and responsibilities in a most satisfactory manner. The work of these Committees goes far towards keeping our Order in a healthy condition. Masonic Education is continuing to hold its important part in Lodge and District programmes — "Masonry opens the source of knowledge," and "It widens the sphere of human happiness," and the Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Education is to be commended for its activities in this teaching function of Masonry. This commendation should be extended to each of the Masonic Education Committees in each Lodge and District for their never failing efforts in bringing to the attention of the members the history and philosophy of our fraternity in a most entertaining and engaging manner. We quote from the Report of Rt. Wor. Bro. L. H. Thornton, District Deputy for Niagara District "B" — "The Masonic Education Programme was directed by Wor. Bro. C. M. McNiell, assisted by Sub-Chairmen from three sections of the District. The calibre of the information was high. We must pay tribute to the Grand Lodge Chairman of Masonic Education, Rt. Wor. Bro. W. K. Bailey, for the very excellent publications he provided. The various Chairmen are making excellent use of this material and have expressed hope that this service will be continued." The foregoing is typical of the appreciation shown in the Reports on the work of Education Committees. They are composed of most willing workers.

Many factors come up on the Masonic horizon when dealing with the Condition of Masonry — Finances — the financial condition of the Lodges; and Lodge facilities — in the way of Lodge buildings, furniture and equipment. In this connection it is of interest to quote from the Report of Rt. Wor. Bro. W. James Curtis, District Deputy of Hamilton District "B" — "It is very encouraging to observe a greater awareness on the part of lodges in their financial statements . . . a realistic re-appraisal generally has been long overdue in financial matters, and our future cannot be served better than by striking budgets designed to stay afloat on annual dues alone, unbolstered by a necessity of relying on initiation fees for solvency." This District Deputy goes on to raise another important point to be considered when dealing with the condition of Masonry — namely, "It is my hope to see the formation of more lodges within the District which provide opportunities for actual participation by more of our brethren. The active member is an interested member and it is from the ranks of these that our future District leaders must come." Again, in the Report of Rt. Wor. Bro. F. J. Auckland, District Deputy for Hamilton "A" District, it is pointed out — "I have found that Lodges with smaller memberships have the best average attendance."

Ladies' Nights have come to be, in many sections, important evenings and those of Grand Lodge, who have been privileged to attend, realize what a force for fraternal association these meetings can be. Your Chairman was most impressed with the Ladies' Night banquet of Grey Masonic District on April 6th, 1968, at Markdale under the Chairmanship of Wor. Bro. Fred Arnett. It was a tribute to the interest in Masonry shown by the Masons of Grey District and to Rt. Wor. Bro. Wilfred West, District Deputy for that District, and, as well, to some six Past District Deputies of that District assisting.

All through the Reports, the importance of Past Masters' and Wardens' Associations is stressed. At the annual meeting of the Past Masters' and Wardens' Association in the Eastern District at Cornwall on October 27th, 1967, your Chairman had the privilege of presenting one of the outstanding figures in the Masonic Order — Rt. Wor. Bro. Frank Shaver — with a lapel button in recognition of fifty years as a P.D.D.G.M. The meeting was enthusiastic and a tribute to Masonry in Eastern District.

It was also a delight to see the enthusiasm of the members exhibited in the Past Masters' and Wardens' Association of St. Lawrence District in the Village of Toledo on September 20th, 1967. It was refreshing to see again what an influence for the good of Masonry is the still active participation of such splendid supports of our Order as Rt. Wor. Bro. Fred. J. Latham, now acting as District Chaplain of that District.

We would desire, also, to refer to the Past Masters', Masters' and Wardens' Associations of the two London Districts with Wor. Bro. Jon Hall as Secretary-Treasurer. Rt. Wor. Bro. Andy V. Willsie reports — "There were many outstanding events during the year but I would like to make special mention of the Past Masters', Masters' and Wardens' Association's Annual Fish Supper at Port Stanley where a capacity crowd heard Most Wor. Bro. R. W. Treleven during a very interesting and entertaining address."

The splendid contribution to the general good of the community being carried on by the Blood Donors' Committee under Rt. Wor. Bro. George E. Turner must be noted as a sign of health in the general condition of Masonry. The local Lodge Chairmen and the fraternity in general are to be congratulated. One District Deputy indicated that this service might be strengthened by the establishment of clinics and this may be an indication of things to come. Rt. Wor. Bro. David List, District Deputy for Toronto District "2", states — "I feel that the greatest percentage of the proportion who make donations are regular donors, whether under the name of Masonry or not. In other words, the percentage of donors from our total membership is so small that it could have become embarrassing to associate the two under the same heading. The alternative is that Grand Lodge should perhaps pursue this important service to a much greater extent by sponsoring blood clinics and seeing that all the necessary publicity is accorded such a venture." Your Committee suggests that this is something that would have to be given a good deal of consideration.

Your Committee is happy to find in the Reports a notation of the good work of our new Librarian, Bro. W. J. McKee, who, at the last Annual Communication was named to succeed the late Rt. Wor. Bro. A. E. MacGregor. Rt. Wor. Bro. Floyd Walker, District Deputy for Toronto District "5" remarks — "It is pleasing for me in this Report to draw attention to the good judgment shown by Grand Lodge last year in the approval of the appointment of Bro. W. J. McKee as Librarian and to note the continued good work of the Library under his direction and that of Rt. Wor. Bro. D. S. Copus, Chairman of the Library Committee of Grand Lodge."

In several instances, the Reports indicate that territorial boundaries of Lodges could well be amended and, in some cases, districts divided. In this latter case, it is felt that the time of the District Deputy could be spent to better advantage with fewer Lodges in a District.

The receptions given to the District Deputies as representatives of the Grand Master have been, in all cases, heart-warming for the District Deputy. The receptions to the Grand Master himself have shown, in all cases, the high esteem in which he is held and he has, in every case, maintained the high standards and the dignity of that office. Such an instance was that of the reception, under the auspices of St. Albans Lodge at Mount Forest, when the Grand Master delivered a most impressive address. The memory of the standing tribute paid to the Grand Master on this occasion must remain with him as a pleasant memory of the great affection felt for him by the brethren.

Deputy Grand Master, Rt. Wor. Bruce B. Foster has also been received with great respect. At the dinner in celebration of the 50th anniversary of Metropolitan Lodge in Toronto on May 8th, 1968, the Deputy Grand Master reminded the large assemblage of the many accomplishments of the Order, among them being the maintenance of the Memorial and Semi-Centennial Fund, the provision for the preparation and distribution of Masonic booklets, the Bursaries granted by The Masonic Foundation, the Long Service Buttons, the development of the blood donor service, the Library service and the general improvement in the conduct of meetings.

As we conclude this Report, your Committee is glad to state that from all its sources of information, the condition of Masonry is good throughout the Grand Jurisdiction. One quickly grasps that numbers are not the test of our health in Masonry. Those of you experienced in the building trades, and especially power houses where the foundations must carry a heavy load, must make sure that there is not too much mud in the gravel—make sure the gravel is sharp. There is a lesson for us in this as we report on the condition of Masonry. We must make sure in our Lodges that we are not getting “mud in our gravel”. We quote from the Report of Rt. Wor. Bro. W. Oliver, District Deputy for Prince Edward District, — “I was greatly impressed with the calibre of the fine young men which most of the Lodges are taking into membership. This speaks well for the future of the Craft provided these new Masons are given the right kind of encouragement and leadership while their enthusiasm is still high.” We might be forgiven if we quote in this connection Sir John A. MacDonald, when he said that the most important man on election day is the little man in the booth with the small pencil. Your Committee would want to remind us all that one of the very important people in Masonry is the man just going through the portals of a Lodge with a firm belief in the Supreme Being and a sincere wish to render himself more extensively serviceable to his fellow creatures. Built around candidates of the type mentioned and upon such foundations as the principles and precepts set forth in the Volume of the Sacred Law for a Masonic way of life, your Committee can assure Grand Lodge that the condition of Masonry is in a healthy state, and may add that, being built on such a foundation, Masonry will continue to ‘raise a superstructure, perfect in its parts and honourable to the builder.’

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

W. M. GORDON,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON GRIEVANCES AND APPEALS

This report was presented by R.W. Bro M. C. Hooper, Chairman. On motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Hooper, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Committee on Grievances and Appeals submits its report to the 1968 Communication of Grand Lodge in the following parts:

1. ST. JOHN'S LODGE, No. 35, vs. BRO. EDWARD A. OATES.

This case is referred to in the Proceedings of Grand Lodge for 1966 at p. 182 and for 1967 at p. 218. Briefly Bro. Oates was found guilty of unmasonic conduct under Rule 1(S) and suspended by his Lodge. Your Committee concurred in the action of the Lodge and Grand Lodge directed the accused to appear at the Communication of 1967 to show cause why he should not be expelled.

The accused attended before your Committee last year and made representations both orally and in writing asking that the penalty be limited to indefinite suspension to give him a better opportunity to reestablish himself. On the recommendation of your Committee the matter was adjourned to this Annual Communication and the accused asked to report again, the suspension being continued.

Your Committee has received satisfactory information with respect to Bro. Oates and his reestablishment with his family and in the community, and is not disposed to recommend expulsion but proposes that his indefinite suspension be continued.

2. JERUSALEM LODGE, No. 31, vs. BRO. JACK LEROY REID.

The facts of this case are outlined in the Proceedings of 1967 at p. 220.

Briefly Bro. Reid was convicted of the offences of theft and conversion from the Municipality by which he was employed and sentenced to a term in prison. He was charged with un-masonic conduct and found guilty after trial in Jerusalem Lodge. The Lodge having failed to impose any Masonic penalty, the matter was brought before Grand Lodge and on the recommendation of your Committee Bro. Reid was suspended indefinitely and notified to attend at this Annual Communication to show cause why he should not be expelled.

He has been so notified.

He has appeared before your Committee expressing his desire to reinstate himself in society.

Your Committee has been impressed with certain exceptional circumstances applying to this case but, while it is not prepared to recommend expulsion, the Committee is unwilling to suggest termination of the suspension at this time. It therefore recommends that indefinite suspension be continued in effect but that owing to the exceptional circumstances of the case the matter be reviewed at the next Annual Communication of Grand Lodge.

3. BETHEL LODGE, No. 699, vs. W. BRO. JOSEPH SHAMESS.

A reference to this matter appears in the Proceedings of 1967 at p. 220. It is there stated that a Past Master of Bethel Lodge was reported to have been charged in 1965 with fraud and to have pleaded guilty and to have been placed on probation for two years. It appears that although the offences charged occurred in 1965, the trial and conviction took place in the Sudbury District Judge's Criminal Court on May 1, 1967, at which time the accused pleaded guilty, was given suspended sentence, was placed on probation and ordered to make restitution in the sum of $3733.59.

Shortly after the trial in Court, Bethel Lodge brought the case to the attention of Grand Lodge and asked for advice. After correspondence between the Lodge and the office of the Grand Secretary the Grand Master directed the Lodge to lay a charge of unmasonic conduct against W. Bro. Shamess and to proceed to Trial. The charge was laid by the Junior Warden under Rule 1(p) and after due notice to the accused, trial took place in the Lodge on May 10, 1968. The accused was found guilty and suspended indefinitely.

Your Committee has carefully examined the correspondence and other documents, together with the Trial Proceedings in the Lodge. The Committee agrees with the finding of guilt against the accused and the sentence of indefinite suspension imposed by the Lodge. However, in view of the seriousness of the offence, your Committee recommends that W. Bro. Shamess be notified to attend at the next Annual Communication of this Grand Lodge to show cause why he should not be expelled and that in the meantime he stand suspended.

4. PORT ARTHUR LODGE, No. 499, vs. BRO. SAM MILLAR.

This case has been previously referred to in the Proceedings of 1967 at p. 221.

It was recommended that previous action of the Lodge be set aside because of uncertainty in the charge and evidence adduced and that a Commission be appointed by the Grand Master to dispose of the case. This recommendation was approved by Grand Lodge.

The Grand Master appointed a Commission under the Chairmanship of M.W. Bro. Treleaven and the hearing took place in Port Arthur on December 12, 1967. The evidence before the Commission proved that the accused had been convicted before the Judge of the Juvenile and Family Court of Thunder Bay of deserting his wife and family and failing to provide maintenance. It was also shown and admitted that the accused after leaving his wife had taken up residence in the immediate neighbourhood with another woman.

The Commission found that the accused had been guilty of unmasonic conduct under Rule 1(T) "Cruelty to wife" and suspended the accused and recommended to Grand Lodge that he should be expelled.

Your Committee has carefully considered the most complete report of the proceedings of the trial before the Commission. The Committee concurs in the finding of guilt and the sentence and recommendation of the Commission. It accordingly recommends that Bro. Millar be notified to attend at the next Annual Communication of this Grand Lodge to show cause why he should not be expelled.

5. LORNE LODGE, No. 622, vs. BRO. CHARLES DAVID STUART.

It was brought to the attention of members of Lorne Lodge that Bro. Charles David Stuart had been convicted in a Toronto Court in May, 1962, on two charges of fraud and sentenced to six years on each charge. Later, on a further charge of fraud, he was convicted and sentenced to two years' imprisonment, the sentence running consecutively to the previous ones.

A charge was laid in Lorne Lodge based on the above facts as given to the Sheriff of Algoma by the Warden of Collins Bay Penitentiary.

Trial was held in Lorne Lodge on December 7, 1967, after notice to the accused. The accused was found guilty of unmasonic conduct and suspended indefinitely. Your Committee has read the somewhat scanty material supplied by the Lodge and concurs in the finding of guilt and the sentence of indefinite suspension imposed by the Lodge. The Committee recognizes the difficulty apparently encountered by Lorne Lodge in learning of the misdeeds of a member which presumably occurred and were dealt with by the Courts at a distance of some hundreds of miles from his mother Lodge. We recommend that Bro. Stuart be notified to appear at the next Annual Communication of Grand Lodge to show cause why he should not be expelled and in the meantime he stands suspended.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

M. CLEEVE HOOPER,
Chairman.

GRAND CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. G. F. Smith, Grand Chaplain, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Smith, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

My first word is one of grateful thanks to Almighty God for the health, strength, wisdom and patience He has afforded me in the responsible office in which my brethren placed me as Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario. I would like to place on record my sincere appreciation to my brethren for this high honour they have conferred upon me, it has been an enriching experience which no words can adequately describe.

It was a joy to communicate with the thirty-nine District Deputy Grand Masters and their appointed District Chaplains. To hear and learn from them the highlights of their work and witness is to realize that our Masonic movement is very much alive. It was impossible to accept all the invitations which came to me to share in the District Divine Services but I was privileged to have a part in nine of these as well as four Divine Services of local lodges. It was my privilege to attend six receptions for either our Grand Master or Deputy Grand Master, as well as for the Grand Senior Warden; to speak at two Past Masters' and Wardens' Nights as well as three Ladies' Night affairs. I managed visits to seventeen local lodges with much profit and pleasure. A word of commendation is due to all our District Chaplains who gave moral, spiritual and physical support by their presence with the District Deputy Grand Masters on their official visits.

The Ceremonies of Constitution and Consecration are most impressive ones and I was privileged to have a share in two such Ceremonies this past year, as well as sharing in the dedication of two new lodge halls. It was a special honour to share in the recognition of three Lodges which celebrated fittingly the recognition of one hundred years of work and witness in and to the communities where they are situated.

We were all saddened by the stroke of ill health which befell our Grand Master, but express our thanksgiving to the Great Architect of the Universe that he has been raised up to a measure of health and strength which we trust will be his portion long to enjoy in the fellowship of the fraternity to which he has given unstintingly of his time and talents.

Several requests have come for a Masonic Church Calendar. It would be helpful if such an official publication with the Grand Lodge Officers and crest on the outside, and a declaration of some of our principles was available and the local Lodges or Districts would print the order of their service on the inside.

The Motto of our Grand Lodge, "Audi, Vide, Tace," when translated reads, "Hear, See, Be silent." The attentive ear, the observant eye and the silent tongue have been called three precious jewels of Masonry, as through the ear and the eye the members of our Order receive the valuable instruction imparted constantly to all who will hear and see, while the silent tongue retains its secret within the ranks.

Happy and fortunate are the lodges whose members are eager to accumulate knowledge and who have among them those who are capable and willing to impart it. In these, true progress in Masonry is recorded and its lasting benefits are secured. Comradeship built on common interest, united effort and collective strength; character which grows stronger and increasingly radiant as the knowledge thus gathered is shared; service, silent, without ostentation and guided by the principles here inculcated which extends far beyond our walls. Thus is fulfilled the spirit of our motto "Hear, See, Be Silent."

To all who have enriched my life by their presence and through their fellowship and have made more meaningful to me the brotherhood to which we belong I extend my heart-felt thanks. I am more convinced than ever that, by the convictions which we hold and the principles we profess, we can be a tremendous force in this divided world to help build bridges of understanding and reconciliation for a world in which all men are brothers.

May the Great Architect of the Universe guide, guard and bless us in all our labours as together we seek to advance the cause and status of Masonry in this our Grand jurisdiction.

Most sincerely and fraternally yours,

GARBUTT F. SMITH,
Grand Chaplain.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON AUDIT AND FINANCE

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. R. C. Berkinshaw, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Berkinshaw, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

This Committee has considered in detail and reviewed the Reports of the Grand Secretary, the Grand Treasurer and the Auditor's Report attached thereto, as referred to it by this Annual Communication. These appear to fully and accurately record all details relative and pertaining to —

(a) the financial position of this Grand Lodge as of April 30, 1968 and the results of its financial operations on a cash basis for the twelve-month period ending on that date;

(b) details of all Receipts and Disbursements in respect to the General Fund, the Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds; also all transactions and changes in the Capital Accounts of Grand Lodge, which have occurred during the said period;

(c) schedules of the securities in which Grand Lodge assets were invested as of the above mentioned date.

The following observations, conclusions and recommendations on certain subject matters covered by these reports and/or relative to its financial affairs are now presented for your consideration:

1. The audited statements of Grand Lodge accounts show that the net balance of all its resources now amounts to $1,596,515.10. This net balance includes total investments at par value (not market value), plus Cash on Hand and in the Bank and represents an increase in assets of $46,352.03 over those recorded a year ago. As mentioned in the Grand Treasurer's Report, the total resources of Grand Lodge now exceed for the first time, the maximum attained in the year 1964, after providing for the transfer to The Masonic Foundation of Ontario of $160,357.29 then held in the General Fund and available for benevolent purposes only.

2. In accordance with traditional policy, all securities in which Grand Lodge assets are presently invested are in the category of Trustee investments, with the exception of $225,000.00 Series "A" and $40,000.00 Series "B", 5% debentures of Masonic Holdings, payable on demand after June 1, 1978, which were acquired under specific authority of this Grand Lodge. $15,000.00 of the Series "A" debentures were redeemed during the past fiscal year and the present holdings reflect an accumulated redemption of $127,000.00 since they were originally issued in 1959 to meet the cost of financing the Grand Lodge Memorial Administration Building in Hamilton. All of these securities, with few exceptions, are fully registered and presently held in the custody of the Canada Permanent Trust Company, as verified by certificate attached to the Auditor's Report.

3. Total Receipts under the General Fund for fees, dues, commutations, interest on investments, etc., and refunds, amounted to $218,869.01 — approximately equal to those of the previous year. On the other hand, Disbursements for the same period decreased from $193,596.77 to $180,981.76, resulting in an excess of Receipts over Disbursements of $37,887.25. A strict control of all expenditures has been maintained to keep them well within the budget total as approved by Grand Lodge at its Annual Communication in 1967.

4. Grants for benevolent purposes, less grants refunded, refunds and grants cancelled for the previous year, amounted to a net of $50,569.22, i.e., approximately $9,400.00 less than the estimate submitted by the Committee on Benevolence a year ago. In accordance with present practice, these grants were paid out of the income of the Combined Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds, as supplemented by transfers from the General Fund in the total amount of $30,000.00.

A year ago, the Committee on Benevolence reported no marked increase in the number of cases of need or distress of Masons in this jurisdiction and their dependents. Nevertheless, this Committee advised Grand Lodge that a continued inflationary trend in the Canadian economy made it necessary to increase the amount of grants in a number of instances, although social benefits presently available from Federal and Provincial Government sources continue to render financial assistance in cases which would otherwise be a charge on this Grand Lodge. Under these conditions and to resolve the adjustment in dates of payment as detailed in its Report, the Committee on Benevolence estimates that its requirements for Benevolent Grants for the current year will amount to $65,000.00.

Accordingly, your Committee on Audit and Finance recommends that to cover this estimate, the Board of General Purposes do now authorize by formal resolution, under Section 119 of the Constitution (as amended), appropriations from the General Fund up to an amount of $37,500.00, the same to be transferred in due course, as and when required, to the Combined Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds in order to supplement the interest and income therefrom (estimated at $27,500.00 for the year ending April 30, 1969) and adequately provide for such grants as may be extended under Grand Lodge authority for the period May 1, 1968 — April 30, 1969, inclusive.

5. This Committee is pleased to note —

- a) the receipt of a bequest of $500.00 from the Myma A. M. Ross Estate and other donations amounting to $200.00. These gifts have been placed to the credit of the Capital Account of the Memorial Fund;
- b) that Grand Lodge has now transferred to The Masonic Foundation of Ontario the sum of $10,000.00, being the balance remaining in the General Fund available for benevolent purposes only.

Your Committee also recommends approval of the nine special donations totalling $4,200.00 made during the past year under the authority of the Grand Master and as itemized in the financial statements.

6. This Committee has reviewed the particulars of the insurance coverage presently in effect as evidenced by policies in the possession of the Grand Secretary. These indicate an increase in the fire insurance coverage on the valuable contents of the Library located in the Masonic Temple at 888 Yonge St., Toronto; also on the furniture, equipment, regalia, etc., belonging to Grand Lodge. Individual Fidelity Bonds on certain named Grand Lodge officers have been replaced by a Blanket Position Bond covering the Grand Secretary, Assistant to the Grand Secretary, the Chief Clerk, the Grand Treasurer and the Assistant to the Grand Treasurer. Your Committee is pleased to report a continued favourable experience in respect to the Contingent Liability coverage and that all insurable Grand Lodge property now appears to be adequately covered against loss by fire and other hazards.

7. Although the subject is outside the scope of its direct responsibilities, this Committee especially commends to the Masters and Officers of our 633 warranted Lodges the strong plea of the Grand Secretary for a vigorous, concerted campaign during the current year to reverse the present loss trend and to recover the controllable losses in membership which have occurred in the period of the past seven years.

In its review of all matters covered by this report, your Committee has received the fullest co-operation and assistance from the Grand Secretary, the Grand Treasurer, their respective assistants and the Auditor, Bro. A. William Parish, F.C.A., of Hamilton, Ontario, and now formally recommends to this Grand Lodge the adoption, without amendment, of the reports of the above mentioned officers; also approval of the recommendations contained in this Committee's report.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

FOREWORD

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The Report of the Committee on Fraternal Correspondence is really a summary and analysis of the important and interesting events which have taken place in those Grand Lodges of other Jurisdictions, with which our Grand Lodge is in friendly, fraternal relations. The information is gleaned from the published Proceedings of such Grand Lodges. The task of reading these Proceedings and of analyzing and summarizing the same is a lengthy and arduous one, and once more we are greatly indebted to R.W. Bro. J. J. Talman, of London, for undertaking the same. The analysis is printed in the Fraternal Reviews which are now or will presently be available to you. They are, of course, too lengthy to read now. Your Committee, however, recommends that you read these reports as they will give you an enlarged vision of worldwide Freemasonry.

Once again, it will be noticed there is a general falling off in membership. Out of approximately fifty-six Grand Jurisdictions which reported membership, forty-seven showed losses while only nine recorded gains.

A new and rather novel undertaking is reported by Alberta under the caption "Masonic Spring Workshop." It is worth reading and thinking about.

Here, in Ontario, our Grand Lodge is not called upon to officiate at the laying of Corner Stones to the extent that other Grand Lodges are. See Colorado where, in 1967, Stones were laid in lodges, churches, a hospital, schools, a fire station and the "Frying Pan Arkansas Project Administration Building"—whatever that is.

The Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of England are always interesting and inspiring reading. One item is that "The Board of General Purposes reported that Her Majesty the Queen had presented to the Grand Lodge Library and Museum a silver casket containing an illuminated address which was presented on 27th December, 1875, to the Prince of Wales (later King Edward VII) as Grand Master, by the Freemasons of Bengal."

But Brethren I must not take more of your time in presenting this report. I have only endeavoured to arouse and stimulate your interest so that you will take time to read the entire Reviews.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

R. W. TRELEAVEN,
Chairman.

Fraternal Correspondence and Reviews

ALABAMA — 1967

147th Annual Communication — November 21-22.

Grand Master, 1966-67 — M.W. Bro. J. W. Cooper

Grand Master, 1967-68 — M.W. Bro. W. H. Armistead

Lodges, 437.

Membership, 74,519.

Loss, 112.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence deals with applications by other Grand Lodges for recognition. The Committee recommended that the Grand Lodge of Alabama recognize the Grand Lodge of Pernambuco, Brazil, and the Grand Lodge of Southern Africa. They recommended deferring similar recognition of Parana, Brazil, and the Dominican Republic. The Grand Lodge recognized the Grand Lodge of Turkey in 1963. The Committee added some information regarding this Grand Lodge. They have adopted regalia and insignia as used by the lodges in the United Kingdom and follow rituals of the three degrees as used in the Grand Lodge of Scotland. Rituals, constitutions and by-laws are now translated into Turkish.

Though the total of lodges on the roll is 437, the lodge with the highest number is Apollo No. 921. In almost a century and a half, many lodges have come and gone. The Proceedings each year list defunct lodges. Many warrants were forfeited in the 1820's and 1830's, evidently reflecting the anti-Masonic temper of those years. As one might expect several lodges expired in the 1860's, particularly in 1864. The Civil War was hard on Freemasonry in the South. In one case, Randolph No. 258, there is a note "Charter destroyed by army." Twenty lodges were given dispensations with a regiment, brigade or squadron given as a location. These lodges were never warranted. Some of the names record the history of the time: Confederate, Alabama Volunteers, Stonewall and Alabama Rebel. It is surprising to see how much history can be read into a list such as this.

62nd Annual Communication — June 14-15.

Grand Master, 1966-67 — M.W. Bro. T. G. Towers

Grand Master, 1967-68 — M.W. Bro. B. Brown

Lodges, 180.

Membership, 18,828.

Loss, 180.

The Board of Benevolence voted a donation of $1,000 to the special capital fund for research in the science of surgery set up by the United Grand Lodge of England to mark the Two Hundred and Fiftieth Year of its founding. The Board, also, followed the procedure of the previous year in making grants to dependents of Grand Lodge beneficiaries seeking higher education.

Instead of printing the reports of the twenty District Deputy Grand Masters in full, the Deputy Grand Master included the important points in his Report on the Condition of Masonry. The change was forced by the increased costs of printing.

According to the Deputy Grand Master, "The most important development that has taken place in recent years has been the 'Spring Workshop'. The first Masonic Spring Workshop was held in the Banff School of Fine Arts at Banff, Alberta in April of 1966 and was a great success. The second was held in the same School on April 14th, 15th and 16th, 1967, when four hundred members attended and discussed and studied the purpose and meaning of Freemasonry on the Friday evening, all day Saturday and concluded on Sunday morning with a devotional service. The informality attendant to these gatherings, the small group discussions and free exchange of views enables the young members to benefit from the experience of senior members and the senior members to have their enthusiasm re-kindled by the enquiring minds of our new members. All who attended must have felt the inspiration of the gathering, which was attended by members coming from all sections of the Jurisdiction. We also had the pleasure of the company of observers from neighbouring Jurisdictions."

Many lodges have increased their dues. As the Deputy Grand Master said: "It is indeed foolish to consider that a Freemason's lodge can maintain a status quo and operate on dues that were in effect and barely adequate twenty years ago." He did urge, however, that senior members living on fixed pensions should not be inconvenienced.

The Committee on Charters and New Lodges reported that a petition was received for the formation of a new lodge in the western end of Edmonton, "to practice the Ancient York Work."

ARIZONA — 1967

85th Annual Communication — April 24-25

Grand Master, 1966-67 — M.W. Bro. S. B. Casey

Grand Master, 1967-68 — M.W. Bro. K. D. Anderson

Lodges, 61.

Membership, 13,736.

Gain, 140.

The lodges of Arizona and the Grand Lodge together contributed $1,597 to Italian relief. The money was acknowledged by Grand Master Giordano Gamberini. Our Grand Lodge does not have fraternal relations with that of Italy.

A Special Committee, appointed to recommend in the matter, advised against the employment of a full-time Grand Lecturer.

Another Special Committee recommended against general concurrent jurisdiction throughout the State. At the same time they recommended that concurrent jurisdiction be retained in Tucson and Phoenix. The recommendations of both Committees were approved by the Grand Lodge.

The Jurisprudence Committee granted dispensations to hold seven outdoor meetings. Some of the places were described as Texas Canyon, Joe Nesbitt's Mount Moriah, the Old Lime Quarry, and Crater Range.

126th Annual Communication — November 21-22.

Grand Master, 1966-67 — M.W. Bro. J. L. Whitfield

Grand Master, 1967-68 — M.W. Bro. O. B. Shaw

Lodges, 378. Membership, 52,898. Loss, 258.

The Grand Lodge held eighteen Emergent Communications. Eight were to dedicate new halls, six to "place commemorative stones" and two to constitute lodges. Unfortunately, two were called for funerals of Past Grand Masters.

The Annual Communication does not seem to attract a great attendance. Of the 378 lodges on the roll only 281 were represented.

The Grand Lodge presented $3,000 to the Arkansas Children's Hospital.

It was brought to the attention of the Grand Master that some Arkansas Masons were members of the Royal Order of Scotland. This body is not one of those listed in the Arkansas Digest of Laws as one with which Arkansas Masons may affiliate. However, the Grand Master believing "that this is a good Order" issued a directive adding the Order to the list of genuine and legitimate Masonic Bodies.

Five lodges reached their centennial year. The addition of these lodges brought the total of hundred year old lodges to an even hundred.

BRITISH COLUMBIA — 1967

96th Annual Communication — June 22-23.

Grand Master, 1965-67 — M.W. Bro. J. H. Nordan

Grand Master, 1967-68 — M.W. Bro. H. C. MacNeill

Lodges, 167. Membership, 26,525. Loss, 303.

Of the twenty-five reports of the District Deputy Grand Masters, that of Atlin-Yukon District No. 11 is the most interesting as the District is comprised of Atlinto Lodge, No. 42, Atlin, B.C.; Yukon Lodge, No. 45, Dawson City, Yukon; Northern Lights Lodge, No. 157, Mayo, Yukon; and Whitehorse Lodge, No. 46, Whitehorse, Yukon.

Atlinto Lodge is renovating its building. Yukon Lodge lost some members owing to the closing down of the Yukon Consolidated Gold Corp. It is hoped that with the increased activity in the Clinton Creek area that this loss will be recovered. The District Deputy, R.W. Bro. J. Gentleman, added, "However, the distance of approximately 125 miles round trip to Clinton Creek will be somewhat of a deterrent, but knowing Freemasons in the North, I feel sure that this will not hinder very many from attending meetings."

Northern Lights Lodge, also, has suffered from the shutdown of the United Keno Hill Mines. In Whitehorse, the Lodge and Temple Association have built a new Masonic Temple.

The Grand Historian, V.W. Bro. J. T. Marshall, reported that it is proposed to publish a history of the Grand Lodge to celebrate its centenary in 1971. He, himself, is working on a history of Cariboo Lodge, Barkerville, which received its charter in 1867. A former Grand Historian (1947-1964), R.W. Bro. Gamble, died in Ottawa, in his 90th year.

COLORADO — 1967

106th Annual Communication — January 24-25.

Grand Master, 1966-67 — M.W. Bro. I. M. Cannon

Grand Master, 1967-68 — M.W. Bro. C. T. Gore

Lodges, 169.

Membership, 45,902.

Loss, 441.

As has been reported in these reviews before, the Grand Lodge of Colorado lays many corner stones in a year. This year was no exception. Stones were laid for lodges, churches, a hospital, schools, a fire station and "the Frying Pan Arkansas Project Administration Building." The name presumably applies to a river development.

After all the years of laying corner stones, a Past Grand Master came forward with a resolution. "Feeling that we have been a little negligent in our participation of the ceremony of corner stone laying, in that we sometimes do not actually (use) corn, wine and oil, but only go through the ceremonies in the work; I therefore . . . would like to introduce a resolution instructing future Grand Masters to actually use these elements of consecration, plenty of corn, wine and oil." The resolution was adopted.

179th Annual Communication — April 5-6.

Grand Master, 1966-67 — M.W. Bro. W. M. Wyman

Grand Master, 1967-68 — M.W. Bro. H. E. Bellini

Lodges, 136.

Membership, 44,742.

Loss, 470.

The Grand Lodge held a Special Communication for the purpose of constituting Masonic Lodge of Research. The lodge, which has twenty-four members, is empowered to meet and work with territorial jurisdiction over the State of Connecticut.

The Grand Master issued several dispensations of a somewhat unusual nature. One permitted Oxoboxo Lodge, No. 116, "To open an Emergent Communication on Memorial Day, . . . for the participating as Masons in Masonic Aprons and Regalia, with the Knights of Columbus, in such a manner as will be to the credit of the Fraternity." Incidentally, the name Oxoboxo must rank as one of the most original in any jurisdiction.

A second dispensation permitted a lodge to participate in the civic celebration of the 125th Anniversary of the Town of Portland by entering a float in the anniversary parade. Another lodge was permitted to participate in the "Mum parade in Bristol" dressed in full regalia.

Three separate dispensations permitted lodges to hold Special Communications "at the Paradise Game Reserve," "the Haddam Neck Fairgrounds," and "on the Buist Anderson Estate," respectively.

The Deputy Grand Master maintains a general supervision over the District Deputies. He, also, supervises the Grand Lodge Officers' Speakers Programme. Under this programme a subject was assigned to various Grand Lodge officers. They attended meetings set up by the District Deputies. In addition, Grand Lodge officers were assigned to visit four lodges, each in collaboration with the District Deputies. The comments were favourable.

The Jurisdiction suffered severe losses in the deaths of M.W. Bros. H. K. Plumb, F. C. Hesselmeyer and E. K. Haling. The last-named was Grand Secretary. He attended our Annual Communication in 1966. The Grand Master appointed M.W. Bro. William Campbell in his stead.

The Special Committee on Monuments and Memorials to Past Grand Masters reported on its second year of activity. At the end of its first year the Committee knew nothing about the graves of thirty-six Grand Masters. They reduced the figure to seven. Strangely enough, the Committee had more success in gathering data on the first fifty Grand Masters than it had with the next fifty-two.

DELAWARE — 1967

162nd Annual Communication — October 4-5.

Grand Master, 1966-67 — M.W. Bro. R. F. Gordy

Grand Master, 1967-68 — M.W. Bro. E. W. Randall, Jr.

Lodges, 27.

Membership, 9,183.

Loss, 22.

All of the twenty-seven lodges in the Jurisdiction were represented at the Communication. Total representation was 239.

The Code requires the Grand Master to visit all constituent lodges during his year in office. He found the regulation a good one as he was able to meet many of the brethren.

The Grand Master gave one of the clearest evaluations of the importance of Masonic Education seen by this reviewer in some time. He said:

"It has been interesting and informative for me to study the methods used by others for the promotion of Masonic Education. We find that the average newly made Mason still expects to be led, because from the time of his reception into the first degree, he has been guided and directed all through his three degrees. All through this Masonic journey he has been the recipient of both discipline and information. He needs to be, and expects to be, led forward both physically and intellectually; therefore, a program of Masonic education strikes these men at the most receptive period of their Masonic lives. Of the many hundreds of candidates that come into our Lodges each year, very few are familiar with Masonic tradition, history, laws or purpose. It is vitally important that an effort be made to enlighten these new Masons along these lines. We must always remember that the character and thinking of our newly made Masons of today will be reflected in the Masonry of tomorrow."

Ladies' Nights seem to be popular in the Jurisdiction. The Grand Master attended or was represented at eleven. It looks as though forty percent of the lodges have such nights. One gathering celebrated the 150th anniversary of a charter and another the hundredth.

According to the Grand Master, the ancient ceremony "that of laying or levelling the cornerstone" appears to be coming back. Two cornerstones were laid: that of the Delaware State Board of Agriculture Building and that of Carpenter Hall, Wesley College, Dover.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA — 1966

156th Annual Communication — December 21.

Grand Master, 1966 — M.W. Bro. T. W. Dodge

Grand Master, 1967 — M.W. Bro. C. T. MacDonald

Lodges, 48.

Membership, 19,813.

Loss, 603.

The record of the activity of this Jurisdiction is given in an Annual Report rather than in a document generally called "Proceedings" in other jurisdictions. The Annual Communication is but one of the regular meetings of the Grand Lodge, the others being the first "Stated Communication" and the "St. John's Day Communication," December 27. Since the District of Columbia covers a small area several meetings a year would appear to be most reasonable.

In 1947 provision was made to print a complete roster of the membership of lodges every five years. Since nearly all Grand Lodges have discontinued the practice, and, indeed, many never followed it, the Grand Secretary recommended that the practice be discontinued. The saving in printing costs was significant.

The Committee on Masonic Education and Service reported on the formation of a lodge of research "to promote, encourage, conduct and foster Masonic education, research and study." The name chosen was "Pythagoras Lodge."

ENGLAND — 1967

Quarterly Communications — March 8, June 14,
September 13, December 13.

Annual Investiture — April 26.

Especial Grand Lodge — June 27.

Grand Master — M.W. Bro. H. R. H. The Duke of Kent,
G.C.V.O., A.D.C.

Grand Secretary — R.W. Bro. James W. Stubbs, P.G.W.

After the Minutes of the previous Quarterly Communication were read and confirmed, the first item of business of the March Quarterly Communication was the election of the M.W. the Grand Master. The name of M.W. Bro. The Right Honourable, the Earl of Scarbrough was put forward, received unanimously, and carried with great enthusiasm.

The Grand Master in thanking the brethren said that on previous occasions he had generally said that he would do his best to serve another year in the office. On this occasion, however, he would say "I will do me best to serve as Grand Master for a few months only." He explained his statement by adding:

"It is almost 25 years since a Royal Prince was last our Grand Master—in fact since the day in August, 1942, when the late Duke of Kent, who was then Grand Master, was killed while flying on active service. No one is happier than I am that after that considerable interval we can now look forward to an early renewal of that greatly prized Royal leadership which we have enjoyed for nearly 100 years out of the 154 that we have been the United Grand Lodge of England. And now, Brethren, I give notice that at the next Quarterly Communication of Grand Lodge, which will be held here on 14th June, I shall propose the election as Grand Master of His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent."

At the Annual Investiture the Grand Master told something of the 250th Anniversary Fund. "You will remember," he said, "that it was decided to commemorate the 250th Anniversary of the Grand Lodge by doing something, perhaps notably, outside Freemasonry, and it was suggested that we should raise a fund the income from which would go towards research by the Royal College of Surgeons and, not wishing to interfere in any way with the great generosity which the Craft has always shown to our Masonic Charities, it was suggested that it should be limited to £1 per member of each Lodge. The calculation was that that might bring in half-a-million pounds. That was quite a good estimate, but, perhaps, rather a pessimistic one, because up till this morning there has been received into this fund £505,593—and of course the fund is still open!—and will remain always open. Very soon a Deed will be executed which will make it a charity, and the trustees will start functioning and allotting the income to the Royal College of Surgeons."

By June the fund had risen to £542,651.

The Board of Benevolence, having received reports of extensive damage done by devastating fires in Tasmania, in which great losses were sustained by brethren, recommended that the Grand Lodge grant 1,000 guineas to the Grand Lodge of Tasmania. The Grand Lodge approved at the June Quarterly Communication.

The Board of General Purposes reported that Her Majesty the Queen had presented to the Grand Lodge Library and Museum a silver casket containing an illuminated address which was presented on 27 December, 1875, to the Prince of Wales (later King Edward VII) as Grand Master, by the Freemasons of Bengal. The Board expressed its gratitude, adding that Grand Lodge greatly appreciated this further proof of "Her Majesty's most gracious interest in the Craft."

As part of the commemoration of the 250th Anniversary of the establishment of the Premier Grand Lodge, "Grand Lodge, 1717-1967" has been produced.

The outstanding event of the year occurred at the June 14 Quarterly Communication. Under the heading "Election of a Grand Master," the Grand Master recalled that in March he had said that he would hold office for a few months only. He introduced his proposal with a few words.

"I am quite sure that it is greatly to the advantage of Freemasonry in our country that there should, whenever possible, be a close link between the Royal Family and our Institution, which has always taken pride in the loyalty we bear to Crown and Country. For many years we had that link, but twenty-five years ago, when the Duke of Kent's father was killed on active service, we lost it. Now we are able to regain it, and I shall look upon it as something of importance that I have been able to effect that restoration of a Royal Grand Master in this particular 250th year of our existence.

"Brethren, when this proposition which I am about to place before you has been seconded by the Deputy Grand Master, I hope you will accept it with unanimity and with enthusiasm. And that thereafter you will give your loyalty and support to your new Grand Master. I now pledge to His Royal Highness my loyalty and support.

"I have the honour to move that His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent be elected Grand Master of the United Grand Lodge of England."

The R.W. Deputy Grand Master seconded the proposition which was then "carried by acclamation amid loud applause."

The new Grand Master was installed in Albert Hall at an Especial Grand Lodge on June 27, called to celebrate the 250th Anniversary of the Grand Lodge. Deputations from no less than 64 lodges overseas as well as those from Ireland and Scotland attended. M.W. Bro. James N. Allan represented our Grand Lodge.

The Grand Master of Ireland spoke on behalf of all the visitors, saying, "I thank you for your fraternal salute and greet you well." The Grand Master of Massachusetts, the oldest Grand Lodge in the New World, and the Grand Master of Belgium, the youngest Grand Lodge in the Old World, also, were called on to speak.

After the Installation the Grand Master called on the Grand Master of Ireland and the Grand Master Mason of Scotland. After they had spoken he called on M.W. Bro. James N. Allan who spoke on behalf of all those distinguished visitors assembled who did not hail from Ireland or Scotland.

The Grand Master addressed Grand Lodge, being interrupted seven times by applause as he recorded the contributions of the distinguished Masonic leaders present. He added:

"What do we need to practise most in our own private Masonic lives? Whether we look back or forward, I believe the answer will be the same—Brotherly love, Relief and Truth. . . . If we as individuals can uphold these standards, and if our United Grand Lodge of England can maintain them, we shall make a real contribution to that grand design which does not consist only of being happy and communicating happiness but, under God, of making the world in which we live a better place not only for our own but for succeeding generations."

A lengthy chapter in the history of the Grand Lodge ended in December, 1967, when it was announced: "As the Unlawful Societies Act 1799 has now been repealed by Section 13(2) and Schedule 4 of the Criminal Law Act, 1967, Lodge Secretaries will no longer be required to make a return of their members each year to the local Clerk of the Peace."

138th Annual Communication — April 25-27.

Grand Master, 1967-68 — M.W. Bro. J. T. Rouse, Jr.

Lodges, 304.

Membership, 74,697.

Gain, 1,084.

In speaking of the gain in membership, the Grand Master said that he felt sure that the image of Freemasonry had, also, taken a step forward. But he added, "We must be conscious of our responsibility to keep it moving through the feelings of our individual responsibility as a citizen and a Mason."

Ten cornerstones were laid. Five only were for lodge buildings. The remainder were for a high school, a church, a library, a courthouse and a justice building.

The Grand Master was required to rule on a case where a member of a lodge who was initiated, passed and raised under a given name later became known professionally and personally by another name. He ruled that the member "would have to produce evidence to the secretary of the lodge of a court authorizing the change of his name legally." A problem like this must have arisen before but certainly not often.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence, among other matters, called the attention of the Craft to a body known as "The Universal League of Freemasons." The Committee stated:

"We would call the attention of the Craft to a body known as 'The Universal League of Freemasons.' This organization attempts to recruit members from among the Grand Lodges of North America. While this body claims to consist of members of Grand Lodge practicing regular Masonry, it would seem indiscriminate in its source of members. That is, it accepts members from Grand Lodges not recognized by any of the Grand Lodges in this country, some of which are regarded by us as irregular."

The year 1967 differed from other years as two General Assemblies were held. The Extraordinary General Meeting in June introduced the members of the Grand Lodge and numerous friends throughout the whole Masonic world to the new Grand Lodge building at Neuilly-sur-Seine.

For the first time a Grand Master in office in England was present at a meeting in France. The United States was well represented. The Grand Masters of Israel and India were, also, present. Altogether thirteen Grand Masters and ten Past Grand Masters attended.

The ceremonies began with a gala banquet, with 104 persons present, at the Pavillon Henri IV at St. Germain-en-Laye. It was reported that the "magnificent site and the superb menu were much appreciated."

Inevitably, much was said in various addresses regarding the history of the Grand Lodge. The clearest and most comprehensive statement was that handed to the press at a press conference on June 9.

"The occasion appears suitable to declare what is authentic Freemasonry, of which only the Grande Loge Nationale Française is the representative and the only Obedience in France recognized by all the Regular Grand Lodges of the World.

"For various reasons, special to France, bodies known as Masonic are not in Regular Freemasonry and are not connected with it. They have, themselves, broken away from it. They are above all, known for their political activities and it is precisely this which caused their rupture with the Masonic bodies of the world.

"We feel no hostility towards them and we have no judgement to pass on them. All we know is that they have drifted away from the fundamental rules of the Masonic Order from its foundation in the 15th and 16th century and re-affirmed in 1717 when it was decided to continue its life in incorporating men not engaged in the building trade.

"As in the case of any order, these rules are binding and unchangeable.

"The first of them requires a belief in God, Great Architect of the Universe.

"The second is, having that belief, all religious discussion is forbidden, whether it be for propagation or debate.

"The third is complete political freedom and absence of discussion on politics.

"These three rules are sufficient to show what separates Regular Freemasonry from French associations, claiming that title. They deal actively in philosophical and political questions and are thus placed outside the scope of traditional Freemasonry.

"The Grand Loge Nationale Française was founded in 1913 to restore the Masonic rules, deliberately abandoned in 1877.

"This position brought it, firstly, recognition by the United Grand Lodge of England, the oldest Grand Lodge, and afterwards by the Grand Lodges of the World, Japan, India, Australia, North and South America, and of course Europe.

"It continues, without publicity, but neither in clandestinity, its work of edification and fraternity, in the spirit of the ancient corporations of builders."

The ceremony of consecration took place on June 9 and on the following day one of the Temples in the building was dedicated and the Master-elect of Concorde Lodge, No. 42, installed.

As the report concluded, "The three days celebrations proved in a conclusive manner the dynamic force of the Grande Loge Nationale Française . . . All our Brethren will rejoice in at last having a building, Temples, a Grand Temple, and Administrative offices worthy of our Obedience."

At the General Assembly, in December, the Grand Master reported that two new lodges had been consecrated during the year and that initiations and "regularizations" had added to the strength of the Grand Lodge not only in Paris but in the Provinces. The loss indicated at the head of the review was accounted for by the departure from France of 1,190 Canadians and Americans.

The Educational and Historical Commission of the Grand Lodge erected markers to the memory of distinguished Masons of the Jurisdiction. Their pamphlets on historical markers have been placed in the State Welcome Stations on the Inter-state Highways. The Commission is, also, working on a pamphlet on Masonic etiquette, to be completed by the next session of the Grand Lodge. Great improvements have been made in the size and general format of "The Masonic Messenger."

The Committee on the Grand Lodge Building is studying ways in which the present building can be enlarged and expanded. Zoning laws make it unlikely that a new building on the same site would be feasible.

A resolution that the various subordinate lodges in the Jurisdiction be urged to "procure for itself a Flag of Georgia" to be located in a place of honour in the eastern part of the lodge room across from the U.S. flag was approved. Among the reasons given for the proposal was that the antiquity of Freemasonry in Georgia is known to be exceeded only in the States of Massachusetts and Pennsylvania and because "the Freemasons of Georgia have a rich, proud, and ancient heritage as Americans, Georgians and Freemasons from the year 1733 to the present."

The Higher Education Fund supported entirely by the contributions of the constituent lodges, Masonic bodies and interested individuals supported five students beyond the high school level.

Once again the Reviews are well done by W. Bro. L. H. Williams. He clearly had read our Proceedings with care and attention to detail.

The Grand Orator, M.W. Bro. E. S. Rawls (G.M. 1956), appropriately devoted his address to a look back to the past. He told of the explorations of Lewis and Clark and the coming of trappers and fur traders. It was not until 1846 that Britain and the United States finally agreed on the 49th Parallel as the Canadian-American border. Up to that time Idaho had been controlled by the North West Company and the Hudson's Bay Company. Settlers on their way to Oregon followed the fur traders.

Freemasonry came early, as the speaker said:

"Even though there were adventurers and cut-throats among those who were lured to Idaho in the 1860's by its gold and silver deposits, they were held in check by two agencies (usually manned by the same men) which brought order and safety into the mining camps of that pioneer era: the Vigilantes and the Masonic Lodge. Between 1864 and 1867, five such lodges were chartered in the Territory of Idaho by the Grand Lodges of Oregon and Washington. In 1867 they erected the Grand Lodge of Idaho."

The Grand Historian, M.W. Bro. C. I. Rush (G.M. 1938), likewise gave an interesting history of the more recent years in the Grand Lodge. Both speakers, also, drew attention to the 250th Anniversary of the first Grand Lodge in 1717.

One unhappy note during the year was the illness of the Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Eberle (G.M. 1957), who suffered a stroke. He had served for nine years. M.W. Bro. Rush acted in his place.

Since 1880, schools of instruction have been held in this Jurisdiction. Until 1933 they were held for three days in several locations. Subsequently they were held for three or two days. Since 1952 two day schools have been held five or six times a year. This year, in addition, some one day schools were held. Attendance has been good, 710 in 1967.

In 1966 the Committee on Masonic Publications recommended that an amount not to exceed fifty cents per capita be included in the General Fund appropriation for the publication of "The Illinois Freemason," subject to an increase in the per capita tax. Since the proposed increase was withdrawn, the idea was abandoned.

Concerning Masonic publications, the Grand Master said:

"The editor controls the contents of a magazine. He should not be an amateur; he should be a professional journalist. Not only that—he must be knowledgeable about Freemasonry, its history, what it does and what it should not do. Such a man is a specialist and he deserves a substantial compensation—say ten to fifteen thousand a year.

"The Texas Freemason is a good example. The magazine is sent each month to every Texas Mason, 243,000 of them. A few years ago, the brethren in Grand Lodge voted to increase the per capita by sixty cents to pay for the magazine. The Grand Lodge publication now costs fifty-three cents per year per member. The Texas Freemason is one of the best Grand Lodge magazines in this country. Other fine ones are The California Freemason, sent to all members four times a year; the Indiana Freemason, sent monthly only to those who pay for the subscriptions.

"It is my personal opinion that a Grand Lodge magazine serves its best purpose when it is sent to Masons who would not voluntarily pay for their subscriptions."

The Committee on Metropolitan Migration told something of the plight of downtown lodges.

"Long-established Masonic temples are slowly withering away in the graying areas because both members and prospective members in large numbers are moving to the suburbs. Consequently, in outlying communities everywhere, there are promising sites for temples enabling the whole family to participate in both social and fraternal activities. All of the outer cities have far more prospective Masons than are to be found in the inner city. What is more important is that the younger families, the seeking people, the future Masons are to be found in the suburbs. It is here where we can restore the age-old tradition of the son following his father into the Masonic lodge. . . .

"Fortunately, this is a two-way street. Not all Masons are moving out to the suburbs. Some are moving in to the city. Condominium and high-rise apartments are bringing back many retired families. It follows that each lodge stands to gain a little and lose a little. But Masonry as a whole has everything to gain and nothing to lose. Nothing would add vitality to Masonry more than to reactivate the thousands of brethren who no longer live near their home lodges and are unknown to the lodges in their new areas. This to us, is the sleeping giant of Masonry. It is the key to conservation."

The Board of General Purposes recommended, and Grand Lodge approved, the final draft of the Installation Ritual and resolved that it be formally released for general use in daughter Lodges on November 24, 1966, to mark the fifth anniversary of the Inaugural Meeting of Grand Lodge.

The Board reminded members that it was now five years since an independent, self-governing Grand Lodge of India had been established. Many Grand Lodge officers have equipped themselves with correct regalia, either full or undress. It is now time, therefore, they stated for all those who hold regional grand, or grand offices to wear the correct Indian regalia.

The Grand Lodge is already planning the tenth anniversary of the inaugural meeting, on or about November 24, 1971. The Board of General Purposes agreed that the Grand Lodge should "launch a project for an Indian Masonic House in connection with the decennial celebration."

The Grand Master requested lodge secretaries to let him have the names of Brethren on their rolls initiated between 1900 and 1910. Four Brethren were found who had served the Craft for more than sixty years.

The Grand Lodge "received some enquiries in regard to the manner in which Jewish candidates should be required to take obligation." The resulting answer is rather lengthy but since it reveals the great diversity of membership in India and interesting customs, we may be justified in including the answer here.

"The Grand Secretary, Grand Lodge of the State of Israel, had stated the position as follows:

'Jewish candidates in Israel do not kneel when taking the Obligation. They only bend their heads, which are covered, while taking the oath. Christian and Moslem candidates do kneel before the Altar, during their ceremony.

'In my opinion Jewish candidates in India may be exempted from kneeling.

'Since the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem, Jews do not kneel, except on the Day of Atonement (Yom Kipur) during prayers.'

"I consulted the Grand Secretaries of England, Ireland and Scotland. In Scotland they carry out the procedure as laid down by the Grand Secretary of the State of Israel. He has also added as follows:

'It might quite well happen that there are several Brethren at the Altar at the same time, perhaps some Jews and some Christians. In that case, the Jewish Brother simply covers his head and remains upstanding with his hands on the V.S.L. while Christian Brother, as is our usual custom, kneels. Perhaps I could add that if it is not the custom in any particular religious faith to kiss the book in order to seal an obligation then the custom should be adopted to which the Brother concerned is used. In Scotland we have never issued any directives about this but have simply left it to the Lodges concerned to use their own discretion. I can well understand that in India where you have Hindu, Moslem, Christian, Jews and so on, the problem is a much more complicated one than we have but I think it is one that is capable of a fairly straight forward solution.'

"As regards England, the Grand Secretary reports as follows:

'No firm instructions have been issued from this office, at any rate within the last eighteen years, but I do not think there has been any need to, since the situation among professing Jews is quite well known.

'You may be interested to know that the only occasion when I can remember any difficulty arising was when a Brother wished to take his obligation standing, but not covered, and the G.D.C. rules that it must be done wholly in the Jewish or wholly in the Christian manner.'

"So far as the Jews in our Lodges are concerned, we may follow the procedure as laid down by the Grand Secretary of the State of Israel. It must, however, be made quite clear that the procedure should be done wholly in the Jewish or wholly in the Christian/Hindu/Moslem/Parsi/Sikh manner."

The Sesquicentennial Commission reported that the celebration programme would begin on June 24, 1967, with a Service of Worship and Thanksgiving, in Indianapolis, to commemorate the 250th Anniversary of the United Grand Lodge of England. Programmes were arranged to continue throughout the year to end with the Grand Lodge Annual Meeting in May, 1968. The Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Dwight L. Smith, P.G.M., has written a history of Freemasonry in Indiana. The new book bears the title "Goodly Heritage."

The Ritual Committee, to which certain recommendations had been referred by the Grand Lodge, suggested changes which bring Indiana in line with the United Grand Lodge of England and several other Grand Jurisdictions as far as the penalties are concerned.

The Study Commission on State-wide Concurrent Jurisdiction requested more time for study. They had written to every jurisdiction in the United States and found that Louisiana, Maryland, Michigan, New Jersey, and Wisconsin have adopted State-wide concurrent jurisdiction.

The correspondence seemed to indicate that fear that State-wide concurrent jurisdiction would injure small lodges or that larger lodges would lose members to smaller lodges had not been sustained. Fears that unsuitable candidates would apply where they were not well-known were resolved by strict investigation. The Committee added:

"In fact, there seems to have been negligible activity of this area as most cases involve petitioners who desire to affiliate with a Lodge usually just outside of their home town jurisdiction because of family ties, employment in the adjacent city or community where friends and co-workers reside, or, because roads and highways make the adjacent Lodge more accessible even though the mileage involved might be slightly greater."

A final conclusion was that, "Some worthy petitioners, when confronted with the somewhat cumbersome machinery involved with respect to requests for waiver of jurisdiction, have lost interest in pursuing their request for membership."

The Study Committee on Multiple Installations expressed the view, later supported by the Grand Lodge, that multiple installations were not specifically prohibited by the Blue Book. Installations in Indiana may be held in public. The lodge must be opened in due form before the public is admitted.

The Grand Secretary, R.W. Bro. Whipple, travelled 20,000 miles in connection with his duties for the Grand Lodge. His office published "The Bulletin" ten times during the year, averaging 10,500 copies of each issue. Keeping a mailing list up-to-date these days is a difficult and expensive task. Changes run about one per cent per issue.

The Grand Lodge, in 1965, resolved to bring the history of the Jurisdiction up-to-date from 1938, with the Grand Secretary named to gather the material. He hopes to put the material in narrative form to be ready by the close of 1969. He is kept busy. His full title is Grand Secretary and Librarian.

The Library had 2,706 visitors. Individual transactions such as lending books, answering questions, etc., numbered 3,740. This looks like something happening every half hour to interrupt the ordering, cataloguing and repairing of books. There were catalogued 1,114 books and 706 clippings. Few Masonic libraries can be more active.

The Grand Lodge building which has been occupied for only eleven years disappointed the trustees when it was found that the mortar between the joints in the marble was giving away. A reputable contractor repaired the damage at a cost of $8,800, giving a ten-year guarantee. The flat roof has, also, given some problems over the years. Finally, it had to be entirely replaced at a cost of $21,000. A slight slope was added. The Grand Lodge allocates $10 of the fee from each initiate to the building fund. Consequently, the unusual and heavy expenses were paid in full from available funds.

The Masonic Charitable Educational Corporation was granted recognition as a tax-exempt body. The primary function of the corporation is to provide educational loans for qualified young people in need of financial assistance to continue and complete their formal education. During the year they granted $8,950 in twelve loans. Their funds were insufficient to meet all applications. The Corporation will ultimately inherit three estates in which, at the moment, certain persons have life interests. The position of the Corporation is described as "remainderman legatee."

The Fraternal Reviewer commented most favourably on the hospitality of our Grand Lodge, the work of The Masonic Foundation and the importance of the District Deputy Grand Masters in a jurisdiction almost as large as the combined states of Texas, New Mexico and West Virginia.

IRELAND — 1967

Annual Report and the Report of the Grand Secretary.

Grand Master — M.W. Bro. The Rt. Hon.
the Earl of Donoughmore

The St. John's Day Communication of Grand Lodge was not held at the direction of the Grand Master, having regard to the danger of the spread of foot and mouth disease to Ireland. The speech the Grand Master would have made was printed in the Report. One unhappy decision made by the Grand Master was to suspend all Masonic activities until January, or until all threat from foot and mouth disease had disappeared.

During the year three Provincial Grand Masters, overseas, felt it necessary to resign. One was R.W. Bro. W. D. Adendorff whose province consisted of twenty-five Irish Lodges in South Africa. Many lodges are about three hundred miles from Johannesburg, the centre of Masonic activities, but he regularly visited every lodge installation, during his eleven years in office. In New Zealand R.W. Bro. J. K. Clark resigned, and in Eastern India the Province has been disbanded. One lodge surrendered its warrant and the remaining lodges have been placed directly under Grand Lodge control, through a Chief Inspector.

In Ireland, the centenary of the foundation of the Masonic Boy's School was celebrated. A large cheque was given to the Centenary Fund and a service of thanksgiving was held in St. Patrick's Cathedral.

The world-wide activities of the Grand Lodge are revealed in the reports from Provincial Grand Lodges in New Zealand, Southern Cape (South Africa), Rhodesia, Natal, Western India, Eastern India, and from the Grand Inspectors of the Far East, Bermuda and Ceylon.

The non-political character of Freemasonry is well revealed in the report from Rhodesia, though inevitably there are some problems. The population shift seems to be settling down. "There is a steady flow of candidates coming forward." Immigration restrictions, however, keep Provincial Grand Lodge officers from visiting the North. During the year, the first two units, comprising four cottages in the Salisbury and District Masonic Homes Association, were opened and occupied by elderly brethren and their wives. It is hoped to be able to build further single units and a strong drive for funds is now taking place. The four Constitutions which work in Rhodesia combined to build a new Masonic hall in Bulawayo. This building is reported to be "a magnificent edifice."

The records of the Grand Lodge are given in a monthly publication called the "Freemason" or "Haboneh Hahofshi." The back pages, or front if one looks at the coloured cover first, are printed in English. The information given is not as complete as that found in regular Proceedings. For example, membership figures and gains or losses are not recorded.

There are many items of interest given in the pages. At the Quarterly Communication, January 24, 1967, the Grand Orator told something of the work of the Ritual Committee of Grand Lodge.

"The Rituals in most of our Lodges were based on the York and Scotland Rituals. Several Lodges were permitted to continue to use the Rituals they are used to i.e. the French and German versions. The members of the Rituals Committee are Brethren expert in the various accepted Rituals, Brethren from the former Israeli and Scottish Lodges, they strive to achieve oneness by mutual understanding, and out of multitude of versions and differences of opinion to erect a well planned and unified building.

"One cannot ignore the natural difficulties arising from the usage and custom of many years and the additional habit of some Brethren to introduce into the Ritual variations of their own or add and drop parts of other Rituals. This is one of the things that have to stop, by introducing proper definitions and clear-cut rules. There is no question who is right or wrong, all are right, but the rules have to be laid down—and this is exactly what the Ritual Committee is doing."

Along the same line, a speaker at an Emergency Meeting of the Freemasons of Israel, June 4, 1967, showed the universality of Masonry in Israel.

"One glance at our emblem will show that Israel Freemasonry is a unique movement with no similar body in the world: it shows the Mogen-David, the Crescent and the Cross united together. It is not only an emblem on paper, it is a true and existing fact, as our movement includes members of all faiths and religions, i.e. Jews, Moslems, Christians and Druzes, who have found their way to a common object and purpose that unites them together."

An Emergency Meeting was convened by the Grand Lodge to call on the Freemasons of Israel "to raise their voice in an urgent appeal to the Freemasons of the world to stretch out a helping hand to the State of Israel and its citizens in their grave hour of need."

The Grand Master made some pointed remarks in the opening paragraphs of his address.

"The overall picture of Masonry is good in Kentucky — it is sound, it is good and it is working, however, I find that there are areas in which there could be some improvement made. First, and foremost in that area, would be our ritual and the manner in which we try to portray the picture of Masonry in each of our degrees. I urge you to lend your support so that we can, this year, adopt a ritual so that this Grand Body can and must furnish those who are seeking this assistance a proper platform from which to work.

"Another area that needs shoring up, is the lack of interest that some of our subordinate lodges have in supporting, not only the programs initiated by each Grand Master and our District Meetings, but some have openly defied the progress of our Fraternity by stating that they had no desire to receive any more petitions because they wanted to remain as they were. My brothers, Masonry is a progressive science and I don't feel that this type of attitude has a place in our Fraternity and my feelings are that if we don't have a desire to labor for the Fraternity, then we should step aside and let some one step in that can and will be a leader with a progressive attitude.

"I also believe that steps should be taken to see that all of the lodges in a district be required to have at least three of its members present for their District Meeting."

It is well to see forthright statements by those in a position to observe and to make them.

Since the Proceedings give the names of all members of all lodges, they make up a substantial volume of 800 pages. The whole volume is most attractively printed. The work is done at the Masonic Home Journal press, Masonic Home, Ky.

W. Bro. Rogers, who reports for the Committee on Fraternal Relations, stated that, after six years, demands of time have compelled him to request that "another worthy brother" be asked to assume his duties. We regret to see his giving up the task he did so well. His remarks regarding our Proceedings have always been most generous. We wish him well and close with his evaluation of our own Grand Secretary.

M.W. Bro. Ewart G. Dixon, Grand Secretary, prepares a nonpareil report of Proceedings that should appeal to all Commentators. To know and associate with a Mason of his stature convinces me that Masonry has many worthy rewards."

A reviewer of Proceedings gets jarred occasionally when he appears to have been repeating an error over the years. In 1967 we reported on the 155th Annual Communication of 1966 only to read that the 155th occurred in 1967. All was saved, however, when the Minutes were read and the title page was ignored. The printer had erred, or the copy for the title page had not been amended.

While on the subject of printing, it may be added that the editor of the Proceedings has a unique way of recording losses from the Grand East during the year. He sets a list of Past Grand Masters present with black rules and a date in place of the name. The presence of three black bars shows that the Grand Lodge suffered severe losses during the year. The attendance of twenty Past Grand Masters at the Annual Communication of a possible twenty-three reveals strong support of the Grand Lodge by the Past Grand Masters.

A total of 282, of 285, lodges were represented at Grand Lodge. Total number of ballots available to be cast was 845.

The Grand Master gave a most cheering address. He found that "Masonry is on the upswing throughout this State." Two brief paragraphs supported his opinion.

Our certificate Associations have been extremely active in teaching the work; our District Deputy Grand Masters are particularly to be commended for their close attention to work of the Lodges and serving in a liaison position between Grand Lodge and the Lodges of their respective jurisdictions.

Our Craft has been busy; six cornerstones have been laid; ten emergent communications have been held; three Lodge halls have been dedicated; and many degrees have been conferred all definitely indicating the upturn of interest in the fraternity; and too, better attendance was realized in many Lodges!

Much of the credit for this record must go to the Grand Master himself who participated in 273 meetings during the year and travelled 46,000 miles all within Louisiana, except for journeys to Washington and Michigan.

The Grand Master "denied permission" to a lodge which advanced an incredible request. The exact text of the Grand Master's ruling gives the story. "Permission denied . . . for a non-Mason to act as Chaplain of the Lodge, since the Installation Ceremony is strictly a Masonic Ceremony, therefore there is no part in the ceremony that will provide for a non-Mason to act as Chaplain."

MAINE — 1967

148th Annual Communication — May 2-3.

Grand Master, 1964-66 — M.W. Bro. W. H. Campbell

Grand Master, 1966-68 — M.W. Bro. M. D. Gardner

Lodges, 208. Membership, 46,095. Loss, 457.

The Grand Master paid a particular tribute to the Masonic Charity Foundation. The Grand Lodge is gratified to have resources available to accomplish much good in its programme of direct assistance. As it is said "charity which longs to publish itself ceases to be charity" the names of no beneficiaries are disclosed. Since the annual assessment was established, the Grand Lodge and its constituent lodges have been able to distribute over one million dollars in direct assistance. In 1967 the Foundation disbursed almost $75,000.

In order to make the information in the Proceedings more accessible than before, the Grand Secretary greatly expanded the index.

M.W. Bro. Aubrey L. Burbank, P.G.M., undertook the project of locating and finding the condition of the grave of each of the deceased Grand Masters. Much more effort is required. The Grand Master suggested that Grand Lodge should consider the proper method of financing the perpetual care of every plot. He suggested further that a suitable plaque or marker might be erected at each site to commemorate the Grand Lodge Centennial in 1970. A report on the project will be presented at the next Annual Communication.

A survey of the list of Grand Masters suggests that there are fifty-nine names involved. The number is not as large as might be expected for several reasons. Most Grand Masters served two years and in some cases three. Three-year terms seem to have ended in 1874. The happiest reason for the relatively small number is the long list of fourteen living Past Grand Masters, all of whom served two years. Three Grand Masters were named Chase, two were named Burnham, King, Dunlop, and Burbank. The office seems to run in families.

The Grand Master commented on the Condition of the Fraternity. He noted that many lodges obviously take pride in their lodge halls. Others have buildings "which are a disgrace to Masonry." He urged all lodges "to take steps to clean up, fix up, and paint up" all their buildings as part of the Sesquicentennial celebration of the Grand Lodge.

M.W. Bro. R. J. Pollard, P.G.M., as usual, rounded out the Proceedings with a full and comprehensive Report of Correspondence. This must be the twenty-second time he has done this work.

The Board of General Purposes met six times during the year with about forty members attending at each session. Since the Centenary of the Grand Lodge of Manitoba will be held in 1975 and to provide for a suitable commemoration, the Board is planning to budget $1,000 a year for eight years.

In Acacia Lodge, No. 111, Winnipeg, Bro. William Dewar was elected Secretary for the fifty-fifth year in succession. One scarcely needs to be told that this is a record not equalled in any jurisdiction in Canada.

The Grand Historian addressed the Communication on "Our Contribution to a Hundred Years of Confederation." He decided to look at the individual contributions of men who were Freemasons. He quickly found that the field was so wide that he was forced to limit his remarks to eight individuals.

The first was John Christian Schultz who led the opposition to Riel during the Red River Insurrection of 1869-70. Subsequently he was a member of parliament, a senator and lieutenant governor of Manitoba. He was the pioneer W.M. in Manitoba of the original Northern Light Lodge. The second figure was Samuel Pritchard Matheson who was not only the Grand Master in 1879 but the Archbishop of Rupert's Land in 1905. In 1909 he was named Primate of the Anglican Church for all Canada. Another theologian was Andrew Browning Baird, a distinguished Presbyterian scholar who was Grand Master in 1922 who was a leading advocate of church union. Charles Napier Bell, Grand Master in 1895, made great contributions to the grain trade and was a most important figure in the public life of Winnipeg.

The last four named by the speaker were chosen to represent that vast number of devoted and dedicated Master Masons for the support they had given their respective lodges and the fundamental principles of Freemasonry.

One can realize why the address was greeted with sustained applause.

The Committee on the State of the Craft reported at the Semi-Annual Communication that city lodges are losing members at a greater rate than the country lodges are gaining. The report showed that there is need for new lodges in the suburban areas of Baltimore. A question to be settled was: Should new lodges be instituted or should a lodge or lodges be moved. The matter was being studied.

Several lodges celebrated centennials. One Special Communication was held in Lowell to observe the One Hundredth Anniversary of Kilwinning Lodge. This lodge has established some traditions which make it "different" from other lodges in the Jurisdiction. Perhaps the best known tradition, said to have been due to the first Master, is the so-called long form of the Second or Fellow Craft Degree. While conforming to the ritual as required by the Grand Lodge, it embellishes it with elaborate scenery, the use of two halls and additions patterned after English Masonic practice dating from the writings of William Preston in the late 1700's.

Another early tradition required members to wear white gloves and a black suit. A fire destroyed the lodge building in 1929. The gloves, which were stored by members there were lost and the tradition died. A third tradition is an Annual St. Andrew's Day Dinner.

A picture of the new Masonic Temple of Social Harmony Lodge, in Wareham, reveals a unique architectural design. The roof carries almost to the ground. The lodge room, as a consequence, has a steeply sloping ceiling, rising from a few feet above the seats of the members. The effect is pleasing.

Centenaries are scarcely newsworthy in this Jurisdiction. St. John's Lodge, Newburyport, celebrated its Two Hundredth Anniversary. St. John's, Boston, dates from 1733. Lodges are not numbered in Massachusetts.

The Grand Master, in speaking of his visit to the Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia, told his hearers that Erasmus James Phillips, who formed the first lodge in Nova Scotia, had been made a Mason in St. John's Lodge, Boston, in 1737.

The reconstruction and renovation of the Temple is proceeding. The entrance is being changed to the corner of Boylston and Tremont Streets. On entering, one will pass two marble pillars, placed in green mosaic niches, brightly illuminated. They originally stood outside the original Gothic Temple which was burned in 1895. The banquet hall will seat 300. A carpet has been specially designed for this room. The electrical fixtures have, also, been specially designed and decorated with Masonic symbols. The Temple, when the alterations have been completed, will clearly be another building one should see if he were in Boston.

MEXICO (YORK) — 1967

Even within its limited budget, long-range plans were projected and sustained. As the Grand Master said: "We streamlined our Constitution, our financing programme, concluded study on the reorganization of the Widow's and Orphan's Fund, and that of the question of the Penalties in our Obligations."

The Grand Secretary reported a gain of forty-five in spite of the closing of two of the older lodges, Albert Pike No. 7, Puebla, and Tampico No. 10. The closing of the former is unfortunate as numerous plants are now being established in Puebla and the University of the Americas is moving there. Puebla lies about sixty miles from Mexico City, on the way to Vera Cruz. Economic pressure militated against Tampico. As the Grand Master said: "Tampico became somewhat the equivalent of Alaska after the gold rush." In this case, however, the story was one of oil. The final entry in the minute book revealed feelings of deep regret over the necessity of surrendering the charter. In the 1920's and 1930's the Lodge had the largest membership in the history of the jurisdiction.

To commemorate the 150th Anniversary of the establishment of the University of Michigan, the Board of Directors of the Grand Lodge commissioned the preparation of a mural. The mural depicts the scene in Zion Lodge when a member made a "proposal to eschew refreshments and to contribute the money saved to establish the University." The mural was presented with appropriate ceremonies.

The Grand Lodge approved a proposed amendment to the Constitution to authorize the Grand Master to appoint "one or more Grand Chaplains." Heretofore, the Grand Chaplain has been elected annually. Now the matter goes to all the lodges and if a majority approve, the proposal will, again, be brought before Grand Lodge where a majority vote will make the amendment effective. The Constitution of the Grand Lodge is amended in this way.

The 8th Annual Masonic Cruise took place late in January and early in February. The travellers visited five Caribbean ports. Nearly 120 Masons and their wives joined in the tour aboard the Empress of Canada. Michigan's seagoing lodge, Atlantic U.D., functioned by virtue of the personal dispensation of the Grand Master.

The loss in membership recorded was 317 less than in the previous year. Indeed, a comparison with figures given for earlier years shows that the figure was the lowest since 1962.

MINNESOTA — 1967

114th Annual Communication — March 29-30.

Grand Master, 1966-67 — M.W. Bro. M. B. Miley

Grand Master, 1967-68 — M.W. Bro. J. L. Seltzer

For the third consecutive year a blizzard raged as Grand Lodge met. Unlike 1966, however, the Communication was not delayed.

The Masons of Minnesota presented a cheque for $1,100,000 to the University of Minnesota in payment for adding two floors to the hospital. The new floors were dedicated on the evening of the first day of the Communication. The hospital, opened in 1958, as has been written before in these Reviews, is devoted to the care of those afflicted with cancer and for specialized research in the field.

MISSISSIPPI — 1967

The Grand Orator, Bro. O. D. Smith, suggested that we hear so much on the topic "What is wrong with Masonry" that he proposed to discuss some of the good things. "At times, I find myself becoming a bit impatient when I hear so much said about the negative side of Masonry and so little about the positive. The principles upon which our great fraternity is founded, and the many great lessons we may obtain from them, are just as true today as they were in the beginning. Masonry does not change but men may. The lessons of charity, brotherly love, relief, truth, morality, and justice, have not changed one iota since they were practiced and taught by the Lion of the Tribe of Judah as he walked the sunkissed shores of Galilee almost two thousand years ago. The law given us by the Great Teacher of Israel, "To love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and thy neighbour as thyself" is just as binding and as essential now as it was in His time. The truth of the matter is that we as men and Masons find a very tragic increase in the number of violations of this law, both within and without our fraternity today, rather than a sincere effort to conform to this great law."

The Mississippi Room in the library of the University of Mississippi is devoted to the preservation of material relating to Mississippi and books written by residents or some-time residents of the State. The collection of the Proceedings and other publications of the Grand Lodge were limited. To remedy the lack, Bro. O. D. Smith some years ago began trying to fill the gaps. He collected 105 volumes of Proceedings and other books dealing with Masonry in the State. These were cleaned, repaired and rebound. The volume of Proceedings for 1839, the oldest copy located, was presented to M.W. Bro. A. Cabaniss (P.G.M.) and Professor of History in the University as a token to represent the whole collection.

The Sesquicentennial Committee is laying plans for the forthcoming celebration.

In 1965 the question of placing the Koran on the altar came up. At that time this reviewer suggested that the problem must have been almost unique in the annals of North American Freemasonry. Believe it or not, the question arose again and, once again, the Grand Master ruled that the Koran could be placed alongside the V. S. L.

The Missouri Lodge of Research had a full year. The Lodge republished the first volume of Henry Wilson Coil, Sr., Freemasonry through Six Centuries. They plan to publish the second volume during the coming year. Hitherto, the Lodge of Research has been subsidized by the Grand Lodge to the extent of $1,000 per year. This year the Lodge suggested that it could stand on its own feet. The library of the Lodge of Research is housed in the Truman Library in Independence.

Among the dispensations was one permitting a lodge to confer four M. M. Degrees, at 8.00 a.m., on a Saturday morning.

MONTANA — 1967

101st Annual Communication — June 26-27

Grand Master, 1966-67 — M.W. Bro. D. Worden, Jr.

Grand Master, 1967-68 — M.W. Bro. H. D. Loucks, Jr.

The Centennial Committee reported that they had completed their work and had a surplus of about $1,300 of the $32,000 received. The surplus was transferred to the Endowment Fund of the Montana Masonic Foundation, after $250 was set aside to put a plaque on the Grand Lodge building.

Preceding the Annual Communication a service was held at which the Grand Chaplain preached. In the course of his sermon he told of attending a Masonic lodge in Northern Nigeria. Most of the members were Moslems and the Koran is their Volume of the Sacred Law. From this point he drew the well-recognized conclusion that Masonry is not a substitute for religion whether it be Christianity, Judaism or the Moslem faith.

NEBRASKA — 1967

110th Annual Communication — June 6-7.

Grand Master, 1966-67 — M.W. Bro. L. R. Ricketts

Grand Master, 1967-68 — M.W. Bro. J. R. Bottorf

Lodges, 268. Membership, 43,969. Loss, 600.

Twenty Past Grand Masters were present at the Communication. The senior was M.W. Bro. C. A. Chappell, who was the Grand Master in 1923.

Over the years Grand Masters have stressed the importance of adequate lodge premises. The campaign is bearing fruit. The Grand Master dedicated five new temples. He commented: "It was most gratifying to observe the stimulation and inspiration which Masonry in these communities received as a result of the construction of these fine new temples. There are other lodges in Nebraska which could well profit and benefit from a rebuilding or a renewal program for their temples."

During the year two consolidations of lodges occurred. The action was necessitated by the "attrition of population in rural areas." There are thirty-nine lodges in these areas whose total membership is under fifty.

In reporting on the "State of the Craft," the Grand Master spoke of the decline in membership.

"As I see it, the real crux of the matter is the portraying and practicing of Masonry, and this inevitably involves the securing and training of dedicated and devoted officers in the constituent lodges. This is indeed a difficult and never-ending task but it can be done; I have seen it accomplished in many of the Lodges which I have visited during the past year. In almost every instance if the Master and Wardens were diligent and industrious, the Lodge was prospering, petitions were being received, work was being done in a proficient and impressive manner, and many special events and occasions were on the trestleboard to put the craft to work and to maintain their interest and involve them in the program."

102nd Annual Communication — November 14-15

Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. F. Logar, Jr.

Grand Master, 1966-67 — M.W. Bro. E. L. Pine

Lodges, 36.

Membership, 7,181.

Gain, 252.

In reporting on the state of the Craft, the Grand Master drew attention to the net gain of 252 reported by the Grand Secretary. This significant gain was the greatest in several years and brought the total membership to the highest in the history of the Jurisdiction. The Grand Master added that now Nevada will be "no longer considered the smallest jurisdiction in the United States." In fact, these Reviews last year showed the membership for Nevada in 1965 as 6,926 and Utah in 1966 as 6,801. Consequently, on some day during its centenary year Nevada moved up one place. Any reader who may subtract 6,926 from 7,181 will see the figure is not 252. The discrepancy, of course, arises from adjustments made by the Grand Secretary. In many cases the figures given in these Reviews do not balance from year to year. The fact has not been mentioned before as the differences are never significant.

The Grand Master said that in spite of the apparent forward movement of Freemasonry in Nevada there was some concern over poor lodge attendance. The smaller lodges situated in the mining communities and rural areas are largely dependent on plural membership for support — "Brethren from the large cities and lodges are travelling long distances and are providing candidates to keep these lodges active in their ritualistic work."

A number of brethren in Las Vegas petitioned to form "a Research council to be known as Masonic Research Council of Nevada." The Grand Master concurred. "The function of the Council will be two fold; First, to study and analyze the teachings, lectures and writings of the late French Philosopher, Ralph De Bit (Vitvan) and ascertain the functional aspects of his esoteric interpretations pertaining to Masonic philosophy; and Second, to make available to its members, through publications, educational articles on Masonic Philosophy, as derived from these studies."

NEW BRUNSWICK — 1967

100th Annual Communication — May 12-13.

Grand Master, 1967-68 — M.W. Bro. W. J. Summerville

Lodges, 48.

The centennial year saw the completion of the work of the Grand Lodge Ritual Committee. The Grand Master reported that the Committee had spent many hours to eliminate errors. The Grand Master, incidentally, told something of one custom in New Brunswick when he added:

"I have noticed that in quite a few of the Lodges I have visited this past year that the directive sent to all Lodges in July 1962 by the Grand Secretary that the burning tapers in some cases are not used at all. In others incorrectly placed. The lowering of regular lights during the ritual is not being carried out. This is important to the impression which the candidate receives and I would suggest the DDGM's see that this is carried out in all the subordinate Lodges of their respective districts."

In 1962 it had been observed that some lodges were substituting electric lights. The practice was discouraged at that time.

The Grand Lodge again awarded six scholarships, after much difficulty owing to the large number of applications.

In reporting on the state of the Order, the Grand Master said:

"I am pleased to report that in many of our Lodges applications to join our Order are being received in large numbers. We should be seriously concerned in making real masons of those we receive into our Lodges. Is Masonry to have a part in helping to build a better world in this second century of our Grand Lodge in New Brunswick and in the world? Masonry must somehow find its place and take an active part by assisting in some way to bring our Order into the forefront. Speculative Masonry can become operative by being co-operative in its spirit, labour and efforts and thus make effective the spirit of unity and purpose as an influence for making good will among men throughout the Universe.

"It is still my opinion that Freemasonry has had a wonderful past in the century just closed but it also has a challenging future. Our fraternity is one of good deeds, charitable activities and develops sincere friendships and because of these wholesome facets, Masonry will continue to progress."

NEW HAMPSHIRE — 1967

108th Semiannual Communication — November 19, 1966

Annual Communication — May 20, 1967

Grand Master, 1965-67 — M.W. Bro. H. E. Kimball

Grand Master, 1967-68 — M.W. Bro. C. A. Buswell

Lodges, 82. Membership, 16,782. Loss, 125.

Anniversary Lodge of Research, No. 175, is not like other constituent lodges in the jurisdiction. Although it has a number and a full slate of officers the work is devoted to research. The Lodge met four times in three regular meetings and the annual meeting.

The Grand Chaplain, R.W. Bro. M. J. Creeger, spoke at a Special Communication opened to dedicate a new Temple on the subject "That the Builders may grow." His theme was suggested by some lines of Edwin Markham —

In vain we build the work, unless
The builder also grows.

His conclusion made a most appropriate point which might well be borne in mind at the dedication of any new Temple.

"So, we go on building our new temples, and establishing new lodges, and teaching the great moral principles of Masonry and pointing out the Great Landmarks, and keeping the Great Lights burning, to the end that the builders may also grow; that they may grow in length of achievement and vision, in breadth of human interest and sympathy as broad as the needs and life of all mankind, as high in purpose as the perfection of the Great Grand Master Himself; and in depth of conviction as deep as the calm seas."

At the Annual Communication the Grand Master requested the Grand Marshal to present M.W. Bro. S. D. Parsons, "the World's Oldest Living Freemason." There can be little doubt in the matter as Bro. Parsons celebrated his 105th birthday on January 13, 1967. He has been a Master Mason for 82 years. He is an honorary Past Grand Master of New Hampshire.

The Masonic Home cares for about forty-five residents. Their average age is eighty-four plus. The annual cost of operation is well over $125,000 per year.

The third annual conference of lodge historians was held in October. Thirty-nine lodges were represented by forty-five members. The Grand Historian has completed over 500 biographical cards of prominent New Hampshire men who have been identified as Masons. He hoped to add 400 during the year.

NEW JERSEY — 1967

Grand Master, 1966-67 — M.W. Bro. A. C. Nielsen

Grand Master, 1967-68 — M.W. Bro. M. T. Morris, Jr.

Lodges, 289. Membership, 99,273. Loss, 1,712.

Six lodges celebrated their hundredth anniversary during the year.

The Special Committee on Retirement Homes found that the need for such homes outpaces the supply. Experts suggested to the Committee that such a facility in New Jersey should contain a minimum of 200 apartments and cost approximately $2,500,000. The Committee was authorized to continue its investigations.

The Committee on Masonic News reported that it planned to present a proposal for the organizing of a Masonic Publishing Company to produce a bi-monthly magazine to sell for $3.00 per year.

For the third straight year the Appeals and Grievances Committee did not have a single matter to deal with.

NEW MEXICO — 1967

90th Annual Communication — March 20-21

Grand Master, 1966-67 — M.W. Bro. H. O. Robertson

Grand Master, 1967-68 — M.W. Bro. O. E. L. Newman

Lodges, 65. Membership, 14,960. Less, 349.

The statistics of membership in the jurisdiction would be higher than they are shown to be if plural membership were not omitted. This fact draws attention to the variations in reporting in those jurisdictions which permit dual or plural memberships. In our jurisdiction the loss of an individual member might show as a loss of two, three or more in the grand total.

A Special Communication was convened in the Temple of Tucumcari Lodge No. 27, for the purpose of laying the cornerstone of the new First Presbyterian Church. The Grand Lodge, also, laid a cornerstone for a Methodist Church and a high school.

Some of the Dispensations granted were extremely liberal.

"March 31, 1966, Temple 6. Authorizing conferral of EA Degree on 8 candidates on same date. Work was scheduled before Grand Lodge changed rules limiting number of candidates to a class of not more than five.

"May 5, 1966, Temple 6. Authorizing conferral of Fellowcraft Degree on 9 candidates on same date. Same class as above with one addition."

In addition, several out-door meetings were authorized.

NEW SOUTH WALES — 1967

Grand Master, 1966-68 — M.W. Bro. E. A. Primrose

The Grand Master appointed a committee to investigate the possibility of developing the present site or procuring another site for a new Temple and administrative headquarters in Sydney.

As a result of an appeal by the Grand Master over $12,000 was collected and forwarded through the Grand Secretary's office to assist brethren and their families affected by the disastrous fires in and around Hobart.

A custom varying from ours is to be found in the regulations laid down regarding admission to lodge after it has been opened. Since December 1965, it has been permissible for members to be admitted in groups of up to seven at a time. Presumably up to that time they were permitted to enter only one at a time. Visitors may similarly be admitted in groups of up to seven, though vouched for individually. The admission of groups is not mandatory but is at the discretion of the W.M.

The Grand Master is hearing of more and more instances of lodges extending their charitable activities beyond the confines of their own members. He gave three illustrations, which he commended, which might well suggest similar activity in other places.

"The Secretary of a South Coast lodge recently passed away leaving a widow of an age when she could not reasonably be expected to carry out those chores about the home which are usually performed by the husband. The brethren of that lodge are now voluntarily rostered to attend to such work as lawn mowing and general maintenance of the late brother's house and grounds.

"In the Metropolitan area, the Worshipful Master of one of our lodges has, on behalf of his members, adopted a small local institution which houses children from broken homes. The children of that institution are being given outings and are gradually being equipped with new outfits of clothing.

"The Sydney Morning Herald of 17th April reported the fact that a small Masonic Lodge just west of the Blue Mountains conducted a door to door appeal to aid St. Vincent de Paul Society. This was the second appeal of that nature made by a lodge in that particular district."

When the Northern soldiers returned from the American Civil War there was a great upsurge in Freemasonry in the North. As facilities for travel were not as well organized as they are to-day many of the lodges formed at that time were in remote areas. The hundredth anniversaries were so numerous in 1967 that the Grand Master and Deputy Grand Master were not able to attend all of them.

The Grand Historian listed all lodges with important anniversaries for the benefit of District Deputy Grand Masters and others. Heading the list was Masters Lodge, No. 5, Albany, chartered in 1768. St. Patrick's Lodge, No. 4, Johnstown, celebrated its Two Hundredth Anniversary in 1967. Lodge No. 1 is St. John's, New York, and No. 2, Independent Royal Arch, New York. No. 3 is Mount Vernon, Albany, and No. 6 is St. George's, Schenectady.

The year 1867 saw the beginning of forty-two lodges and 1868 another twenty-four. Many lodges, in addition, will be celebrating their hundred and fiftieth anniversaries. Saints' names were popular in the earlier days. St. Cecile and St. Sacrement seem a little surprising. Other saints' names are incidental to a place, such as St. Lawrence, No. 111, Canton. Steppingstone, No. 1141, Great Neck, though not a saint's name comes close by. There surely must be an interesting explanation for this name.

A year ago, Grand Lodge authorized increasing the size of the Committee of the Brotherhood Fund with the result this Committee now has a member in each and every Masonic District and an Area Chairman covering several Districts. This has worked very well. The Grand Master, however, has mixed feelings about the Fund. "I would not want," he said, "to see our Masonic Fraternity turn into merely a money-raising medium. I sometimes wonder if the lack of attendance in our Lodge Rooms we complain about may not be partially caused by the frequent pleas in Lodge to contribute to various worthy causes. On the other hand, our commitments insofar as our Trustees are concerned for operating the Home, the Foundation for operating the Laboratory, and the needs of our Masonic Hall in New York are such I see no alternative but the continuance of our Brotherhood Fund campaign. The only alternative would be a major increase in per capita tax and some increase for the continued operation of our Home may prove necessary in any event, for with the inflationary trends of today our operating costs at the Home are increasing substantially each year."

The physical condition of the Grand Lodge headquarters is causing concern. The Grand Master earmarked $125,000 from the Fund for improvements.

The Grand Master was greatly disturbed over the large numbers of suspensions for N.P.D. He secured lists of names from Lodge Secretaries of those who had become unaffiliated during the last three years. His findings, as he said, were not earth shaking but he did point up one fact known to us all individually, though we may well not be aware of the total impact in a jurisdiction.

"In response to my letters to unaffiliates, however, I received replies from a considerable number of elderly unaffiliated Brethren who advised me they were now retired on small incomes and could no longer afford to pay Lodge dues and as a result had been dropped after many years of membership. It was easy to see from the tone of the letters I received this has been stark tragedy in the lives of many of our elderly Brethren. Most of those from whom I heard have undoubtedly reached an age where they were no longer known to the active members of the Lodge and probably rarely, if ever, attended Lodge. I realize only too well the financial difficulties presented Lodges in carrying a considerable number of elderly Brethren who can no longer afford to pay dues and this is especially true for a Lodge which has a substantial number of life members upon its rolls. An answer must be found to enable Lodges to carry elderly Brethren who can no longer afford to pay dues, for unless it is found, Masonry has lost its meaning."

The Grand Master has appointed a Survey Committee to study this and other problems.

The question of dress came before Grand Lodge. Full dress for Masonic occasions consists of a black tailed evening coat, black trousers, black shoes, white tie, white gloves, and either a black waistcoat or a white waistcoat, provided, however, that any Lodge may resolve after notice of motion has been given, for the personal comfort of its members, that during the months of January, February, March and December, or any of those months, the dress shall be dark suit, white shirt, white collar, dark tie and black shoes.

The Board of General Purposes proposed the addition of the words "or that during any specified period of the year the dress may be a double-breasted white dinner jacket or mess jacket worn with a black tie, in lieu of the black tailed evening coat and waistcoat."

Much discussion followed. One speaker pointed out that since the Second World War "full evening dress had been dropped entirely in England." Another said that brethren living in the suburbs frequently found difficulty in going home to change. In the end, the Board motion was carried.

Since the subject of penalties has often been mentioned in these Reviews it may be well to include the following item from the Proceedings to show the universality of the thinking.

"The inclusion in the obligations of penalties which we could not and would not wish to implement has recently been under review by many Grand Lodges. At the time they were introduced into the ritual the penalties were well-known punishments which were often publicly inflicted on criminals. As forms of punishment they were long ago removed from the penal code. Because they have been retained in the obligations required of a candidate for Freemasonry they are among the most common causes of criticism of the Craft.

"Some Grand Lodges have eliminated them entirely from the obligations, but for a complete understanding of some portions of the ritual, have previously explained to candidates their former place in our ceremonies.

"Others, while retaining them in the obligation, have amended the wording so that it becomes clear that they are mentioned solely for historical reasons, and that no physical penalty would follow a violation of the obligation.

"The question received attention at the Ninth Australasian Masonic Conference last year, when delegates from the seven Grand Lodges recommended that the second of the courses mentioned above should be adopted.

"The Board recommends to Grand Lodge that the obligation in the three degrees be amended by deleting the words 'and rather than violate any or either of them I would submit to the ancient penalty of having' and substituting in their place the words 'ever bearing in mind the traditional penalty on the violation of any of them of having.'

"The President moved the adoption of the clause, saying that this was a subject which had been widely discussed during the last two or three years. The Board had considered the changes made by other Grand Lodges, and concluded that the amendment now suggested met all criticism without taking too much from a ritual which had become so well established."

The motion was carried.

The newly installed Grand Master spoke on the influence of Freemasonry in everyday living when it is properly interpreted and implemented in a practical form.

In one of his opinions, the Grand Master ruled that the use of Masonic emblems on automobiles would be "in direct violation" of regulations laid down in the Code. In another ruling he stated that the Grand Master's apron and collar should be royal blue not purple as the Board of General Purposes proposed.

The Board of Publication put forward a resolution which spoke of the "tremendous upsurge of interest and enthusiasm in the cause of Freemasonry" in North Carolina. They attributed the progress in no small measure to the efforts of the Grand Master. The Jurisdiction did have a most successful year.

North Carolina is one of the Grand Lodges which prints Reviews of Proceedings of other Grand Lodges. The Reviewer is M.W. Bro. C. H. Pugh. In his foreword he tells something of the problems a Reviewer encounters. One is the way in which decisions on recommendations or motions are hidden a long way away from the proposal. This reviewer would like to see the total of lodges recorded. Most Grand Secretaries do but in a few cases it is necessary to add the lodge names to get a figure.

A few of the Reviewer's comments give a good idea of the high level of his thinking.

"It has been said by some of the Reviewers that you should make no reference to your own Proceedings, but we think sometimes that certain special items should be mentioned. In our own Proceedings it will be observed that our very efficient Grand Secretary encloses in parentheses the result of a recommendation or a motion that in most Proceedings it will be necessary to search through the Proceedings of following sessions if you want to obtain information in regard to the dispensation of such a recommendation or motion.

"Masonry is not a three ring circus, nor a spectacular, competing for an increase in interested membership on the basis of the entertainment provided. A certain amount of clean entertainment while at the festive board often provides the welcome and delightful diversion, but it should never hold the predominant place in nor be substituted for the real work of the Lodge.

"In our enthusiasm to maintain a constantly accelerating growth in membership some Jurisdictions have resorted to much 'ballyhoo' and tried to make of Masonry something that it was never intended to be, or ever will be, and in the process have taken from it its appeal to the highest and finest admiration of thinking men in their quest for Light.

"The thinking candidate as well as the thinking member who sought Masonry because of a sincere desire to be of service to his fellow man, and from a favorable opinion conceived of the Fraternity, can only feel frustration and disappointment when he sits through meeting after meeting and hears nothing more enlightening than a discussion or a RECITAL of the plans for the entertainment at the next meeting. If Masonry has nothing more than this to offer such men they stay away.

"There are some that say that Masonry should not hide its Light. That it should inform the public as to its principles and philosophies, that the world at large may know of the goodness of its philanthropies and the world at large may know of the goodness of the Order and thus by well publicized recital of its good deeds attract desirable men to seek membership by a favorable opinion thus conceived of the fraternity.

"These sentiments have been expressed in a Foreword preceding this in other Reviews.

"An Order world-wide in its scope with more than four million members in the U.S. alone, numbering among its membership some of the finest men and greatest minds of the day, steadily and surely growing for 250 years can hardly be called a dying order."

The library at the Grand Lodge Offices has an extensive collection of Masonic works and western Americana totalling 2,800 volumes. It also contains all the Proceedings of the Grand Jurisdictions of Canada and the United States which border on North Dakota. In addition, the Grand Lodge has contributed 10,000 volumes to the "North Dakota Masonic Memorial Library," a part of the collections of the library of the University of North Dakota.

The Grand Junior Warden reports on the Condition of Freemasonry. His report showed much work and thought. Beginning with statehood, Masonic membership increased, without interruption, to a high point of 15,470 in 1929. Between 1929 and 1943, membership declined to 10,590. Increases followed between 1944 and 1956. Since then there have been declines but nothing like those prior to 1943. The writer made a point which might not be well known. The population of the State declined by more than 60,000 between 1930 and 1950.

The Grand Lodge met in Amherst, a most appropriate location for the Centennial-Year meeting. As the acting Grand Master explained:

"Amherst has an interesting connection with the founding of Canada, and for this reason an invitation to hold our Annual Communication here during Canada's Centennial Year was accepted. In this old historic town and neighbourhood, four Fathers of Confederation were born: Sir Charles Tupper, later Prime Minister of Canada; the Hon. Robert Berry Dickey, later a Senator in the Parliament of Canada; the Hon. Jonathan McCully, later a Justice of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia; and the Hon. Edward Barron Chandler, later a Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of New Brunswick. In honour of these men, participants in the formation of the Dominion of Canada, we meet here today."

It would be interesting to know if any of these political leaders were members of the Craft.

Inevitably, thoughts turned to the loss of M.W. Bro. R. S. Longley whose death was reported in the Reviews for 1967. The Acting Grand Master had a most active six months. He confirmed the decision of a Committee that five lodges could be recognized as "one hundred-year lodges," attending several of the resulting celebrations.

The Grand Master told something of plans for new Masonic building in Halifax.

"The present quarters of Grand Lodge are crowded and scattered over two floors of Freemasons' Hall in Halifax. Our late Grand Master charged me with the task of trying to consolidate our space for better efficiency, and to provide a reading room. Our original plans have been halted following a meeting of Masons interested in developing a multi-storey building to house Grand Lodge, Grand Chapter, Scottish Rite, Shrine, and other Masonic and concordant bodies. It is my understanding that agreement in principle has now been received from those bodies most concerned. We are at present compiling data on our requirements for office space. Included, I hope will be a Dr. R. S. Longley Reading Room and a Library-Museum in the name of a distinguished Brother of this Jurisdiction. As this project progresses, we will keep the constituent lodges advised through the bulletin of the Grand Secretary."

In his visitations outside Ohio the Grand Master found that some Grand Lodges have more than one Grand Chaplain. One state has fourteen. He thought that it might be a good idea for Ohio to have one Grand Chaplain and several associates or assistants. Since the Jurisdiction has District Deputy Grand Masters one would think that the appointment of District Chaplains would, also, be reasonable and feasible.

Nine new Temples were dedicated during the year and others are being built. Photographs of the nine are included in the Proceedings. All but one were obviously built for lodge purposes. The buildings are plain and functional. One, however, appears to have been incorporated in a fine large church.

The Committee on Fraternal Relations recommended that the Grand Lodge of Parana (Brazil) and the Grand Lodge of the Dominican Republic be granted recognition. The recommendations were adopted.

Five years ago the Grand Lodge appropriated $10,000 for a scholarship programme. Since then twenty-five scholarships have been awarded each year on the basis of scholarship and merit. The awarding of the scholarships has always been left entirely to the discretion of the scholarship boards of the institutions concerned.

An unusual situation arose when three lodges wished to have cornerstone layings at approximately the same time. In order to save time and travel it was arranged to have the three ceremonies on the same day. The Grand Lodge opened in Catoosa at 9:20 a.m., moved on to Oologah for a ceremony at 2 p.m., and closed in Owasso at 8:00 p.m. The three-place names also stand out. During the year, a total of six lodges laid cornerstones.

The shift of population made it necessary for twelve lodges to consolidate into six.

In 1962 the suggestion was made that the Masonic Education Committee sponsor Masonic roadside signs "so that people might know that a Masonic lodge was in the town and its location" along with the meeting night.

The Grand Master approved and since that time 250 signs have been erected. The Committee involved reported that "the reaction has been most favorable." They also said: "So far as we know, there is no other state using these signs." In view of the rulings of Grand Masters on similar proposals, in many other jurisdictions, Oklahoma is likely to be almost unique in this development for some time.

The Grand Lodge Trustees, who appear to be similar to our Board of General Purposes, hold frequent meetings. Their report covered such topics as Finances, the Masonic Home, the Oregon Military Lodge in Germany, the condition of the Grand Lodge offices and several other topics. They reported that after seventeen years of work W. Bro. J. C. Wilkinson had completed the manuscript of the history of the first one hundred years of Masonry in Oregon. The Trustees authorized the printing of 1,000 copies. Half of these will be preserved unbound.

The Grand Historian gave, in his report, an account of the origins of Freemasonry in Oregon, in a brief paragraph.

"In February, 1846, seven Master Masons petitioned the Grand Lodge of Missouri for a charter to form a Lodge in Oregon City, Oregon Territory. The charter was granted on October 17, 1846, to Multnomah Lodge No. 84, but it took until September 11, 1848, for the charter to reach Oregon City, and on that date, Multnomah Lodge No. 84 held the first stated meeting of a Masonic Lodge on the Pacific Coast."

Sixty children of deceased or disabled Masons received assistance during the year. Put in other terms, the Trustees expended $21,000 in providing funds for family subsistence and for the children of elementary and high school years to the age of eighteen to help them with their education. The Educational Fund was organized from a small beginning of $150 over a century ago. It has risen to more than $675,000 today.

The Masonic Homes at Elizabethtown had another fine year. The residents, called guests here, totalled 755. The average age of adults is over 81. The childrens' homes house 68. The Homes operate a dairy and several farms. The list of activities includes an apiary, orchard, vineyard, piggery, sheep herd, beef cattle, poultry and vegetable garden. These are not simply hobbies. The dairy herd for example totalled 102 purebred Ayrshire cows and several bulls. The beef cattle totalled 91 Hereford steers. Other sections were of comparable proportions. It is not surprising to read, therefore, that the total expenditures for the year were over $3,500,000.

The Committee on Masonic Temples, Halls and Lodge Rooms reported great activity. Their attention had been drawn to twenty-six projects involving the building or renovating lodge properties. Several of these buildings house more than one lodge.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence gave a full report which included some historic details. In recommending recognition of the Grand Lodge of Peru, the Committee stated:

"The Grand Lodge of Peru has all the necessary qualifications for establishment of Fraternal Relations, and is in Fraternal Relations with most of the Grand Lodges which we recognize. We have information that there has been a conflict in their Grand Lodge. A number of members were endeavouring to form a new Grand Lodge under the name of the Grand Orient of Peru, most of these brethren have been expelled. The conflict has been ended, and the Grand Lodge of Peru can carry on in peace."

The Committee, also, recommended recognition of the Grand Lodge of Puerto Rico, saying:

"The Grand Lodge of Puerto Rico was instituted in 1885. Only two Grand Lodges in Canada are not in fraternal relations with them, British Columbia and Prince Edward Island. They are in relations with most all of the Grand Lodges we are in relations with. They have all the necessary qualifications for recognition."

Concerning the Grand Lodge of Dominica, the Committee recorded:

"The Grand Lodge of the Dominica Republic was instituted over 100 years ago. It has all the necessary qualifications for recognition. It is recognized by nine or ten United States Grand Lodges, and some others with whom we are in fraternal relations. It is not recognized by England, Scotland, Ireland or any Canadian Grand Lodge. Until more Canadian Grand Lodges establish relations, your Committee recommends that this Grand Lodge withhold recognition."

The Committee recommended postponing granting recognition of the Grand Lodge of Turkey for the time being to allow the situation there to clarify. The Committee put in a full year. The Chairman is M.W. Bro. VanInderstine, our representative near the Grand Lodge of Prince Edward Island.

Although Prince Edward Island is a small jurisdiction, the Grand Lodge has had a scholarship programme for three years. This year they granted five scholarships.

The Grand Master made a strong plea for the retention of the Montreal Memorial Temple. Owing to its mid-town Sherbrooke St. location, the property is valued at $1,500,000.

The Grand Master explained:

"This heritage, so dearly purchased less than half a century ago fails to impress some. They do not visualize the advantages of owning this Temple. Its sturdy magnificence, its commodious quarters, its unmolested seclusion are overlooked, except by visitors who envy our good fortune in having such a beautiful Temple."

He added:

"I think it is inconceivable that this Jurisdiction cannot maintain this building. The Montreal Memorial Temple is an edifice worthy of the reputation of close to one hundred years of Freemasonry in this Jurisdiction, and should be the responsibility and the pride of every one of its Members. It is newer than Temples I have visited in Nova Scotia (Membership 13,557), New Brunswick (Membership 8,501), Maine (Membership 46,552), New Hampshire (Membership 16,907), and Vermont (Membership 17,002), who all have Grand Lodge headquarters and communications in the Temple. With the exception of the Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario, which has an exceptionally large Membership, all other Grand Lodges in Canada have offices in the Temple, but because of large attendances do not all meet in the Temple. The exception should not be the guide for our actions."

The whole problem is being carefully studied.

As he did in 1966, the Grand Master addressed several paragraphs of his address to the members of French-speaking lodges present, in French. He thanked them for the contribution they were making to their Grand Lodge and called on them to further the favourable opinions of our Order engendered by the French-speaking members and the universal ecumenical movement of our generation. He called on them to encourage the establishment of new lodges using the French language outside Montreal.

In February the Grand Master attended Divine Service at l'Eglise du Redempteur, under the auspices of the three French lodges—Coeurs Unis No. 45, Denechau No. 80, and Renaissance No. 119. Denechau No. 80 is the mother lodge of the Grand Master.

The Grand Master, eloquent in both French and English, concluded his valedictory address with a few brief paragraphs well worth wide dissemination.

"The presentation of our allegories, explanation of our symbols and enactment of our legends are not mere repetition. The listener must scratch below the surface of what he hears or he loses the true, hidden meaning of our ritual. Indeed, if the listener is satisfied with the spoken word only, he will become bored and will seek the introduction of entertaining devices, or he may fall into that apathy characteristic of the slothful mind.

"Freemasonry was never intended to be entertaining nor to incite the guffaw of the coarse boor. We consider ourselves more intelligent than the brute; then let our actions be commensurate with that intelligence which we profess. We must constantly seek elevation, and that can only be attained by profound thinking, study and work.

"At a time when our civilization seems to be ignoring that which is noble, honourable, just and true, we ask ourselves if we are not heading into a stagnant pollution of mind and morals in a mire of degeneracy.

"Archimedes once said 'Give me a fulcrum and I can lift the world'. Freemasonry has Landmarks, Virtues and Ideals which are the 'Fulcrum' whereby each one of us can lift up our self-respect, the respect of our family, our community and all humanity, and thereby help make the creature worthy of its Creator.

"Indeed, they builded well who founded Freemasonry; let not our frailty destroy it."

Although, as the Grand Master said, the present does not appear to be an appropriate time for expansion, but rather one for consolidation, nevertheless, a new lodge, Mt. Hagen, in New Guinea, was consecrated.

In his address the Grand Master stressed the importance of "the careful training of Brethren for the Master's Chair." "I need not remind you," he said, "that there is much more to being Master of a Lodge than conducting the ceremonies of the three Degrees.

"The Master is the leader of the Lodge in all its activities. He must represent it at all times with dignity and ability, and in his own life must exemplify Freemasonry in such a way that he will be an inspiration to his Brethren.

"The welfare of his brethren, the fellowship that exists among them and their attitude to Masonry, must be his constant care. He should appreciate the genius of Freemasonry, and be so well acquainted with its history and ritual that he can in very truth, communicate light and instruction to his Brethren.

"I know that excellent work is being done in this connection by the Past Masters in many Lodges, but my plea is, that the Past Masters in all Lodges must accept the responsibility of training their potential rulers, so that each one can indeed measure up to what is set down as required of him in the beautiful address to the Wor. Master."

In large jurisdictions with a long roll of lodges, almost inevitably some cornerstones will be laid and lodge buildings dedicated. In a jurisdiction with only forty-seven lodges the dedication of a new lodge building is a rare event. This year the Grand Master had the happy privilege of laying the cornerstones and dedicating the buildings of no fewer than three lodges.

The first of these occasions was of particular interest. The event took place 106 years and two days after the first dedication. The lodge was Eureka No. 22, Portsmouth. The first dedication was performed by the then Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Ariel Ballou, the second by the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. W. G. Ballou, a relation. The exact relationship was not given.

M.W. Bro. Charles MacDonald, Grand Master of the District of Columbia, in addressing the Grand Lodge, told something of the Ballou family. No fewer than twenty-four members served on the board of Morning Star Lodge No. 13, the Grand Master's lodge. Seven were Masters. Nor did the interest of the family end there. Many more served as Masters of other lodges. The family, of Huguenot origin, settled in the colony in 1650.

Once again the attempt was made to shorten the Grand Lodge line by the elimination of two district deputies and assigning their districts to the Grand Senior Warden and Grand Junior Warden respectively. The present system, described in these reviews for 1964, requires a district deputy to move through seven districts in seven years. The senior district deputy is invariably elected Grand Junior Warden. The motion was defeated and tabled. So the old system stands.

The Committee on Grievances and Appeals rejoiced in the fact that for the fifth consecutive year no grievances or appeals were brought to their attention.

The Committee on Condition of Masonry submitted a comprehensive and full report. The members found the condition and prospects of lodges, on the whole, to be good. In order to strengthen weaker lodges a number of amalgamations were effected. The amalgamated lodges seemed to be functioning satisfactorily. At the same time the Committee pointed out that larger lodges were not necessarily more successful than smaller ones. Many rural lodges have better average attendance than larger city lodges. The Committee did suggest, however, that it would help many struggling lodges if more active and affluent lodges visited and aided smaller ones.

The third Masonic Home is progressing. At the end of the year the slate roof was finished and work was being done on the inside. Promise of support totalling £91,532 had been given. Actual cash received totalled £57,514. The target of £100,000 is now in sight.

The outstanding event of the Masonic year in Scotland is the dinner on the Festival of St. Andrew following the Annual Communication. On this occasion the toast to the Grand Lodge of Scotland was to have been proposed by Brother Smallwood of Newfoundland. The Past Grand Master Mason had met the plane at Prestwick to find that the Premier was not aboard. Instead he had gone to hospital in St. John's.

The various speakers at the dinner told a great deal about Scottish Freemasonry throughout the world. Bro. Thomas Young, District Grand Master of the Transvaal and the Orange Free State, told of conferences between lodges representing English, Irish, Southern African, and Scottish Constitutions. Indeed there is one lodge representing the Grand East of the Netherlands. One of the problems he said was that of communication. The very language is important. In his district he has two lodges which work in Greek and six in Afrikaans. There is a move afoot to form an Italian Lodge that will do its work in that language.

A Master of a lodge from Hong Kong stated that Freemasonry in Hong Kong, Japan and Korea thrives well despite wide differences in race, colour and creed. In Hong Kong lodges under Scottish, English and Irish Constitutions work in harmony. Visiting between lodges of the three Jurisdictions is frequent, more especially at Installation Meetings.

In another section of the Proceedings Lord Bruce reported that the "District of the Scottish Craft in Newfoundland" will celebrate "their one hundredth anniversary of Constitution" in 1968.

The Museum and Library Committee reported the gift of "Master Mason and Mark Mason Diplomas, Life Membership and Diploma of the Masonic Veterans' Association of London which belonged to the late Brother Sir Harry Lander."

83rd Annual Communication — April 19, 1967.

Lodges, 210. Membership, 26,045. Loss, 607.

The average membership of the lodges in the jurisdiction is 123. A glance down the list of constituent lodges, giving numbers of members, shows one lodge with a membership of fifty-one. (A lodge with twenty members surrendered its charter during the year). The largest is only 286. Few lodges have two hundred members while most tend to be around the average.

The Grand Master, on the recommendation of the Board of General Purposes, granted fraternal recognition to the Grand Lodge of the Republic of Venezuela.

For the purpose of affording electors a means by which they may cast a carefully considered vote for nominees for the lower offices in Grand Lodge, the Board resolved that, as from the Annual Communication in April, 1967, candidates for election to the offices of Grand Sword Bearer, Grand Standard Bearer and Grand Pursuivant will be required to furnish a biographical sketch of their qualifications on a questionnaire to be supplied by the Grand Secretary which, it is proposed, will be circulated in the April issue of "The New South Australian Freemason," and displayed on notice boards for the information of all brethren on the night of Communication.

The War Relief Fund, which is controlled and administered by the Board of General Purposes, was established by Grand Lodge in October, 1940, for the relief of returned incapacitated brethren and indigent dependants of deceased or incapacitated brethren as a result of World War II or other war in which the Commonwealth of Australia is thereafter involved. The word "returned" in the definition "returned incapacitated brethren" is interpreted to mean "returned from war service, including service with the United Nations Forces in Korea, and with Her Majesty's Forces against the 'Terrorist' Forces in Malaysia and Vietnam."

Lodges are enjoined to keep the purpose of the Fund prominently in mind, in order that no deserving case shall be overlooked.

The Grand Secretary, R.W. Bro. F. J. Ellen, retired having completed twenty-nine years and six months of service, first as Assistant Grand Secretary and over twenty years as Grand Secretary. In eighty-two years of existence, the Grand Lodge has had only four Grand Secretaries.

SOUTH CAROLINA — 1967

230th Annual Communication — April 27-28.

Grand Master, 1964-66 — M.W. Bro. J. W. Frampton, Jr.

Gain, 731.

The Annual Communication opened with a religious service in the College of Charleston gymnasium. The Grand Chaplain preached on some of the perils which threaten mankind. To his mind they are prejudice, nationalism, and carelessness and indifference respecting one's obligation to God and his fellowmen.

In his address the Grand Master reported: "We continue to experience a period of Masonic prosperity in South Carolina." With the exception of "a few minor and probably the usual controversies and disputes, peace and harmony" prevail. The Grand Lodge is in excellent condition and operates well within its budget.

Many of the lodges have begun building new Temples, have purchased more adequate facilities, or are contemplating the building of new Temples. Six new Temples were dedicated.

Dual membership is permitted by special dispensation. During the year six brethren, members in other jurisdictions, were permitted to affiliate with lodges in South Carolina.

Ten lodges celebrated their hundredth anniversaries, having received their charters on November 21, 1866. There must have been a great burst of Masonic activity after the end of the Civil War, or perhaps in South Carolina one should say the War Between the States.

In the 1966 review it was said that the Grand Master of that year "stressed the place of Masonry as a living force in the community, the church, government, and for youth." His successor evidently recalled the expression of that point of view for he began his address with an opposite approach.

"Over the years, our programs have stressed Masonry in many areas as it applied to the community, to the schools, to the church and to other areas. These programs have been excellent and well received. However, I am wondering that, if, in our request for Masonic excellence, we have not overlooked something that might be very important? I refer to Masonry in the Lodges as it applies to our own Brothers. It is my belief that the story of Masonry must be told and retold to each new brother as well as called to the attention of all Brothers, if Masonry is to assume its rightful place as a progressive fraternity."

The Jurisdiction has a Board of Custodians composed of six members, all of whom are appointed by the Grand Master, each for a term of six years. The area of the Grand Lodge is divided into six districts with approximately an equal number of lodges. Each member is assigned to a specific district. The duties are pretty well defined by the name of the Committee — Custodians of the Work.

Among "Dispensations Refused" was one of more than a little interest, reflecting as it did relations with and authority over another body "To El Riad Shrine Temple in Sioux Falls for permission to hold a Shrine night at Sodrac Race Track, near Jefferson, South Dakota."

During the year the Grand Master travelled 35,000 miles. His review of the state of the craft showed that he observed as he travelled. Once again he drew attention, as his predecessors have done, to the plight of the lodges in small towns declining in population as the population moves to the larger centres. He also suggested that "no lodge should have over 400 members and when that number is reached, a new lodge should be chartered."

The Fraternal Correspondent summarized fifty-six Proceedings of other Grand Lodges. His conclusions reached from reading three Proceedings from Australia support the view which has been frequently expressed in these Reviews.

"It would seem that they are more formal than we are in their proceedings, but a very solid adherence to the principals of the Craft, and the practice of brotherly love, relief, and truth shines clearly in their Proceedings. The Australian Brethren are apparently more concerned with quality than quantity of masonic membership and this seems to be working well for them. A glimpse of the esteem they hold for each other, and the pleasure they derive from friendly social occasions can also be seen in these Proceedings. I believe it would indeed be a privilege to visit or sojourn in any Lodge in Australia."

Of Canada he wrote:

"What has been said in the preceding paragraph would also apply to our Canadian Brethren. There is, in the Proceedings from 6 Canadian Grand Lodges, an underlying tenor of more formality perhaps than is found in the Craft in South Dakota. There is a strong indication of careful investigation of petitioners, a high degree of selectivity of line officers, and great care exercised in the matter of recognition. All of this adds up to strength in Masonry in Canada. Quite a few of our brethren have been fortunate in being able to visit in Canadian Lodges and experience personally their fine fellowship and hospitality. They are indeed our good friends, neighbors and Brothers in the North."

The complete Proceedings of the Grand Lodge are contained in two booklets with a combined total of thirty-two pages. But these pages are concentrated, as was said two years ago by this reviewer.

The Jurisdiction is divided into four districts, Western, Northern, North West and Southern, with a Grand Inspector of Lodges over each. Their reports are brief and to the point. They do not mince matters. One remarked:

"We still have the odd mason who in proposing or responding to a toast is obsessed with the idea that he must tell a doubtful story. It is indeed surprising that a brother keen enough to attend his Lodge and visit others, should think a low joke necessary to gain the attention of the Brethren. It would be true to say that the great majority of our brethren intensely dislike this sort of thing at a Masonic gathering."

Another wrote:

"Unfortunately in most Lodges saluting is of a very poor standard. I ask all Brethren give this matter their attention. Good saluting adds very much to the dignity of any ceremony. On occasions salutes have been given from a sitting position, and at other times not at all. This must prove very bewildering to newly initiated Brethren. It is most essential that we obtain some uniformity in this regard.

"It seems to be a general practice for Deacons to move the Candidate's feet into position with their wands. I ask that they remember the wand is the badge of their office, and using it this way detracts measurable from the dignity of the ceremony. In many instances the candidate is not in the correct position for receiving the Secrets etc.

"There seems to be an appalling lack of knowledge of the Book of Constitutions and Manual of procedure. I would like to commend the action of one Lodge in dealing with a small portion of the Constitution at each meeting. Other Lodges could well emulate this example.

"I have been generally impressed with the calibre of some of the candidates for initiation, this augurs well for the future of the Craft. However, on many occasions I have been dismayed to find that newly initiated Brethren have not been given suitable, or indeed any instruction between degrees. The proposer and seconder have an obligation in this regard. This is most essential if we are to retain their interest and help them become future officers of their respective Lodges."

There was a small decrease of less than one percent in membership but initiation increased ten percent. The Grand Master gained the impression "that Masonry has strengthened in many respects."

TENNESSEE — 1967

153rd Annual Communication — March 22-23.

Grand Master, 1966-67 — M.W. Bro. J. E. McFadin

Grand Master, 1967-68 — M.W. Bro. D. P. Henegar

Lodges, 389.

Membership, 93,414.

Gain, 703.

Many lodges took steps to balance their budgets by raising dues and fees. Nevertheless, annual dues do seem to be most reasonable still. There are four lodges with annual dues of $3.50, ten at $4.00 and 102 at $5.00. Fees are correspondingly low, 79 at $35.00 for example.

The Grand Master was of the opinion that it was not profitable to maintain the Grand Lodge building and recommended that a committee be appointed to study the feasibility of disposing of the property and securing a more suitable location. The Committee on Welfare, the Committee involved in the matter, recommended that a survey be made to see if better use could be made of the present building. This report was adopted.

The Jurisdiction lost a secretary by death who had been secretary of his lodge since 1922. He was described as "the last Spencerian Artist" among the secretaries.

The Fraternal Correspondence section included reviews of the Proceedings of some fifty Grand Lodges. The Reviewer, W. Bro. J. P. Buck, however, is new. Readers of our reviews may recall that more than once during recent years we have commented on the work of M.W. Bro. W. P. Douglas. Indeed, in 1966 we wrote "Bro. Douglas stands out as one of the most competent reviewers of the Masonic scene." After compiling the reviews since 1943 he has now become Grand Secretary. His successor has no reason to feel ashamed of his maiden effort.

131st Annual Communication — December 7-8.

Grand Master, 1966 — M.W. Bro. H. W. Fullingham

Lodges, 973.

Membership, 243,766.

A few years ago the Grand Lodge opened with the presentation of two flags, the Stars and Stripes and the Lone Star Flag of Texas. This year brethren of the Department of Public Safety presented the additional six flags that have flown over Texas.

France—from 1685 to 1690

Spain—from 1690 to 1821

Mexico—from 1821 to 1836

Lone Star of Republic of Texas—from 1836 to 1845

United States—from 1845 to 1861

Flag of Confederacy—from 1861 to 1865.

The Grand Master is able to address all the Masons of Texas every month through the "Texas Freemason". In April, 1966, he told something of the importance of Masons in the history of Texas.

"Reading a history of Freemasonry in Texas is like reading a history of the state itself. You could write the history of both by placing the word 'Mason' after the names of most of the leaders of Texas throughout its history.

"During the Texas revolution, Masons occupied the most important government offices. The generals and officers of the army and navy were predominantly Masons. Even the flag of Texas has a Masonic background. In the book, Masonry in Texas, we read: 'all our presidents and vice-presidents and four-fifths of our state officers were and are Masons (1844); our national emblem, the "Lone Star", was chosen from among the emblems selected by Freemasonry to illustrate the moral virtues—it is a five-pointed star and alludes to the Five Points of Fellowship.'"

A committee has been meeting to work out a plan of one payment in lieu of dues and fees. The task has been found to be vast and the committee was continued.

Four new lodges were constituted during the year. The highest number on the roll is now 1414. The Grand Master, also, granted dispensations to three lodges. Thirty-five cornerstones were "leveled" as they say in Texas. Most were for new Temples and schools of all grades. There was one public library and city hall in the list. Sixteen new lodge buildings were dedicated. When one adds up these various events he can see that there was more than one important Masonic event every week during the year.

Four lodges consolidated into two and the Grand Master suspended one lodge "in that it had failed to meet once within a three months period."

UTAH — 1967

95th Annual Communication — January 30-31.

Grand Master, 1966-67 — M.W. Bro. H. E. Dorst

Grand Master, 1967-68 — M.W. Bro. F. W. Douglas

Lodges, 32.

Membership, 6,719.

Loss, 82.

The Grand Secretary reported that two more lodges had shown an increase of membership when compared with the previous year though the gain was small. On the financial side, fourteen lodges had a net worth greater than that of Grand Lodge. Indeed, he stated, "The net worth of the constituent lodges has passed the million dollar mark for the first time." Did he need to add? "We believe this shows a very stable foundation for our lodges."

The Jurisprudence Committee were presented with a problem which cannot come up in Grand Jurisdictions too often. The Committee was asked to "authorize lodges in the vicinity of the convergent borders of Utah, Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona to join the Four Corners Masonic Association." They reported: "This Association appears to be an informal organization of Lodges in the vicinity of the four corners to promote joint meeting of Lodges in the four states involved at or near the site of the four corners." The Committee did not believe that permission was needed.

The Committee on Jurisprudence also recommended against amending the Code to permit open installation of Grand Lodge and constituent lodge officers. The Grand Lodge concurred.

The Committee on Charity had no requests referred to them during the year.

VERMONT — 1967

174th Annual Communication — June 14-15.

Grand Master, 1964-66 — M.W. Bro. W. C. Briggs

Grand Master, 1966-68 — M.W. Bro. F. M. Lawton

Lodges, 101.

Membership, 16,716.

Loss, 286.

M.W. Bro. Lawton was born in Hereford, Quebec, one quarter of a mile within the Canadian border. However, he soon moved to a like distance beyond the border. He now lives, as he has for some years, in St. Johnsbury, Vt. The Proceedings open with an address by the Grand Master to "DeGoesbriand Council, Knights of Columbus, Burlington, Vermont." He, as a lay speaker in the Methodist Church, told something of his duties. He then gave a very clear statement on the history and purposes of Freemasonry. Much of what he said must have been news to his hearers.

For some years hopes have been held that a series of schools of instruction, or lodges of instruction in the ritual, might be held in the jurisdiction. The dream came true, as the Grand Master reported:

"During the past year there have been four such meetings, under the supervision of our Grand Lecturer, assembled on an area basis, with District Deputies and Past District Deputies participating. Since there were no ground-rules the program required a trial-and-error operation. With only one year's experience no ground-rules have yet been devised, but reports have come to my attention that lead me to believe the general program has met with acceptance and should be continued . . .

"The main object of these meetings was to give instruction in the correct wording of the ritual, answer questions, and give instruction that might be helpful to officers and members. The average attendance was eighty-two, of which 50 percent were lodge officers. It is my feeling that the time and effort expended for these meetings was very worth while and should be continued."

VICTORIA (AUSTRALIA) — 1966

Grand Master, 1966-67 — M.W. Bro. The Honourable
Mr. Justice Gillard

Grand Secretary, R.W. Bro. C. W. Davis

Lodges, 820.

Membership, 111,086.

Loss, 2,111.

The new Grand Master was installed at the March Communication. In his address he referred to the falling number of candidates. He expressed the view that the saturation point of membership had probably been reached in the State. One in nine of every eligible male is a subscribing Mason. No figures in the world can compare with these.

M.W. Bro. General Sir Dallas Brooks, Grand Master of Victoria 1951 to 1963, died before the June Communication. The Grand Master drew attention to his three outstanding qualities: his heartwarming humanity, his impressive urbanity and total lack of vanity. As Governor of the State, General Superintendent of the Marine Corps and Grand Master, he filled three high offices. "For all that, he was a simple man."

The Board recommended to the M.W. Grand Master that some changes be made in the rules relating to correct Masonic Dress. The M.W. Grand Master approved of the following:

1. Full evening dress may be worn at any Lodge meeting or function.
2. Present and Past Grand Lodge Officers must wear full evening dress at all official functions and Installations, and on the occasion of a visit to a Lodge as Assistant Inspector of Workings.
3. For evening Lodge meetings, the correct Masonic Dress shall be black dinner suit, with soft white dinner suit shirt with collar attached, and black bow tie, or brethren may wear full evening dress. In all cases Worshipful Brethren and Officers are expected to wear white gloves.
4. In special circumstances, brethren may find it impossible to wear a dinner suit or dress suit. In these circumstances a dark suit, white collar attached shirt, dark tie and black shoes must be worn.
5. It is desirable that the Officers of a Lodge maintain uniformity in the matter of dress.

6. Summer Dress consisting of white long-sleeved soft collar attached shirt without arm or sleeve bands, self-supporting black trousers, black cummerbund, black bow tie, black socks and black shoes be permitted as alternative Masonic Dress from 1st November to 31st March each year, excepting:

- (a) Quarterly Communications
- (b) Lodge Installations
- (c) Official Visits made by Grand Lodge provided that the only permissive addition to Summer Dress at the Festive Board shall be a black dinner jacket.

At the December Communication a motion to proceed with the building of a new Temple in Melbourne East, to cost $3,500,000, was carried. The motion ended many years of discussion and planning.

The Board of General Purposes reported on three monthly meetings at each of the Quarterly Communications. Thus the Board met twelve times during the year. None of these dates coincided with those of the Quarterly Communications. At some sessions much of the time of the Board was taken up by considering applications for Masonic scholarships. They received 516 during the year. In addition to the ex officio members: the Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master, Grand Wardens, Grand Treasurer, Grand Registrar, President Board of Benevolence and Grand Secretary, the Board consists of twenty-five members.

The Grand Master was re-elected for the ensuing year at the December Communication.

The Grand Lodge held a Commemorative Communication in the Hall of Williamsburg Lodge, No. 6, to commemorate the start of the 189th year of the Grand Lodge. Many distinguished guests attended. The Grand Master gave an excellent summary of the development of Freemasonry in and around Williamsburg. The oldest documentary evidence shows that there was a lodge in Williamsburg "some time" before 1751. Williamsburg became the capital of Virginia in 1699 and by 1725 had become a flourishing city.

The Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Archer B. Gay (G.M. 1957), in his report, included some apt thoughts on the "Condition of the Craft." As he said, "The Grand Secretary sees many things at first hand which others might not observe because they are not brought to the attention of the brethren."

"One of our greatest problems is that of involvement. We have many thousand brethren who carry the dues cards of our three hundred forty three Lodges but never darken the doors of our Lodge rooms. We have been seeking by means of Masonic Education to formulate programs which will attract and hold them. Thus far we have been unsuccessful because our attendance has remained static. We must return to the primary principles of Freemasonry, which look to the brotherhood of man under the Fatherhood of God, the practice of charity and that genuine disinterested friendship which would always write a brother's virtues in enduring bronze and never see his failings except as a kindly friend.

"How shall we provide the inspiration which will bring these brethren back to the altar fires of the mother Lodge? There does not seem to be any answer but involvement in the affairs of Freemasonry itself. There is so much need in our world for brotherhood, there are so many opportunities to practice it which are being overlooked every day. Of these we must make our leadership aware. We must remove the cold mantle of organized charity from the practice of Masonic relief and learn that this lies in wider fields than we have envisioned. The problem is still one of leadership. This is a problem which we must solve for ourselves."

In addition the Grand Secretary drew attention to certain specific problems and suggested lines of action which are more widely applicable than in Virginia alone.

"The down-town Lodge must have some attention and help. In some of our major cities we have ten or twelve Lodges meeting in the heart of town, miles away from the nearest member's place of residence. The city has moved away and left the Lodges stranded. Perhaps a Grand Lodge Committee might assess the overall magnitude of this problem and suggest the relocation of some of these Lodges in suburbia.

"We also need to give some thought and attention to this matter of suspensions for non-payment of dues. This category claims about 15% of our total losses each year and needs our thoughtful consideration so that there is a regular system of following up these brethren who are suspended.

"We also need to study our population maps and the information compiled by the Bureau of the Census. These two sources will tell us where we need new Lodges and show us the areas where Masonry needs to be represented."

The Grand Secretary, in addition to his many other duties, writes the Fraternal Reviews. This year they ran to one hundred pages, providing a comprehensive record of the condition of Freemasonry throughout the world. We thank him for his full report on our Jurisdiction.

An uncommon Masonic Committee surely is a "Land Use Committee." There is one in this Jurisdiction. The purpose of the body, appointed a year previously, was to work out plans for the construction and financing of a "retirement complex type of development." Some members of the Committee inspected a number of retirement homes, paying attention to the different types of structures, financing, and operation. The project, according to the Committee, was entirely feasible. The proposal envisaged a ten story structure containing 300 apartments and four or six penthouses. The cost would be $5,500,000. An authority, separate from the Grand Lodge, would be required to administer the project. The report was received for record.

The Committee on Masonic Memorial Service produced a fine document which was adopted.

Seven years ago a group of enthusiasts, thirteen in number, formed the Perth Masonic Choir. They attracted other singers and the number rose to forty-six in 1963. Their chief aim was to promote an interest in music. They have assisted at Grand Lodge Communications and at Church Services. Through their concerts they have raised $3,500 for various Masonic charities. As the Grand Master commented:

"They have indeed established an important link between the Craft and the Community. In service to the Craft and to the Community, something of the spirit of Freemasonry and much of the rich fellowship of the Craft have been carried beyond the confines of our Lodges out into the world around us."

On December 10, the Grand Master and his officers dedicated the newly erected Freemasons' Hall in Terrace Road, Perth. The building is set in a beautiful site with a park in front and is surrounded by trees. At one side the boundary is part of the Swan River. An illustration of the building printed in the Proceedings reveals a unique structure almost impossible to describe. It appears to have been constructed in poured concrete. Dominating the whole building is a massive roof somewhat reminiscent of the roof of a stadium. Steps sweep up the front somewhat to the left of centre. The whole building appears to be standing on columns. As the Grand Master expressed it "The architect's bold conception has embodied strength and beauty—albeit of a robust massive stamp."

On July 4, 1900, the Grand Lodge laid the cornerstone of the State Capitol Annex in the City of Charleston. For many years the structure served various departments of the state government and was finally sold to the Kanawha County Public Library. In 1965 the lot was sold to a local bank as the site for a new office building. The executives of the library board and bank were members of the Craft. Consequently, there was no substantial difficulty encountered in recovering the contents of the cornerstone for the Grand Lodge Museum. The Grand Master, however, pointed out that it should be recognized that when the Grand Lodge lays a cornerstone it does not lose legal title to the casket and its contents.

Incidentally, in this case, the casket contained a copy of an early Charleston telephone directory which contained a warning against the dangers of electrical shock in the use of telephones.

WISCONSIN — 1967

Lodges, 300. Membership, 56,568. Loss, 1,189.

The Grand Master granted forty-five dispensations during the year. His summary tells something of the activities in the Jurisdiction. Most dispensations granted waived the time requirements between degrees, as it concerned candidates serving in the armed forces. Others permitted the conferring of the M.M. Degree in costume, special elections to fill vacant offices, and visits to sister Jurisdictions for the purpose of conferring degrees and putting on Masonic plays.

Nine lodges celebrated their centennial year. One of these was Cassia, No. 167. Our Cassia Lodge, No. 116, Thedford, was warranted in 1859. The name is not common.

The Grand Lodge discontinued "The Wisconsin Freemason" and substituted the new "Wisconsin Masonic Journal" a sixteen page tabloid newspaper. "The Wisconsin Freemason" first appeared in September, 1944.

In his nineteenth and final report the Grand Secretary, Honorary Past Grand Master, Paul W. Grossenbach, concluded with some thoughts which had guided him over the years.

"I believe that Masonry is a way of life and that it impresses upon every Mason his personal responsibility of building into his life a good character. On this premise then Masonry is a very personal sort of thing as it presents the standard of virtue to be attained by the individual Mason and supplies him with the symbolic implements with which to attain it. . .

"There are those who may differ with this concept of the purpose of Freemasonry, but to them Masonry offers little more than the prestige of belonging and the dubious satisfaction of such social benefits which they may come by incidental to their membership in the fraternity.

"Social benefits and entertainments of sorts are not per se objectionable for they do offer enjoyment of fellowship within the brotherhood, but when they become the sole and primary interest in belonging then those who follow in that way have not caught the vision of the true purpose of Masonry.

"When Masonry functions within the framework of the ancient charges and landmarks it endeavours to imbue into the hearts and minds of those who would seek light, the duty of being a good citizen, to work as best he can for those things he honestly believes to be of worth and value to his community, to his country and to humanity.

"Then the emphasis is where it belongs, upon the individual and upon his personal responsibility to society. If he accepts this responsibility then conceivably with such participation by individual Masons in their respective and separate walks of life we create a vital influencing force for the betterment of world affairs."

The Grand Lodge laid seven cornerstones during the year. The ceremonies involved an Episcopal church, a Chamber of Commerce building, a court house, a museum, and three lodges.

With only fifty-five lodges on the roll, three new Temples may be taken as evidence of great activity in the jurisdiction. Attendance was high on every occasion. The Wyoming Code empowers the Grand Master to "lay cornerstones of Masonic halls, churches, public buildings, memorials, and none other."

In all, the Grand Master granted thirty-five special dispensations. The lodges paid a fee of $5.00 in each case, except eleven for the purpose of attending church services. No fewer than thirteen paid the fee to install officers after June 30. Two were for out-door meetings.

The Centennial Activities Committee is well along with plans for "the great Jubilee year of Freemasonry in Wyoming — 1974." A summary of the discussions shows that the following proposals have been put before the committee.

It has been agreed to hold the celebration in Laramie, site of the original formation of the Grand Lodge of Wyoming. The time is to be scheduled during the regular Annual Communication.

A play or tableau is to be produced for the occasion.

It has been agreed to invite all the Grand Masters and Grand Secretaries, and their wives, in the United States and Canada.

It is proposed to present favours made of buckskin hand worked by local Indians to all those who attend and, also, to strike a commemorative medallion.

A history of the Grand Lodge is being written.

These proposals will cost a total of $22,000, but since the Grand Lodge has been assessing every member fifteen cents a year for the purpose, the income, plus accrued interest, will be adequate.

M.W. BRO. JAMES N. ALLAN: M.W. Grand Master, R.W. Bro. Fleming, Distinguished Guests and my Brethren: The task that I have undertaken tonight is, to me, difficult in the sense that I am afraid I will not be able to do justice to our speaker. I am a bit like the young coloured lad who had been a handy man for a grocery store, and this was in the old days when there was a keg of molasses, or a barrel of molasses, when molasses was sold by the quart from the barrel. Well, this lad was very fond of this molasses and he had a habit each day, as he went by the barrel, just to stick his finger down into the molasses and have a taste. Naturally as the molasses was being sold, it went down in the barrel and one day as he reached down in to reach the molasses, he overbalanced and went in head first. Well, he crawled back out and he gathered himself up, he went over and looked in the mirror and, he said, "Oh Lord, give me a tongue to suit this occasion." (Laughter.)

M.W. Grand Master, I consider it a privilege, however, I consider it a real privilege to introduce R.W. Bro. Donald Fleming this evening, particularly so because of my intense respect for him as a man; I have admired him, indeed, with very great affection for a long time.

Our speaker's life is a life of many parts and, unlike most of us, he has achieved distinction in all his fields of interest. Bro. Fleming possesses the rare quality of character which enables him to rise to great heights in his fields of endeavour, yet retain the most delightful relations with his associates and his friends, and particularly with his brethren in Masonry.

He was born in Exeter, the son of a high school teacher, and at an early age moved with his parents to the City of Galt where he attended school before entering the University of Toronto at the tender age of sixteen. He graduated four years later on his way to Osgoode Hall Law School, from which he graduated in 1928. On his way through University and Law School, he picked up several gold medals and silver medals and scholarships, and certainly was an honour student in those fields. Following his being called to the Bar, he engaged in an extremely active and successful law practise, but because of the interest in the welfare of his fellow man, his church and the community and with a will to work,—and I say this after knowing him extremely well,—with a will to work which has never been surpassed by anyone, he became involved in a myriad of worthy undertakings. He was a Member of the Board of Education, of the City Council, of The Toronto General Hospital Board, Welfare Work, etc., etc., all of which culminated in his election to The Federal Parliament from Toronto-Eglinton which constituency he served through six Parliaments for a period of eighteen years. He served an apprenticeship as a member of Her Majesty's Loyal Opposition until 1957, when he became Minister of Finance and Receiver General for Canada. You know that word "Receiver General" is a very familiar word to many of us, isn't it? (Laughter) and I wonder if you realize, that while he was Minister of Finance, during that period he reduced the rate of Income Tax three times? I daresay we remember when taxes are increased, but we forget when they have been decreased. However, we couldn't help but notice when he became Minister of Finance, certainly the experience of very many Ministers, after having been appointed Ministers is to feel that they have achieved a great deal in this world, and the story is told of a couple of my associates who went home and speaking very seriously with their wives said, "You know, I guess there are a great many men in this world and I guess a Minister is a great man." On these two occasions their wives said to them, "Well, I don't know, but in my mind there is one fewer great man than you think." (Laughter) Now this wasn't so with the speaker of this evening: He was made Minister of Finance and he was a great man, he gave an excellent account of himself in this position, which he relinquished in 1962 on being appointed Minister of Justice at that time. He resigned from the Cabinet in April of the following year and resumed the practise of law as Counsel to one of the leading legal firms in Toronto, and back again to a host of activities and served as Director of several companies, President of the Canadian Club, the Y.M.C.A., Chairman of The Ontario Government's Advisory Committee on Financial and Commercial Affairs and once again, etc., etc., until he succumbed to the urge to accept the position of General Counsel in executive, financial and other matters with the Bank of Nova Scotia in the Bahamas and the Islands of the Caribbean, as well as Managing Director of five Bank of Nova Scotia Trust Companies in that area. We were sorry to see his lovely wife and himself leave us and I say most sincerely, Bro. Fleming, that we hope you won't stay long, we hope that you will return soon.

Bro. Fleming was initiated into Masonry in 1937 as a member of Ionic Lodge, No. 25 of this city, and his initiation was the first step in an exceptional career of Masonic Service. He was Grand Junior Warden of our Grand Lodge in 1955, later a Member of the Board of General Purposes, during which time he has always been available as a speaker for special functions of Constituent Lodges and in other Grand Jurisdictions. His willingness to be of service has been his distinguishing mark throughout these years. Bro. Fleming's activities have extended to other Masonic bodies. He is presently Puissant Lieutenant Grand Commander of the Scottish Rite for the Dominion of Canada; he is a Shriner, a member of the Royal Order of Scotland. Brethren, Bro. Fleming's kindness in coming from Nassau to participate as a Member of the Board of General Purposes in this Annual Communication of Grand Lodge and to speak to us on this occasion is characteristic of Donald Fleming, an outstanding Mason, a great Canadian, who has always been tireless in his efforts to serve our Craft which he does so capably and in such a gracious manner. He is indeed thoroughly dedicated to Freemasonry and to the service of mankind which he seems to have lived to serve. I know that we are all looking forward to a great treat, to a very wonderful address, and, brethren, I have the greatest possible pleasure in giving you now a dear friend, certainly the type of Mason we all admire and should endeavour to emulate . . . R.W. Bro. The Hon. Donald M. Fleming. (Applause).

R.W. BRO. THE HON. DONALD M. FLEMING: M. Wor. Grand Master, Distinguished Guests and Brethren: To be invited to be the speaker at the Annual Grand Master's Banquet is one of the great honours that can be bestowed upon any Mason. I am deeply grateful to the Grand Master for the honour that he has conferred upon me. I know from having attended approximately twenty-five of these Annual Banquets in the past of the succession of very brilliant and distinguished speakers who have been invited to speak on such occasions. This is one occasion when the standard may slip. At any rate, Brethren, this is, in a personal sense my Genesis as far as this annual occasion in the quality of speaker is concerned.

I think I may confide in you a suspicion that had I not taken up residence abroad this year, I mightn't have been called upon to be the speaker at this Banquet. (Laughter) If this be the fact, this is the first case in known history where Exodus has preceded Genesis. (Laughter). I assure you, however, Brethren, that there will be no Revelations. (Laughter).

M.W. Grand Master, the Brethren have been busy of late pursuing their researches into the hidden mysteries of nature and science. I find that the scientific study that seems to engage the attention of most of the Brethren whom I have been meeting this week, is the weather, and I am constantly being called upon to compare the weather of Nassau with the weather of Toronto. I have been able to do that very simply and very directly as I now do; the weather in Nassau last week provided us with a temperature of 90° and very high humidity. I come to Toronto and I find the temperature 90° and, again, very high humidity. But, Brethren, I will say this, that when it rains in Nassau it pours, and since I took up residence there at the beginning of the year I have often thought of that little verse composed by Lord Justice Bowen:

The rain it falleth on the just and also on the unjust fella,
But chiefly on the just, because the unjust steals the just's umbrella.

(Laughter).

I must now, Brethren, offer you an apology, because I am now quite out of practice in making speeches. Since I went to Nassau I have made one speech, and that was to the Canadian Club there. So I feel very very rusty, and I think I am almost ready to qualify for membership in the Trappist Order. It may be that some of you will consider that this thought of mine comes a little late in life because, as you know, the Trappists take a vow of silence.

You may have heard of the particular novice who joined this Order, and at the particular Abbey to which he was assigned the rule was two words every ten years. At the end of the first ten years he was brought before the Abbot who asked "What have you to say?" He replied "Lumpy beds." Away he went and was brought back at the end of the twentieth year. The Abbot asked, "What have you to say?" He replied, "Lousy food." Away he went for another ten years, was brought back at the end of the thirtieth year, the Abbot asked him "What have you to say?" He replied, "I quit." (Laughter) The Abbot said, "Well, you might just as well. You have done nothing around here for the last thirty years but complain." (Laughter)

I must, with warm gratitude and deep humility, acknowledge the overwhelming kind introduction given to me tonight by my very dear friend, M.W. Bro. James Allan. I cannot adequately thank him for some of those expressions of fraternal feeling, which I share with equal warmth towards him. I simply say that where he exaggerated, I am particularly grateful to him. (Laughter)

It seems, Brethren, that after devoting forty years to the practise of law and politics, I have at last achieved the goal of becoming respectable — I'm a banker. (Laughter) It took forty years to do it. You know, Jim Allan and I share together a very doubtful distinction; we were tax gatherers. (Laughter) It's not a popular pass-time, Brethren. I remember a well-known friend writing to me at a particular stage in the more than five years I spent as Minister of Finance, and saying, "Now that you have established your policies, and the public understands those policies" — I was never quite sure that they did — "what you want to do is to make the people love you." What a task to set a Minister of Finance, Brethren! (Laughter). He said that with great earnestness.

One of the greatest of French Ministers of Finance in the Nineteenth Century said this, "Un ministre des finances n'a d'autre vertu que la férocité." Now, for Jim Allan's benefit I wish to translate that before we go any farther. Roughly it might run to this effect: "There is only one virtue to which a Minister of Finance could aspire, and that is ferocity." (Laughter) I think I succeeded in that respect. But if any man holding this office succeeded in making the people love him, I am sure it was Jim Allan.

Brethren, I have now been a Mason for over thirty-one years, almost exactly one-half of my life, and I stand before you tonight to bring you, as best I can, something of a testimony. I bring you this at the outset: That my life would be infinitely poorer without Freemasonry and particularly those friends, — and I am happy to see many of them here tonight, — whom I have made in the Craft, whose generosity and charity towards me I can never repay.

Off the west coast of Scotland, about four or five hours' sailing from Oban, stands a little island of rock and sand and heather. It is only three miles long and a mile-and-a-half wide. In some ways it is a forbidding place, for the Atlantic roars on its westerly shores even on a calm day. But it is also a bewitching island. It has cast a spell over men who have never seen it and those who have seen it and have set foot upon it never forget it. It is the Island of Iona.

More than fourteen hundred years ago, in 563 A.D., Saint Columba landed there from Ireland, bringing Christianity to the west and north of Scotland, a lamp to lighten the darkness of the Highlands and the Islands of Caledonia. There, in Iona he founded his community for worship and for teaching; there he established his evangelical headquarters. He made Iona a holy isle, so that even to this day it is a place of pilgrimage, of remembrance and of renewal.

The Abbey Church of Saint Mary, dating from the thirteenth century, has been restored in recent years and brought back into use. The buildings surrounding it have now been completely reconstructed by the voluntary services of the numerous ministers, students, craftsmen and artisans who undertake every summer to combine manual labour and Christian fellowship in a very successful effort to restore the lost unity of work and worship. In this movement are Scots, English, Canadians, Americans, Australians and others. It was founded by the Rev. George McLeod, a former and most distinguished Moderator of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, and now the Very Reverend Lord McLeod of Fiunary.

The Sacrament of The Lord's Supper is celebrated in Iona Cathedral according to the usage of the Church of Scotland, a plain simple ritual which follows the classical reformed traditions of Presbyterianism. The bread, a loaf from the Refectory oven, is literally broken at the table and distributed to the worshipers. The wine is served in six chalices, beautifully made and modern. Around the top of each is written a text from the Holy Scriptures. One of these consists of five words: "Friend, wherefore art thou come?"

Why were they put on the chalice? All that is disclosed is that the craftsman who made the chalices proposed this text for one of them, and his suggestion was accepted. I should like to think that that craftsman was a Freemason.

The brethren will not need to be told the origin of those five words. They were the words addressed by Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane to Judas Iscariot, who had come to betray him.

Brethren, I do not apply these words to your presence here tonight. We have gathered happily to honour our beloved Grand Master and to express our thanks to Almighty God for his recovery of health, and our prayers are that he may continue his beneficent service to Masonry. Rather I apply this question as one that might be put to us by the Craft we love: Wherefore art thou come? What do you seek of Masonry, what do you hope to find in Masonry?

Year by year the choice of a subject for the address at this Banquet becomes more difficult because it is harder to find something new. I think I may say of the addresses that have preceded mine, that previous speakers have pre-empted all the good subjects, and decency inhibits repetition, at least until some of those addresses have been forgotten.

A Minister, whom I have come to know well in Nassau, was telling me that as a young man he went to a neighbouring town, to visit his uncle, who was also a Minister of the Church of Scotland. His uncle was talking over the plans for the services on the following Sunday, and to his consternation the nephew found that his uncle was proposing to preach a sermon that he had preached before. He expostulated, "Uncle, you have preached that sermon to your people before!" "O yes," said his uncle, "but they won't remember that. Besides, I'll change the text." So sure enough, the following Sunday, the people heard the same sermon, but on a different text.

Well do I recall the words of the great Dr. Samuel Johnson, "Men need to be reminded more than they need to be instructed." How true, Brethren, is that of the techniques of Masonry! And I was encouraged by the words of John Stuart Mill, the great economist and philosopher of the nineteenth century, "On all great subjects much remains to be said."

Great truths can be forgotten, just as great possessions can be lost. Great hopes need constantly to be nourished. We cannot assume that we shall always retain what we have once possessed.

I have had, I can say, great difficulty in choosing a theme which might hope to be considered worthy of this occasion. I know I have not succeeded. The one on which I shall ask your indulgence came to me recently while flying at a height of 35,000 feet along the snow-capped Andes. It is "The Words of Masonry."

"Language," said H. G. Wells, "is man's greatest achievement." It is the means whereby we convey thoughts and communicate ideas. It is a very precious instrument. Sometimes speech or language is the measure of thought. I well remember in my first visit to what was then British East Africa some years ago, I was amazed to find that in the Swahili tongue, spoken by the natives along the shores of Kenya, there was originally no word for 'love' and no word for 'thanks.' Think, Brethren, that for generations people could exist with a language in which they found no need for a word to express the abstract thought of love or thanks! In the end after contact with the Arabs they borrowed Arab words to fill up this gap in their tongue.

The sheer power of words has been given many dramatic and historic proofs. Winston Churchill in 1940 rallied a whole people by ringing the changes on three historic words, "We will fight," and he changed the course of history.

Abraham Lincoln, standing on the Field of Gettysburg a century ago, said, "The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here." He was wrong. Time has proven him to be completely wrong. His brief Gettysburg classic is immortal. It will still nourish and challenge men's minds when the battle has faded into history.

Its words are often a pass-key to understanding a system of thought, philosophy, science, a cult. Indeed, each new science, whether social or natural, seems to create its own jargon. An intelligent man might well say, give me the basic words of a system of thought or teaching and I am far on my way to understanding its essence and plumbing the depths of its message and its secrets.

"I think," said an eminent scholar, "the three most important words in the religious vocabulary are 'giving' 'forgiving', and 'thanksgiving' and the greatest of these is 'thanksgiving'. From thanksgiving all else proceeds."

Democracy, too, has its words. Sir Robert Borden, who led Canada through World War I, and to full recognition as a sovereign state at Versailles in 1919, wrote on the final page of his Memoirs this verdict: "Democracy is always ungrateful, forgetful, and neglectful. I am very happy to have given up my public duties and to have retired from public life." Those are thoughts which many another has echoed since. Mercifully, Borden did not live until 1945 to witness Churchill's crushing defeat at the polls in the very hour of victory and deliverance.

If religion and democracy have their words, so also Freemasonry has its basic, essential words which convey its essence, and which are the key to its teachings. To these words, so far as I am aware, Masonry attaches no secrecy. How many are there? I suppose opinions in this room tonight may vary. You will remember that Winston Churchill was associated with a proposal some years ago to select six hundred words, basic English words, and to make a sort of international language of them. Perhaps I should employ the words of the unjust steward in the parable, "Sit down quickly and write fifty." I have not found it necessary to write as many as fifty. My list may not be complete, but I venture to say that not one of these words could be dispensed with if we would comprehend Masonry and its mission. Of such are the following: God; brother; love; charity; truth; light; work; freedom; principle; honour; virtue; honesty; faith; hope; sympathy; conscience; temperance; fortitude; prudence; justice; mercy; relief; fidelity; secrecy; discipline; duty; responsibility; obedience; ancient; sacred; eternal; life; law; death; soul; immortality — only thirty-six. On the other hand, there are words and concepts which are not to be found in Masonry, such as: license, indulgence, ease; neutrality, secularism; materialism; revolt; anarchy; violence; guile; deceit; hypocrisy, and many others.

If told this much and no more, a man of reasonable intelligence could grasp much of what is basic in the principles and teachings of Freemasonry, its essential message.

What do you seek? What do you hope to find in Masonry, my Brethren? The answer must surely be found in the words of Masonry. Among those words are words of consolation, even some popular words. But there are also among them harsh words: discipline, duty; law; obedience; responsibility; work; death; ancient. No one will pretend that these are popular. Some of them are out of tune with the dominant themes of the mass-media of our times. Are we then swimming against a too powerful current of thought? Is this a hopeless struggle? Are we losing ground? Brethren, if these be outworn words and discredited ideas, then Masonry is indeed on its way out. Let me say at once that I do not believe that these are outworn words, or that these are discredited ideas, or that Masonry is on its way out. Rather I believe that these words and concepts are true and lovely and of good report, and they impart balance and purpose as well as sweetness, sense and significance to life.

We are not unthinking men. We Masons do not hide our heads in the sand. Hegel, the German philosopher, once said, "To think and to think hard is a religious duty." And Thomas Carlyle said, "The thinking man is the greatest enemy of the prince of darkness." We are thinking men. We wouldn't be true to the principles of our Order if we weren't.

"Ye shall seek the truth, and the truth shall make you free". No one seeks the truth more zealously than Masons. Our principles are and must be relevant to life, our teachings are practical or they are nothing. We admonish our Worshipful Masters at Installation, "charge them to practice outside of the Lodge those excellent precepts which are ever inculcated within it." We talk of applying the lessons of the working tools to our morals—apply and practice. Masonry is concerned with life, with all of life, its struggles, its victories, its defeats, its heights, its depths, its miseries, its storms, its stresses, its serene calms, its wearinesses. Masonry has never been and must never be withdrawn, separated or remote. It is in the world, the world of men, and not of saints or recluses. It is supremely relevant to life.

The great John Milton said once, "I cannot praise a fugitive and cloistered virtue, unexercised and unbreathed, that never sallies out to see her adversary, but slinks out of the race, where that immortal garland is to be run for not without dust or heat—that which purifies us is trial, and trial is by what is contrary."

Masonry seeks no escape, whether to the cloister or the shelter from the realities of life. It stands in the full stream of life where cross its crowded ways. Like Luther, it says: "Here I stand, I can do no other." It dwells in the hearts of practical men. Scour the City of Toronto tonight and will you find 1,800 more practical men than are in this hall this evening? Masonic principles have been tested and tried and proved in the hardest of all schools, the school of experience.

A student in condescending tones once said to Thomas Carlyle, "I have decided to accept the universe," to which the old sage made this biting reply, "Egad, you'd better." (Laughter). We have no fear of reality, or reason, or rationalism. If this be another age of reason, it does not daunt us.

"What is the greatest concept which has ever entered your mind?" Daniel Webster was once asked. He thought for a while and made this reply: "Man's accountability to God." A moment of thought. Brethren, will show that his profound answer was predicated on belief, belief first of all in God, second, belief in moral law in the universe and, third, belief in man's freewill, man's freedom of choice. Our wills are ours. No answer that Daniel Webster could have given to that question could possibly have been more truly Masonic.

Has man outgrown God? Do we witness today a new Götterdämmerung, a new twilight of the gods? Should we now summon Wagner from his grave to compose anew on that tempestuous theme? Is God in his twilight, banished thither by man? Is the rock of ages just too old now?

The atheist would escape accountability by denying even God's existence, but, my Brethren, for every professing or avowed atheist, there are one hundred practising atheists, those who just ignore God, who just leave Him out of all reckoning. Others simply won't link God with accountability. They would escape accountability at any cost, even of self-delusion.

A man who is an acknowledged leader in one of the great professions of this country and whose annual income runs into six figures, confided in me not very long ago, "Every now and again I just have to break out," and he listed the things he does in these periods when he casts aside all pretense of sobriety, self-control and moral restraint. The list was long. And then he added significantly, "I just can't help it. It's the way I was born." I felt like saying to him, "You coward, how dare you blame anyone but yourself?"

Not long ago also, a young mother in a Scottish city, who had become such an addict of bingo, that she just had to go out every night to play bingo. One night the baby-sitter was late in arriving, and as she couldn't be late for her bingo the mother decided to take the chance and leave home before the baby-sitter arrived. Before the baby-sitter in fact arrived, the youngest of her three little girls had pulled over a lamp, fire had resulted, the little girl had been burned to death and one of her older sisters had been scarred for life. The next day a man went to call upon the mother to offer his sympathy. He was met with a storm of reproach in these words: "What kind of a God is he? He must be queer. Doesn't he want people to enjoy themselves?"

Brethren, accountability is a harsh concept. It leaves no room for fatalism, resignation, self-pity, self-excuse, cant and hypocrisy. These are not Masonic words.

If in search of reality, Brethren, let us take a look at the world around us. What do you think of it? What do you think especially of those who despise Masonry's harsh words, words like discipline, duty, obedience, ancient, who deride or are amused by or merely ignore God, the Bible, moral law, anything ancient, who claim to reject everything which is not new, even God himself?

In reality, Brethren, this attitude is not new. St. Paul found it when he went to Athens to preach nineteen hundred years ago on the Areopagus. It is recorded thus in the Book of the Acts: "For all the Athenians and strangers which were there, spent their time in nothing else but either to tell or to hear some new thing." So, Brethren, this is not a phenomenon of 1968.

The world's veil does not need to be completely withdrawn for us to witness a scene of war, brutality, violence, hate, destruction, enmity, discord, licentiousness, hunger, fear, irrational frenzy, tumult and commotion. This is not the complete picture, but you can't look at the world today without seeing these ugly things.

Three months ago France was powerful, prosperous, orderly. Within these three months we have seen France torn, bleeding and divided. What has come over some—thank God not all—university students? In cities we have seen them stealing gasoline out of motor cars to make Molotov cocktails for the purpose of use against the police in order to take illegal possession of property by violence. In a city which I visited recently they had been rioting in support of demands that they be given the right to select their professors, to decide what the professors should teach, and, of course, full academic credit for time spent in rioting. In my student days we were kept too busy working to have very much time for such activities.

In the city in which I now live I can tell you that seven churches have been broken into within the last three weeks. The Manse of my own church has been broken into now fourteen times. The Dean of the Cathedral was complaining that the poor boxes of the Cathedral have been constantly broken into, and my Minister, who is a Scot, replied "We cured that with a wall safe." (Laughter).

What of Britain, the traditional home of law observance? May I remind you of that riot not long ago in Grosvenor Square, where many policemen were injured in the worst demonstration of violence in modern times in the United Kingdom. The demonstrators came abundantly prepared and spread peas under the horses' hooves to cause them to slip and fall so that they might unhorse and attack the mounted police.

The hearts of all of us were heavy at last summer's succession of riots in great cities in the United States, marked by violence, looting, arson and murder.

Now the President has found it necessary to appoint a commission, a National Commission on the Cause and Prevention of Violence.

Last week I saw a New York daily newspaper which carried this banner headline, "Almost everyone in America is unhappy." A most extraordinary headline! This was written of a country with the highest standard of living in the world.

I went to see a friend of mine in New York City about a month ago and found her at the top of an enormous new office building which was nearing completion. I was surprised to hear from her accounts of an orgy of theft and vandalism. She said that at least fifty large panes of window glass per day are deliberately smashed. Someone is going about with hatchets, slashing beautiful and expensive new wood panelling. She said she dare not permit the women in her office to go to the washroom unless accompanied by a guard. And she concluded by saying, "There is a sickness here."

But, Brethren, let us Canadians first pluck the beam out of our own eye. On June 24, in Montreal, a hundred and thirty-five persons were injured and two hundred and ninety arrested in the course of riot on a day set apart in honour of a Patron Saint. I wonder just how honoured he would have felt.

And in the same month, within fifty miles of where we are meeting tonight, a leather-jacketed gang of young men on motorcycles, were engaged criminally tearing a motor car to pieces for revenge, and then damaging a police cruiser while the police officer pleaded with them, "Please, fellows!"

I was Minister of Justice, my Brethren, when the last man—so far at any rate—went to the gallows for capital murder. It was committed in this city up on Danforth Avenue. A man for whom the police had a warrant came in contact with a police officer there. We don't know yet whether the officer recognized the thug, but the thug didn't wait to be arrested. He pulled a pistol and fired three shots into that policeman, and while the policeman was lying wounded on the pavement on Danforth Avenue, that thug fired three more bullets into him to make sure he finished the job. After the execution I received letters from some of those sob-sisters, one of whom put this memorable sentence into her letter, "After all, he was only a policeman." I make no apology for having advised my colleagues in Government to let the law take its full course in that case. (Applause).

Brethren, all these crimes have one thing in common: they occurred in the west, in the free world, in the affluent society. Small wonder it is that Asia and Africa don't rush to embrace our vaunted way of life! On the contrary, they sit in judgment on us.

The late Felix Frankfurter, a very distinguished member of the United States Supreme Court, once said, "If a man can be allowed to determine for himself what is law, every man can. This means first chaos, then tyranny." Lawlessness is the more dangerous when it is condoned or abetted by persons in high places. This sick, violent world is courting disaster; it is courting the rule of the gun. It would be a wiser world if people living in the democracies heeded the gentle words of Tennyson:

"Some sense of duty, something of a faith,
Some reverence for the laws ourselves have made,
Some patient force to change them when we will,
Some civic manhood firm against the crowd."

The world has a large surplus of exhibitionists who revel in publicity. It is always hard for a Mason to understand why these demonstrations always are against something. Why are they always negative? Masonry, in contrast, is always so positive. It's positive because it's constructive. We are engaged in building. What could be more positive than that?

We are told that morialty is out of date, that the drug store has taken care of all that. Yet venereal disease and illegitimacy show an alarming rise.

Then, Brethren, came those cold-blooded, calculated, senseless, inhuman murders of Dr. Martin Luther King and Senator Robert Kennedy. Oh, Brethren, how much has mankind to be proud of lately?

"Mischief thou art afoot;
Take thou what course thou wilt".
Behold the fruits, the inevitable fruits, of banishing
God to the twilight.

There can be no acceptance of God apart from His law. God and righteousness are inseparable. "I'll accept God on my terms" is the attitude of not a few, as though God has no bearing on a man's actions and is quite irrelevant to his manner of life. This, again, is not a new concept. Not quite a century-and-a-half have yet passed since a British Prime Minister, spending a week-end in the country and visiting the parish church, heard from the local vicar a sermon on personal purity, and stamped out of the church muttering, "Things have come to a pretty pass in England when religion starts to interfere with a man's private life." Brethren, Masonry has been trying to interfere with men's private lives throughout all its history.

Masons put their view very simply in this respect. I think I can borrow the words of an eminent American educationist to put it this way: "Morals are not man-made. They are built into the structure of the world with the same firmness and reality as gravitation, and they have their sanction in the moral will of Almighty God."

And so we say, with the Prophet Amos: "Let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream." And when we seek wisdom we turn to Job and read: "Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding."

The declared foundation of our Order is the practice of social and moral virtue. That can be achieved only by the most exacting self-discipline. "No discipline can be without pain," says Havelock Ellis. But discipline, as the Boy Scout Motto reminds us, "is the foundation of character and the safeguard of liberty."

We teach that self-discipline will best conduce to the preservation of all our faculties in their fullest energies, thereby enabling us to exert those talents wherewith God has blessed us, as well to His glory as to the welfare of our fellow-creatures.

Therefore we, as Masons, seek and condone no new morality. We seek rather a renewed morality. We teach that "there is no real greatness without self-denial." We uphold as our ideal the man who, without blemish, fulfils his duties as a man, a subject, a husband, and a father, the man whose "strength is as the strength of ten because his heart is pure."

Man's highest role is to be the servant of God.

Our wills are ours,
We know not how;
Our wills are ours,
To make them thine.

I said earlier, Brethren, that I think Masonry has no need to be fearful of rationalism. Let us face it without fear. It will not overcome us. Rationalism has its ultimate mocking expression in the cynic's parody on prayer, "Oh God, if there be a God, save my soul, if I have a soul." This is a scientific age, but pure rationalism has been a stronger force in other ages than in ours. It has never conduced to strong moral values. Let me give you just two examples.

The first is from ancient Greece and Rome: This was indeed the classic age of rationalism; it was a stronger force then than it is today, but it was not strong enough to withstand the sweep of a new religion based upon belief in the Resurrection and utter unworldliness.

Those of you who were in this hall on this same occasion two years ago, will recall the eloquent address that we heard from the lips of V.W. Bro. Sir Edwin Leather, in the course of which he described the Eighteenth Century as an age of elegance. It was indeed an age of elegance in royal courts, in the homes and lives of the aristocracy, and in literature. Many great institutions were born in that period, and we think, of course, of The Grand Lodge of England. It was also an age of rationalism which reached its nadir in the French Revolution, when the revolutionaries placed on the throne of the Bishop, in Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris a prostitute and hailed her as the Goddess of Reason.

It was also an age of moral decadence. There has been none worse in all British history. It was so bad that Wordsworth, even as late as 1802—and Wordsworth loved England—described her as "a fen of stagnant waters." It was an age of debauchery, licentiousness, corruption, venality, slavery, piracy, wars, stupidity in high places and shipwrecking.

Brethren, in the island in which I now live, the people in this period weren't content with the shipwrecks that occurred as a result of normal errors in navigation. They managed to contrive some of them by hanging lights out here and there to draw ships onto the reefs.

There is a story told which stems from this period in Bahamian history that one Sunday the hymn-singing in a little church on New Providence Island was abruptly interrupted. The congregation gaped as an excited citizen rushed in with the electrifying news, "There's a ship to be plundered up on the reefs." There was a frantic rush for the exit. Above the hub-bub rose the voice of the Bahamian pastor from his pulpit, "Brethren, wait for me to shed my clerical garb so that we can all have a fair start." (Laughter).

Brethren, that century ended in England with the regeneration of the human spirit under the revival of religion, a regeneration of the human spirit bursting its bonds and seeking freedom, decency and God. It was the greatest spiritual rebirth since the Reformation. It gave birth to great institutions which have endured.

Brethren, on the record, rationalism will not save or satisfy mankind. It can't meet man's needs; it can't satisfy man's longing. No more can affluence. No more can science.

Brethren, I must take only a moment in conclusion to face up to one more harsh word. I don't like to close on a sombre note, but if I omitted this one I think I should feel like a coward, for it is the ultimate harsh word. Masonry could not claim to be realistic or practical unless it faced the supreme reality of death. At this point rationalism fades; it simply goes negative. Masonry prepares us for death, for the inevitable. It prepares, or rather bids us to be prepared, for what may happen at any minute.

It is the little rift within the lute,
That by and by will make the music mute,
And ever widening slowly silence all."

Masonry, thank God, affirms its unshakeable belief in the immortality of the soul, and that what we call death is but the gateway to a better life. Otherwise, life would be but a dark enigma; we would be but the playthings of God. Such a thought is irreconcilable with the God who marks even the sparrow's fall. Our concern then is with eternity and with eternal values.

I quoted earlier a sentence of Daniel Webster. I turn to him again for this statement: "If we work upon marble it will perish; if we work upon brass, time will efface it; if we rear temples they will crumble into dust; but if we work upon immortal minds, if we imbue them with principles, with the just fear of God and love of our fellowmen, we engrave on those tablets something which will brighten to all eternity."

Brethren, the words of Masonry, even the harsh ones, are eternal. They will serve future aeons of time when the memory of present generations, and hippies and beatniks, shall have faded into the mists of time.

Friend, wherefore art thou come to Masonry? Masonry offers you no mere book of rules or code of legislation. It has chosen rather to express its doctrine in principles and standards, for "the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life." It summons the individual conscience and intelligence to understand, to discern, and to apply principles. Yet when Masonry speaks it is in words and tones of authority. That authority is derived from the Volume of the Sacred Law.

The Supreme reality of God for each of us must, in the last analysis, rest upon personal experience. Your experience and mine is that God is not remote or distant. "If I ascend up into heaven, Thou art there; if I make my bed in hell, behold Thou art there; if I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there shall Thy hand lead me and Thy right hand shall hold me."

Your experience and mine tell us that God is not capricious but constant, not a despot but our Father, not unconcerned but a present help in time of trouble, not enfeebled but sovereign, not dead but living and the source of all life.

We hail the wondrous discoveries of science in our time. We know that many more await men's restless quest, but these will never invade or reduce the realm of the spirit. As Hamlet warned his friend Horatio: "There are more things in this world, Horatio, than are dreamt of in your philosophy."

That thought has found its highest and noblest expression in those supreme words which first fell on the startled and uncomprehending ears of Nicodemus: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh and whither it goeth: so is everyone that is born of the spirit." (Continued applause.)

DEPUTY GRAND MASTER BRUCE B. FOSTER: M.W. Grand Master, Distinguished Guests, R.W. Bro. Fleming and my Brethren: We have been most fortunate tonight in having as our speaker one who has contributed so much to the local as well as to the national side of our lives. Over the years he has proven himself to be a persuasive, reasonable, and a good man with great convictions as to the place of Freemasonry in society. We have tonight been reminded of our duty as Masons, a duty we must accept if we are to continue as members of our beloved Craft, and as active members of society.

Our speaker's thoughts and words have come to us with great clarity and most certainly has made all feel that we have been fortunate to have him here. And so may we wish for you, R.W. Bro. Fleming, continued good health and happiness in your new field of endeavour, and on behalf of all present may I thank you most sincerely for coming and for your wonderful message. Would the brethren join me in this expression of our appreciation. (Continued applause.)

GRAND MASTER DONALD J. GUNN: R.W. Bro. Fleming, may I add my own sincere thanks and appreciation for the most earnest and challenging address which you have just given to us. (Applause.)
